

DEERFIELD LOCALS

THE STAGERS

The Stagers, local dramatic club, met on Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian church for the regular monthly business meeting. Mrs. Frederick C. Ritter and Miss Shirley Clark did some clever character sketches. The next production by the Stagers will be "Crab Apple" on February 25, at the Deerfield Grammar school.

BAKE SALE

A bake sale is planned for Saturday at the Deerfield A. & P. Tea Co. by the women of the Holy Cross parish. Mrs. John J. Fink of Highland Park and Mrs. Ralph Dunham will have charge of the sale.

CARD PARTY

The Young People's club of the Holy Cross church will sponsor a card and bunco party on Friday evening, January 28, in the parish school. Refreshments and dancing will follow the cards. The party is given for the benefit of the fuel fund.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Eleanor Gerken, daughter of Louis Gerken of Glenview to Eldon Frost, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frost of Walnut street, Deerfield. No date has been set for the wedding.

ATTENDANCE GRAPH

St. Paul's has placed a graph in the church vestibule which records weekly attendance at church and Sunday school. Emphasis for 1938 is, "Deepening the Spiritual Life of Its Members." More constant and regular attendance at church and Sunday school is urged. It will be interesting to note which way the graph will move from Sunday to Sunday. The average for the first three Sundays is well above the hundred figure. An appeal is made to all the members and friends of St. Paul's church to keep it up and help move it higher.

DINNER

Administration in the Presbyterian field Presbyterian church will hold a dinner meeting on Friday, January 21, at 6:45 p.m. in the church. William Seath, superintendent of the Industrial League of Chicago, will be the speaker.
