You Expect Your Doctor To Know When, How, and Why You are Sick

The years of preparation by the Doctor are simply and solely to fit him to diagnose your case, make and keep you well.

The Doctor is not a super-human, with super-natural powers. Scientific methods, precedent, personal experience, and the experience of others, necessarily limit the Doctor's powers to human capacity.

However, your Doctor brings all these available sources of information to bear on diagnosis and treatment. Your Doctor wants to make and keep you well. Nine times out of ten, if instructions are followed, prescriptions carried out, if you cooperate with your Doctor—you will be better off physically and mentally. Give your Doctor a chance to check up on you regularly and keep you well.
