

DEERFIELD LOCALS

DENTAL CLINIC OPENS

Dr. Edward F. Munro began the work of examining the Deerfield Grammar school children last Friday, in the newly established dental clinic in the school. Eighth grade children were the first to appear at the clinic. Mrs. Judith Kerrihard, local school nurse, is assisting. As announced previously, a small charge is made when the teeth need filling or cleaning.

SOCIAL SERVICE

If you have any clothing which your children have outgrown, won't you pack it up and call Mrs. R. E. Pettis, or Mrs. Burton B. McRoy, and a member of the social service department of the Deerfield Woman's club will call for it? All contributions are taken to the home of Mrs. Philip Scully where the American Legion Auxiliary maintains a clothing depot, which is open each Wednesday. Mrs. Scully states that she has many calls each week for clothing.

BAPTISMS

Mary Eunice Gloden and Elvina Katherine Sticken were baptized on Sunday morning at St. Paul's church, with Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok officiating. Mary Eunice, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gloden of Osterman Ave., was born Nov. 12, 1937. Sponsors were Miss Eunice Zittergruen and Hiram Zittergruen from Iowa. Elvina Katherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sticken Jr. of West Deerfield road, arrived November 19, 1937. Her sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Otto of Evanston.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

An all day meeting of the Deerfield Presbyterian Women's association will be held on Thursday, January 20, at the church. The morning work session will begin at 10:30 o'clock. The 1 o'clock luncheon and the afternoon's program will be in charge of the newly organized Circle One.

Mrs. Friedel Fuller attended an all day lecture in Chicago last Tuesday, where the latest styles and stitches in knitting were demonstrated. Mrs. Fuller, who is an authority on knitting in the village, states that the trend is toward embroidery and needle point. Forty-eight different stitches were demonstrated in knitting.

Mrs. Kenneth Weir and son, Keith, are spending a month in Florida. The snow which fell on Sunday gave the children their first opportunity to try out new Christmas sleds and skis. On Monday the old fashioned horse-drawn sidewalk snow plough made the rounds of the village, a custom of many years.

The rearranging of this C.C.C. area has meant a number of changes of residence in this locality. The Thomas Cosgroves moved last week from the Presbyterian parsonage to St. Louis, Mo. Winfield S. Nevins has been transferred to S. Saulte Marie, but his family will remain at 1125 Hazel Ave. until June when their daughter Dorothy Keefe, is graduated from high school. The Edgewoods, former Deerfield residents, also transferred from Highland to S. Saulte Marie. Captain John H. Wyman of Central Ave. will be leaving Fort Sheridan to go to Sparta, Wis. district, the latter part of February.

During the past week the discarded Christmas trees were gathered up and taken to the community skating pond where they have been "planted" around the edge of the rink, forming an attractive border and wind-break. Work of the pick-up and planting was done through the labor provided by the office of the township supervisor. Entire labor up-keep of the skating pond is furnished by the supervisor, James O'Connor.
