The next day, after I had looked for a long time at the cells I had scraped off Whiskey's skin and decided that there weren't any "bugs" there, and after I found that Whiskey's temperature had gone down during the night and she was feeling a lot better, I brought her into the operating room and stood there scratching my head wondering if it in building. The Big Boss finally won the argument, which was a sore in favor of Whiskey. How was I to know that when Whiskey's mother changed her name, Whiskey changed hers' too? But then, I suppose that wire fox terriers have the same rights and privileges as humans, particularly wire fox terriers like Whiskey.

Anyhow, I decided not to clip off all the nice black and white hair, which gratified Whiskey a great deal. I could tell that by the way she looked up at me and wagged her tail. I think she even felt sorry

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved" (Psalms 93:1).

The Lesson-Sermon also in cluded the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus acknowledged no ties of the flesh. He said: 'Call no man your father upon the earth; for one is your Father, which is in heaven.' He recognized Spirit, God, as the only creator, and therefore as the Father of all" (p. 31).

FILMS REVIEW

"Wife-Docter-Nurse." Cast: Loretta Young, Warner Baxter, Virginia Bruce. Thursday, Friday, Dec. 9-10. This sparkling, thoroughly modern comedy-drama concerns itself with the complications that develop in the life of a successful physician, happily married, but also dependent upon his assisting nurse. The triangle theme is treated in a different way and the film will be enjoyed by sophisticated audiences. Adults and young adults.
