H. P. High Downs Morton; New Trier Here Friday Night

New Trier High school of Winnetka, traditional Highland Park foe on the hard court, comes to the local gym Friday night for a fast Suburban league double-header. The down shore aggregation, paced by two high scoring forwards and a rangy center, has been the sensation of the present season. Their only loss so far in league competition was their close game with Evanston last week.

Paced by the flashy passing and shooting of Bobbie Turelli and Ozzi Digani, Coach Lauer's varsity five took a new lease on life last Friday night to give the local fans a sweet 30-21 victory over Morton High of Cicero. Highland Park pushed ahead 8 to 1 in the first quarter and was never headed.

If the locals can maintain the pace set last week, New Trier will have its hands full and this annual classic gives promise of being another spectacular contest.

The Fresh-Soph quintet got off to a fine start and lead Morton 10-7 at half time. In the second half, Morton pushed ahead steadily and

PRESCRIPTION SPECIALISTS

This is the day of specialists. And our speciality is the prompt and proper filling of prescriptions. To this important task we give our principal effort and consideration.

Because this is our principal business our stocks are naturally larger, fresher and more complete. We employ only skilled, registered pharmacists who are in sympathy with our high ethical standards. Our large volume means lower overhead, and assures a fair price for every prescription.
