

DEERFIELD LOCALS

DEERFIELD P. T. A.

"The Christmas Spirit Adapted to Everyday Life," is to be the topic of Rev. Earl J. Brusco's talk on Friday afternoon (tomorrow) at the regular meeting of the Deerfield Grammar School Parent-Teacher association. The Rev. Mr. Brusco, minister of the Bethlehem church, is a very able speaker and scholar, and his message will be in keeping with the coming holiday season.

Christmas carols will be sung by the Bethlehem church trio, Mrs. Harold Giss, Mrs. Harold Peterson, and Miss Evelyn Sturn.

The meeting will convene at 2:30 p. m. in the school gymnasium, with Mrs. Leslie Brand, the president, presiding. Mrs. George R. Bailey, program chairman, has arranged all programs for the year to carry out the theme of "Adequate Parenthood." Tea will be served at the conclusion of the meeting with the mothers of Miss Moffett's third grade room as hostesses.

CITIZENSHIP

The eighth grade children of the four local schools (Deerfield, Wilmot, Bannockburn and Holy Cross) are going to Waukegan on Thursday (today) to attend a session of the Naturalization Court with Judge Ralph Dady presiding. They will also make a tour of the court house. This trip is sponsored by the Deerfield Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary of which Mrs. William A. Tennerman is Americanism chairman. They will be accompanied by Mr. Ray Cox, seventh grade teacher in the Deerfield Grammar school and Mrs. Leroy Meyers, president of the Auxiliary, also Mrs. Earl W. Harris and Dr. Dorothy Sugden Davis.

BAKE SALE—A home baked goods sale will be held on Saturday, Dec. 11, at 9:30 a. m. in the Deerfield A & P Tea Co., sponsored by the members of the Altar and Rosary Society of the Holy Cross Catholic church. Mrs. Earl Frost is president of the society.

VARIETY SALE

On Saturday of this week the Presbyterian Women's association will hold an all day sale in Wilson & Reagan's Shields of Quality store on Waukegan road. The sale will open at 9 a. m. They will offer for sale many of the articles left over from their bazaar and will sell Christmas cookies. They will also take subscriptions for THE DEERFIELD PRESS.

REUNION

The Harold Wennersten home on Springfield avenue was the scene of a family reunion last Friday. Four generations were represented. On Mrs. Wennersten's maternal side was her grandmother, Mrs. Lillie Hershee and mother, Mrs. June Riel, both of Chicago, and her little son, James, who was two years old on November 16, which completes four generations. On her paternal side was Mrs. Wennersten's father's mother, Mrs. Nancy Riel of Chicago, making a first, second and fourth generation on that side, to be present. Great aunts who saw little James for the first time were Mrs. Maude Gilmore of Moline, Ill., and Mrs. Susie Cox of Chicago. Another aunt, Mrs. Thelma Warke and her little daughter, Arle, of Chicago,

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Miss Marie Preston, general secretary of the board of National Missions at Chicago headquarters, will be the guest speaker on Thursday afternoon, December 16, at two o'clock, at a meeting of the Women's Association of the Deerfield Presbyterian church. She will bring a Christmas message. Mrs. C. W. Boyle is president of the association.

MOVIES

The film "One Hundred Years of Presbyterian Foreign Missions" will be shown on Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock in the Northbrook Presbyterian church, with the Deerfield and Wheeling churches uniting for the service. Messages will be given by the ministers of the three churches, Rev. Donald C. Morrisson of Wheeling, Dr. W. F. Weir of Deerfield, and Rev. A. J. Wold of Northbrook. A social hour and tea will conclude this union service.

Mrs. E. J. Ginter of Detroit, and formerly of Bannockburn, has been the house guest of Mrs. Edwin Wood of Rosemary terrace this past week. On Monday afternoon she was the honored guest at the Bannockburn Garden club meeting at the new home of Mrs. William Aitken. Mrs. Ginter is returning to Detroit to meet her husband and they will leave from there for a trip to Florida.
