Unemployed persons and partially unemployed who fill out and send in cards for the National Unemployment Census, between November 16 and 20 need not fear that their names will be published, or made public in any way.

This pledge is contained in the instruction sent to all offices where the census is being taken.

"The confidential nature of the answers to questions on the Unemployment Report Card will be respected by the administrator of the National Unemployment Census," the instructions state.

The information given by unemployed or other signers of the cards will not be used to their disadvantage in any way, such as in tax matters, questions of citizenship, or relief. The data on the cards is to be used solely for the purposes of the census. Further, positive action was taken to exclude from the census any supplementary enumeration or registration which might be imposed on the regular unemployment census by those seeking to take advantage of the government's undertaking for their own purposes.

Every unemployed or partially unemployed person gains by registering during the National Unemployment ment Census to be taken November 16 in this and all other communities of the United States, according to the pamphlet, "General Information," issued by Administrator John D. Biggers, in charge of this program.

The pamphlet quotes the President's message on the face of the report cards, in which he said:

"If you give me the facts, I shall try to use them for the benefit of all who need and want work and do not now have it."

It also recalled that Congress directed the census to be taken "to aid in the formulation of a program for reemployment, social security, and unemployment relief for the people of the United States. . ."

Thus, while the unemployed are warned by the pamphlet that "registration on the report card is in no sense registration for a job," there is the implied intention of Congress to use the information obtained in this census, for development of constructive plan, aimed at improving the condition of the unemployed.

Analysis of the information sought through the fourteen questions on the card shows that when the census has been completed, Congress and the Government will have data it has not had in the past in dealing with unemployment, as there has been no general census since 1930.

Information will now be available showing the age groups in which the employable unemployed or partially unemployed are found. The answers obtained from the cards will show in what trades there is the most enforced idleness, and the parts of the country in which unemployment most prevails.

The authorities will have data to show which industries are lagging in reemployment, and thus will know which industries would contribute the most new jobs by their revival. The cards will reveal what new industries are needed to augment available work in all parts of the country.

Therefore the census will supply statistics of vital importance to every community, not only to the unemployed, but to every element of the population.

Large Audience Enjoys All School Play Friday Night

"Big Hearted" Herbert, the all school play presented at the Highland Park High school auditorium Friday night played before an appreciative audience of 800 people. Betty Murray as Mrs. Kalness and Walter Gottschall as her troublesome spouse, "Big Hearted Herbert," had the leading parts in the play and, though both were playing their first major roles, turned in sterling performances.

Miss Elise Rinckenberger, dramatic coach at the high school, directed the play which was a success from the opening curtains to the last. Mrs. Helen Mayor Mannings directed the school orchestra in a musical program between acts.

The two room stage setting, the first in the history of the school, was beautifully done in every detail. Mr. Robt. Schneider directed its construction.

H. P. Merchants Play Second Scoreless Tie With Deerfield

The undefeated H. P. Merchants will play the undefeated Clairmont Beechers of Chicago who are rated as one of the most powerful teams in their area Sunday. Last Sunday the Merchants played their second scoreless tie with the Deerfield Merchants. Both teams had several scoring chances but they all failed at the last moment. Repholz saved the game for H. P. when he broke through three blockers and tackled his man from behind, when it seemed certain he was away to a touchdown. Schmidt's fine plunging and Bouden's kicking were factors in H. P. attacks, while Marinello, Shean, Joe Tazoli, Lormier and Diff played stellar games in the line. The team has been whipped into shape for Sunday's battle and a good game is in store for all those attending. The kickoff will be at 2 o'clock.

Gordon B. Enders Secured to Speak at Evening Meeting

ping up Christmas gifts. Mrs. Fowkes will help each member individually with the articles described, so everyone is requested to bring paste and scissors to the meeting. Other materials can be purchased there at reasonable prices. Those who wish to remain to lunch are asked to bring their own sandwiches, and coffee will be served at a small charge. Non-members are welcome upon payment of a small fee.

On Tuesday, November 16th, at 8 o'clock, an evening meeting which will be of interest both to men and to women will take the place of the usual afternoon meeting. Gordon B. Enders, an American aviator, who has spent most of his life in Tibet, understands the language, the people and their customs, and holds the unique position of Foreign Adviser to the Grand Lama of that fascinating country, will speak on "Nowhere Else in the World—The Story of Tibet." Mr. Enders is an entertaining speaker, his subject a most interesting one, and his thrilling story of this mysterious country is one that will not soon be forgotten. Members are permitted to bring their husbands or escorts to this meeting, associate members such as the public school teachers in Highland Park and Deerfield, librarians, Y.W.C.A. secretaries nurses at the local hospital, and at Fort Sheridan and Great Lakes, and wives and mothers of commissioned officers at those stations, are welcome upon the payment of the usual fee. Members are allowed to bring local guests who have not been present at regular club meetings thus far this year, and out of town guests upon payment of the usual guest fee.

The Art Exhibit, extending from November 16th through December 7th, will consist of sculptures by three well-known local artists, Veronese Beatty, Rita Henkle and Ivy Steele, and by a sculptor who is locally known, Warren Williams.

The Community Garden Class, whose meetings are open only to members of the Class, will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday, November 23rd, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. George S. Livingston, 261 Linden Park Place, with Mrs. Armand V. McPhee and Mrs. Louis V. Francoeur as co-hostesses. Mrs. Raymond Knotts of Berwyn, Illinois, will give a talk on "The Lincoln Memorial Garden"—a subject of real interest to all garden lovers. Probably due to carelessness, a number of members have not yet paid their dues to the Financial Secretary, Mrs. Lyle Maley, 281 Prospect ave., and she urges these women to send them to her promptly in order to avoid receiving a formal notice from her to the effect that they MUST be paid before December 15th. The club is offering its extensive program of activities on the assumption that all dues will be paid promptly, and neglect to do so seriously impedes the progress of the work of the organization.

Orders for the holiday five pound box of chocolates and the two and a half pound tin of hard candies will be taken at every meeting until Christmas by Mrs. Claburn Jones, chairman of the Finance Committee, or some member of her committee. Those who sampled the chocolates at the November second meeting were pleased with the quality of the candy while the attractive package caused much favorable comment.

Highwood Resident Passes on Tuesday

Mrs. Edward Smith, aged fifty-four, 320 Prairie ave., Highwood, died Tuesday morning at five o'clock as the result of complications following a major operation performed last Thursday. She had been a resident of Highwood for the past nine years.

Funeral service will be held this morning at 9:30 o'clock from St. James church, with interment in Memorial Park cemetery.

The deceased is survived by her husband, and two children John Butler and Catherine Butler.

Missing Soldiers Held in St. Louis

Fort Sheridan authorities were notified Thursday that the four soldiers who left the post without permission Wednesday were being held along with their two Highland Park girl companions by St. Louis police.

An army official will return the soldiers, Leo Simpson, 24; Irvin Ab-bink, 20; Clarence Lane, 20, and Alfred Schneider, 25, to Fort Sheridan today. The names of the girls, who are 17 and 18 years old and are former domestic servants, were not revealed.

The soldiers and their companions were seized, it was learned, when one of them attempted to visit a relative residing in St. Louis. They were travelling by auto.

The waterway connecting Lake Michigan and the Illinois River is capable of handling vessels with cargoes of 9000 tons, equal to a train of 180 cars of 50 tons each.
