Cubs Have Christmas Spirit

The Cubs and their parents of Pack 65, of Ravinia, Braeside and West Ridge had another of their good meetings at the Village House last Friday evening.

That the Cubs have been absorbing the Christmas spirit is evidenced by the fact that all Cubs exhibited before this meeting, toys that they had repaired to be given to children in less favorable circumstances for Christmas. This display was exceptional and reveals that these Cubs spent a great deal of time along with the enthusiasm and help of their parents in this worthwhile project.

Presiding at this meeting was the chairman of the Pack committee Arthur Claghorn. The members of this Pack committee are: Cubmaster Wm. Gleisner, his assistants, M. Whittaker and John Sternig. Herbert Bower, Robert Price, Allen Church, Mason Armstrong, James Murphey, Nathan Corwith, Lee Supple, A. A. Hale, H. E. Johnson, Alan R. Kidd, Walter C. Kohn, A. G. Strattan, James Thomson, and Dr. Frank Trangmar members of the committee and Howard F. Copp Cub commissioner.
