

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Vetter, Mrs. Lowry, Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Harold Vetter were Thanksgiving day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vetter in Lake Forest.

Mrs. Edward A. Smith of N. Linden avenue is expected home today (Thursday) from a ten day visit with friends and relatives in Massachusetts and New York.

Miss Antoinette Pantelis of S. Greenbay road entertained twenty of her friends at a party Friday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Rev. and Mrs. F. S. Robinson entertained over Thanksgiving and the week end their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Radcliffe F. Robinson of Genoa, Ohio. Mr. Robinson is a teacher of biological science in the Genoa high school. Rev. Robinson is pastor of the First United Evangelical church here.

Orville St. Peter, owner of the Green Mill Cleaners in Waukegan, former resident of this city, who was under observation at St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, has returned to his home in that city, and is now suffering with a severe attack of pneumonia. Mrs. St. Peter, who sustained a fractured arm recently, is improving, while her daughter, Mrs. Harry Clavey, of Deerfield, who sustained spinal fracture and submitted to a major operation recently is also recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fossum of Green Bay, Wis., who have been the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Helen Golden, for the past week, left Monday for New York to visit Mr. and Mrs. G. Wesley Conrad for a week before leaving for Avon Park, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

Miss Bernice Abercromby, who is attending Drake university in Des Moines, Ia., has returned to school after spending the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Abercromby.

Mrs. Francis Schneider and children, Raymond and June, spent Thanksgiving in Kenosha as the guests of the Adam Schneider's Jr.

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Highland Park hospital, will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 8, at 10:30 a.m. at Trinity Church Parish House. Luncheon will be served.

Mrs. Albert Larson, who suffered a broken right arm in a fall in her yard two weeks ago, is getting along nicely. Besides breaking her right arm, she sprained her left arm and bruised her knee.

Mrs. Viola Conrad spent Thanksgiving in Fisk, Wis., with her brother, Oscar Pansie.

Little Gloria Bahr celebrated her first birthday anniversary Tuesday by a party given for her by her mother, Mrs. Hans Bahr.

Miss Marjorie McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McDonald of 20 South Linden avenue, spent the Thanksgiving holidays in New York City, and has now returned to Boston to resume her studies at the Erakine School, a junior college of arts and sciences.

Highwood Recreation Association Plans Get-Together Dec. 8

The Community Recreation association of Highwood will hold their first get-together party Wednesday, December 8th, at the Oak Terrace school auditorium.

The party will start at 8 p.m. with old fashioned square dancing under the supervision of Mr. Guy Colby, of WLS. This will continue until 9 p.m., and anyone interested in this new popular dance craze had better come early.

At 9 p.m., a well known orchestra will furnish music for the modern ballroom type of dancing which will continue throughout the evening.

Admission is free and it is open to the adult public. An enjoyable evening is guaranteed. Everyone should come and help the committee make this party a grand success.

Campaign Goal In Sight; Hope To End Chest Drive Soon

General Campaign Chairman Jerome P. Bowes, Jr., of the Third Annual Community Chest Campaign reported Wednesday that the campaign was within $700 of its $45,000 goal, and that every effort was being made to complete the campaign successfully by the end of the present week.

"A successful conclusion of the campaign is in sight," Mr. Bowes said, "but if unfortunately has been delayed by the absence from the city of a few former subscribers whom we are certain will renew their support of former years and failure of a number of subscribers who promised our volunteer workers to send in their subscriptions direct to Chest Headquarters, to do so as yet. We desire to close the campaign successfully by the end of this week and I, therefore, respectively urge these few Highland Park citizens to send in their subscriptions at once."

Children Show Right Spirit

Seven tiny tots of pre-school age, who attend the play school conducted by Miss K. Lemly, at 219 S. St. Johns avenue, have manifested much interest in watching the Chest thermometer "go up." Desiring to help in some way the good work Chest agencies are doing, they took their Thanksgiving spending money which amounted to 25 cents each and bought and fixed up some fine Thanksgiving baskets which they brought to Chest Headquarters the day before Thanksgiving to be distributed by the Chest to homes where they would help to make a happier Thanksgiving. The baskets were given to the Highland Park Social Service for distribution and the children who made the gifts found great enjoyment in their own Thanksgiving because of their "sharing."

