

DEERFIELD LOCALS

FITGER-HARLAN NUPTIALS

Before a fireplace banked with pines and tall white tapers, Miss Harriet Louise Fitger became the bride of Mr. Clifford LeRoy Harlan of Peoria, in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mary E. McDewitt of Meadow lane, on Saturday afternoon, January 1, at 4 o'clock, with Reverend F. G. Piepenbrok of St. Paul's church officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Fitger of Deerfield and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harlan of Peoria. Miss Fitger wore a light blue tailored frock and her shoulder corsage was of violets and lilies of the valley. The couple was unattended with Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hamill acting as their witnesses. The very impressive simple service was followed by a reception in the home for twenty-five friends and relatives. Mr. Harlan, who is a statistician with the Peoria Board of Health, and a graduate of Bradley Tech. at Peoria, will take post-graduate work

DEERFIELD P.-T.A.

"Fathers' Night" is to be observed by the Deerfield Grammar school Parent-Teacher association on Friday evening, January 14, in the school auditorium. Parents of the Bannockburn Grade school will be invited to the meeting and a very fine speaker will appear on the program. The grade school orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Engels Hardacre, will give a concert.

THE ICE POND

All the organizations and Deerfield people who have contributed money, labor, or other gifts to make the community skating rink a reality, can be justly proud of the service rendered. The skating rink with its fine field house, the gift of the Deerfield Woman's club, is the greatest recreational activity in the village. Every day that the weather permits, the pond is filled with skaters, young and old. Sitting on the side-lines on Sunday last, watching so many enjoying this winter sport, one ponders, and it becomes a definite fact that Deerfield needs an all-more family of Wauconda. Mrs. Raymond Goodman will be hostess to members of St. Paul's guild on Friday afternoon at her home on Central Ave.

Shirley Briscoe was hostess to a group of her little friends at a New Year's Eve party at her home on Oak lane.

Forty young people from St. John's church, Highland Park, and St. Paul's church, Deerfield, enjoyed a skating party on Sunday in one of the channels of the Skokie lagoons. Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok chaperoned the group. Another skating party is planned for next Sunday at the same time, and place.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Roberts have moved from the Beardsley house on Osterman Ave. to the Harry Stupp home at 1015 Greenwood Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton and little daughter, Elizabeth Lu, of Harvey, Ill., spent the week-end at the Fred Meyer home.

Richard Arthur Pagel, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pagel of Chestnut street, was baptized last Sunday morning at the Bethlehem Evangelical church by Rev. Earl J. Brus.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stanger were hosts at a family gathering on New Year's day at their home on Forest Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carter and son, Raymond, visited at the S. M. Walker home in Hammond, Ind., last week.

There will be no January meeting of the Bannockburn Garden club, it was announced by the publicity chairman, Mrs. Elmer Nail.

Mrs. Alex Willman is entertaining at her home on Waukegan road.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt and two children, Robert and Geraldine of Elgin spent New Year's day with Mrs. J. C. Huehl of Springfield Ave. Sunday guests at her home were Mr. and Mrs. George Sampson and daughter, Betty Lou, of Chicago.

The Reliable Laundry & Dry Cleaning Co. of Highland Park has changed its local headquarters from the Briar Sweet Shop to the Sieffert Barber Shop and Saitary Beauty Shop. The Deerfield telephone is 137.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gunckel, who were married last month, are living in Highland Park. Mr. Gunckel's son, LeRay Hutchison Gunckel, has gone to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Banker (Verene Gunckel) left on Sunday for their home in Hillsdale, Mich., after a week's visit at the home of Mrs. Banker's grandmother, Mrs. Martha C. Love.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Olson spent New Year's Day at the Torval Oliver home in Chicago.

Guests were from Chicago, Evanston and Wilmette.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Korenin had as their New Year's Day guests, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Korenin and daughter of Waukegan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gantor of North Chicago, and Miss Frances McMannan of Chicago. On Sunday they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ehrens and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook of Waukegan.

Miss Barbara Huehl spent the week-end in St. Louis returning on Monday via "The Abraham Lincoln."

Mr. and Mrs. George LaBahn and daughter, Irma, of Evanston were Sunday dinner guests at the Fred
