

DEERFIELD LOCALS

John Wilson Buried

John Wilson, who has lived with his brother James, caretaker of the Deerfield Country club on Saunders road for the past several years, was killed when hit by an automobile on Tuesday evening, November 16, as he walked on Rand road near Des Plaines. Funeral services were held in Des Plaines on Monday afternoon and interment was made in Ridgewood cemetery, on Milwaukee ave. He is survived by his brother, James Wilson and his mother, Mrs. Emily Wilson, age 85 years, who also lives at the James Wilson home.

William Neville Dies

William Neville, age 77, passed away at his home on Elm street, Deerfield, on Wednesday, November 18, after a short illness. Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at the Deerfield Presbyterian church with Dr. W. F. Weir officiating, and burial was in Mooney's cemetery on Ridge road in Highland Park.

Mr. Neville was born at Watson, Ill., a son of Elisha and Eliza Anne Forth Neville on June 19, 1860. He was married to Miss Ann May Mills in Watson on April 28, 1881, and three years later they moved to De Witt, Neb., where their only child, Fern (Mrs. Roy Dobbins) was born. Five years later they returned to Watson; moving from there to Des Plaines and then to this vicinity where they have lived for the past twenty years.

On April 28, 1931, the Nevilles celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary at their Elm street home with more than 200 friends and relatives attendign the reception during the day.

Mr. Neville was an active member of the Presbyterian church for many years, serving as an elder for 39 years.

Of pioneer ancestors in the vicinity of Watson his background was most interesting. His great grandparents came to Illinois from Virginia and were the first to settle in Watson, Ill. The stories of these pioneers have been handed down for generations and Mr. Neville delighted in telling these stories to his grandchildren.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Anna Mary Neville; one daughter, Fern Dobbins of Arlington Heights; six grandchildren, W. Raymond, Paul, Floyd, Annabelle, Dorothy and Marjory Marie; four great grandchildren; one brother, John Neville of Watson; and a half brother, Otto Lecrone of Sullivan, Ill.

Thanksgiving Service

The Rev. Father J. V. Murphy of the Holy Cross church in Deerfield announces that Thursday of this week is Thanksgiving Day. As it is a holiday set apart by proclamation of the President there will be no school. By custom there is no school on the following day either. Certainly the note of Thanksgiving is one all of us can appreciate. We realize so keenly the value of "Thank You" in return for a little service rendered by ourselves that we certainly should not neglect to thank Almighty God for His graces. Of course, this is a civil holiday and there is no duty to hear mass but because many will want to attend mass that day it will be at 9 o'clock. Perhaps it would be worth mentioning also that the church will be heated for the occasion.

Deerfield Catholic

The usual Thursday night bowling activities brought some repeats as prize-winners. Fred Coleman's team came through with the high series with 2381 pins for the evening. Jack Klemp had the high game with 205. Father Murphy had the high series with 535 for the evening's work. As next Thursday is Thanksgiving there will be a week off for the bowlers. The following week the championship competition will begin. The team will remain the same. All play will be handicapped, that is each one will have added to his score two-thirds of the difference between his average the preceding week and 200. Prizes for individual high game, and team high game, will be awarded on this basis. Averages and the handicaps for the following week will be published each week in the parish paper.

Union Services

The three Protestant churches of Deerfield are uniting on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock for the Thanksgiving Day worship service in St. Paul's Evangelical church with Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok delivering the message. Dr. Weir of the Deerfield Presbyterian church will speak at the Union service in Trinity church in Highland Park.

Auction Sale

That novel, intriguing, and most unusual auction sale being planned by the women of the Bethlehem church is scheduled for Friday evening, December 10. Just think of being able to bid on gifts sent by famous personages of the United States. President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt have sent an etching of the White House; Herbert Hoover has autographed his book, "The Challenge to Liberty"; Ted and Larry Crosby have written "The Life of Bing Crosby," which is also autographed; and William Wrigley of gum fame sent the biggest surprise of all. Handkerchiefs by the scores will be put on the block to the highest bidder. Among the famous donors of handkerchiefs are United States Post Master James Farley, Congressman Ralph Church; Chicago's Mayor, Edward Kelly; Robert Zuppke, Coach at the University of Illinois; Dr. William Mayo of the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn.; Dale Carnegie, author of "How to Win Friends and Influence People"; Marian Talley, lyric soprano; Jeannette MacDonald, Claudette Colbert and Shirley Temple, motion picture stars; Helen Morgan, torch singer, etc.

