BULLARD WEDDING

NOVEMBER 27
The marriage of Miss Carol Bullard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Selar Bullard of Santa Barbara, Cal., and Richard B. Howland of Greece, will be solemnized Saturday afternoon, November 27th, at 4 o'clock in Trinity church. Mrs. Bullard and her daughters Carol and Clari Jean arrived in Highland Park early this week and have taken the Malcolm Vail residence for a month. It will be here that the wedding reception will be held. Because Mr. Howland's family comes from the east, and the bride's from the west, it was felt that it would be more convenient to have the ceremony take place in Highland Park, as more of the Bullard family friends are in this vicinity. Mr. Howland who arrived in New York last week is visiting his father, Carl Badger Howland, in Providence, R. I., for a few days and is expected here Friday. Mr. Bullard will arrive from California early next week. There will also be six bridesmaids including Miss Adelaide Ball of Winnetka, whose engagement to Davis Greene Kirby was announced Sunday evening at a tea given by her for Miss Bullard; Janet Bard and Margaret Smith of Highland Park and Leigh Fletcher, Elizabeth Ridgley and Janice Sprague of New York. Carl Howland, Jr., will serve his brother as best man.

PRE-NUPTIAL PARTIES

FOR BRIDE TO BE
Among the pre-nuptial parties given for Miss Carol Bullard this week and next are: a tea Friday by Mrs. Roland Hastings. Saturday, Miss Adelaide Ball and her fiancé, Davis Kirby, will entertain Miss Bullard and her fiancé, Dick Howland, at dinner and a theatre party; Sunday Mrs. Theodore Bersbach and her brother Bert Eitel are giving a cocktail party at the Eitel home on S. Linden avenue, preceding a dinner at the Bard home given by Miss Janet. Mrs. Robert Robert Walker of Chicago is giving a luncheon Monday followed by a dinner in the evening at the home of Mrs. George Roberts for the Bullard family. Tuesday, Mrs. George Childs will be hostess at a luncheon-bridge for the bride to be, and in the evening Mrs. Fletcher Seymour is having a dinner party in her honor. Wednesday Miss Margaret Smith is entertaining at dinner and on Thanksgiving day, Mrs. Samuel Holmes will have the Bullard family as guests at noon, while in the evening the Fred Prestons are entertaining at dinner at the Casino. The bridal dinner Friday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. Bullard at their home will climax a week of strenuous activity. The wedding will take place on Saturday afternoon.

LOCAL GIRL PLEDGED

TO DELTA GAMMA
Lizette Heaton of 166 Beech St. has been pledged to Delta Gamma social sorority at Northwestern University. Three hundred and twenty-one women students, most of them freshmen, were pledged to 18 sororities at the opening of the fall term. DUGGAN-BERUBE WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Ann Duggan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Duggan of Lake Forest, and James Berube, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Berube of this city, will be solemnized on Thanksgiving day at ten o'clock in the morning at St. Mary's church in Lake Forest. Mrs. I. W. Garling, sister of the groom, will serve the bride as matron of honor while William Rogan will be best man of the groom.

A wedding breakfast will be served at the home of the bride's parents following the service at the church. A reception will be held from three in the afternoon to nine o'clock in the evening at the Berube home on N. Green Bay road. After a honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Berube will make their home in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Guild of Bloomington will arrive next week to spend Thanksgiving with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Baum.

CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING

PRESCRIPTIONS and PRICE TAGS

It is true that we make no effort to price our prescriptions on a "bargain counter" basis. Yet, because our volume is large, our costs are low. A prescription compounded here costs no more—and perhaps even less—than you would pay elsewhere. And you are advantaged by our large stocks of fresh, potent drugs, our high ethical standards, and our invariable policy of filling every prescription precisely as the Doctor directs.