The children are: Charlotte Cleary, Renny Kidd, Jessie Hadley, Saundra Farrell, Bobby Hendrickson, Shelia Blumenthal, Martha Van Steenderen.

Highland Park H. S. Wins Double Victory At Leyden High

Coach Chuck Lauer's varsity five from the Highland Park high school traveled to Franklin Park Tuesday evening where they reversed Leyden's 23-18 win here last week to the tune of a 30-26 victory for the Little Giants. Bobbie Turelli again paced the locals with 14 points. Swede Norvik also found the hoop, scoring three buckets and 2 free throws.

Bobbie Nelson, red headed Leyden forward, led the scoring for the Franklin Park outfit with 7 points.

The Highland Park Frosh-Soph quintet made it three straight by taking the Leyden crew into camp by a close 27-26 score.

Poem Written By Dr. Sherwin Draws Widespread Interest

Rev. Louis W. Sherwin, pastor of the Highland Park Presbyterian church, is author of a song, "The City Is a Challenge," dedicated to Dr. Henry Seymour Brown, who for the past twenty years has served as head of the Presbyterian Board of Church Extension in Chicago. The words, which are sung to the tune of Jerusalem the Golden, were presented at a farewell banquet given for Dr. Brown at the Union League Club in Chicago on Oct. 14. Dr. Brown left the Church Extension Board on November 1 to become vice president of the Princeton Theological Seminary at Princeton, N.J.

Since the presentation, many churches have adopted the hymn, and numerous requests have been made for copies of it. The Church Extension Board has just had 7500 copies of it printed for distribution. The city is a challenge to men of faith today.

The city is a challenge of God to men who pray.

The city's troubled peoples; their hopes, their joys, their fears.

The city is a challenge to faith throughout the years.

For life within the city is tense with men and deeds, Where interest grapples interest, and creeds fight on with creeds, Where privilege is tested, the weak make their appeal, And loyal hearts are building the unseen commonweal.

Outside another city men built an ancient cross, Where one died victorious achieving gain from loss, His spirit is the secret in hearts of men so-day Who dream their golden city, and work and watch and pray.

The fellowship is royal of those who walk the road, The fellowship is lordly of those who fear this load, And that man lives triumphant who humbly does his part And puts into his city what Christ puts in his heart.

John Fay Turns In High Game In Week's Bowling

Central Tire Company took three straight from Consumers in the bowling meet held Wednesday evening at Majestic alleys.

Tuesday evening Coleman's took two out of three from Sky Harbor, in spite of the fact that James Lencioni rolled a 598 series for the losing team. John Fay of Coleman's held high game of the night with a 227 game. Don Bruce, the key man of Coleman's, surprised his fellow bowlers by coming through when pins were needed. "Fine work, Don."

Paul's Barber Shop lost two to Studebakers the same evening.

Next week's schedule:
Dec. 7, Sky Harbor vs. Studebaker; Paul's Barber Shop vs. Coleman's.
Dec. 8, Central Tire Co. vs. Inman and Inman; Consumers vs. Farmers Beverage.

Medical School FOUR YEARS

The four years required Medical School study is divided approximately as follows:

1st Year—The future Doctor of Medicine must master the fundamental science of the human body: such as Embryology (development of human being); Physiology (study of all organs in health); Anatomy (study of body structure in health); Histology (microscopic study).

2nd Year—Intensified form of above studies. Beginnings of study of Pathology (effect of diseases on various organs); Diagnosis (comparison of diseased organ to healthy).

3rd Year—Under trained instructors and practicing physicians, the embryonic Doctor begins to meet patients, watching actual clinical practice, diagnosis and treatment, working from nine to twelve hours a day, six days a week for thirty-six weeks.

4th Year—Continuation of third year, constant training in rational treatment based on careful examination and diagnosis. The student is required to be responsible for twenty or more prenatal cases, and attend delivery under supervision of a specialist.

After completion of these four years, he goes through stringent examinations before being allowed to graduate. Medical Schools, Medical Associations and the laws of your State all are constantly working together to prepare your Doctor to be more competent and thorough