In addition to these above mentioned gifts, there will be many practical and useful Christmas articles offered for sale at the Bethlehem church on the evening of December 10.

Boy Scout Benefit

Deerfield Boy Scout Troop 51, Maurice Cazal, Scout master, will sponsor a card and bunco party on Friday evening, December 8, at 8:15 o'clock in the Deerfield Grammar school gymnasium. Funds from the party will be used for the reorganization of the troop.

Dental Clinic

Equipment for the dental clinic arrived last week and is being installed in the Deerfield Grammar school. The clinic will open on December 1 and children of the local schools will be examined. Audiometer tests for accuracy in hearing have been made by the school nurse, Mrs. M. L. Kerrihard this past week. The audiometer is state equipment and is to be used in the Oak Terrace school at Highwood next week. The dental equipment is permanent for the Deerfield Grammar school.

County Home Trip

Mrs. Burton B. McRoy, social service chairman of the Deerfield Woman's club announces that a trip to the Lake County Poor Farm is being planned for Tuesday, December 7, at 1:30 p.m. All those who would like to make this visit are asked to call Mrs. McRoy and any one who can drive is asked to volunteer the use of an automobile.

The social service department is cooperating with the township relief office and with the American Legion Auxiliary clothing depot, and Mrs. McRoy, Mrs. M. L. Cassidy and other members plan to make a weekly pick-up of clothing to be distributed to Deerfield's less fortunate citizens. Call Mrs. McRoy and she will arrange to have some member of her committee stop at your home to get the donation. The committee is asking for clothing of all kinds, bedding, etc.

Presbyterian Bazaar

The annual bazaar and dinner sponsored by the women of the Deerfield Presbyterian church will be held on Thursday, December 2, in the church. The bazaar will begin at 2 p.m. and the serving of the chicken pie supper will start at 6 p.m. In the various attractively arranged booths there will be offered for sale a large variety of aprons, holders, rugs, and various gift articles. Those interested in home baked goods and candy will find a wide selection.

Anyone wishing to subscribe or to renew a subscription to THE DEERFIELD PRESS will have an opportunity to do so, for the benefit of the church at the bazaar.

The "white elephant" booth will be an unusual feature and of interest to many.

For the little girls there will be a full line of doll clothes and some dressed dolls. A fish pond and a grab bag will delight the children.

The chicken pie dinner will be served at 6 p.m. Those planning to attend the dinner are asked to make reservations with any of the following members of the committee: Mrs. C. W. Boyle, Mrs. W. F. Weir, Mrs. Andrew Decker or Mrs. J. H. Wyman on or before noon on Thursday, December 2.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hout and their children of Warrington road, and the Otto J. Hout family from Libertyville will attend the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hout in Lovington, Illinois, on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCraren will celebrate their wedding anniversary at a party on Thursday evening at their home. Mrs. McCraren is the former Kathryn Beckman.

The marriage of Miss Mary Horenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Horenberger of Wilmot road, and Mr. Arthur Grundels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grundels of Glenview, is being solemnized on Thanksgiving Day at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in St. Paul's church with Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok officiating. A reception will follow the ceremony at the Civic building in Glenview.

Mrs. Walter Hoffman will entertain her bridge club on Friday afternoon at her home on Osterman ave.

Andrew Morton returned to Deerfield on Saturday after a several weeks stay in Peoria, Ill.

St. Paul's Ladies' Aid society will meet on Thursday afternoon, December 2, at the church. Hostesses will be Mrs. John Haggie, Mrs. Frederica Koebelin, and Mrs. John T. Beckman Sr.

Mrs. Harry T. Clavey, who underwent an operation on her spine on Friday, November 12, at the Highland Park hospital, is getting along nicely. Mrs. Clavey was injured when she slipped and fell in her yard on November 1. That she was able to return to her home on Forest Ave. on Sunday will be welcome news to her many friends. She is now able to receive visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton B. McRoy and children of Knollwood road will spend Thanksgiving Day with Mrs. McRoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hodges in Gary, Ind.
