H P LOCALS LOUISE WILLARD ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baird Willard are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Louise, to James O'Sullivan Kearns of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Kearns of Dubuque, Ia.

Miss Willard is a graduate of the Knox School at Cooperstown, N. Y., and attended Northwestern university. Mr. Kearns is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame. No date has been set for the wedding.

OPEN HOUSE FOR FACULTY MEMBERS

An open house is being held by the faculties of the Highland Park and Lake Forest high schools Thursday evening, January 13, from 7:30 to 10:30, in the English club room of the Highland Park high school.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

An event of unusual interest to the many friends and admirers of Mrs. H. W. Coolidge will be the open house, which Miss Alice Coolidge is holding in honor of her mother's 90th birthday anniversary. The affair is to be held at the family residence 1630 Dean avenue, and nearly one hundred invitations have been issued to it.

Mrs. Coolidge has lived in Highland Park for fifteen years, coming here from Evanston where she had resided for a short time following a long residence in Chicago. Her early childhood and girlhood were spent in Cincinnati, where many of her relatives still live. Although obliged to remain more closely at home during the past few years, she has continued to direct its management, and has maintained a keen interest in organizations which she is associated with.

For years she was a generous patron and constant attendant of winter opera in Chicago and the open air performance at Ravinia. The Hard of Hearing League numbered her among its active and enthusiastic members and a lip-reading class has often held regular meetings at her home. She has always been interested in young people, whom she counts among her best of friends.

Mrs. Coolidge is noted for her strength of character and the resources of heart in withstanding the shocks which life has brought her in the loss of her only son, William, and Mr. Coolidge, both of whom died suddenly, and in the recent loss of her devoted daughter, Elizabeth Coolidge.

Her hospitable home, set in handsome evergreens, has always welcomed those who eagerly came to enjoy the gentle graciousness of their hostess, Mrs. Coolidge.—Contributed.

ELEANOR AUSTIN IS ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Austin announce the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor, to Donald Jackson Pryor of Detroit, Mich., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Pryor of Pasadena, California. Miss Austin attended Rockford College, Lake Forest College and the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts. Mr. Pryor graduated from the University of Iowa. No date has been set for the wedding.

David Stryker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Stryker, 710 Orchard, Deerfield, editor-in-chief of Tusitala, campus literary magazine at Lake Forest college, has just released this year's first edition of the publication.

"Tusitala" is an Indian word meaning "teller of tales," and the magazine is devoted to poems, short stories, book reviews, and other literary contributions made by the college students. The current issue, which is devoted entirely to poetry, is one of the most attractive issues ever published. In its announcement is made of a five dollar prize to be publication in the next issue. Stryker, who is a senior at Lake Forest, has been active in literary and musical organizations since his entrance. Last year, he was a staff member of the Forester, college yearbook, and served as features editor of the Stentor, campus newspaper. He is a member of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary literary organization, and Pi Alpha Chi, honorary musical fraternity. In addition, he sings in the college mixed octette and chorus, and plays in the band and orchestra.

WRITES POETRY FOR MAGAZINE

Catherine Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Craig, 608 Laurel avenue, Highland Park, contributed two poems, "Sailing" and "New Moon" to the recently published poetry number of Tusitala, campus literary magazine at Lake Forest college.

Miss Craig is a senior at Lake Forest and is prominent in literary activities. She is a member of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary literary fraternity, and has contributed to previous issues of Tusitala.

PHILATHEA CLASS MEETS
