WALGREN-NEFF NUTRIALS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gustaf Walgren of Highland Park announce the marriage of their daughter Catherine Julia to Gordon Nelson Neff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lance Neff of Charlevoix, Michigan. The wedding took place at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Bergstrom, 729 Vernon avenue, Chicago. The bride, dressed in a white lace gown and carrying white roses and forget-me-nots, was attended by Miss Eleanor Bergstrom. The groom was attended by his brother, Bob.

A large reception for the sixty guests was held at the Bergstrom home immediately after the ceremony. The young married couple are living in Detroit where Mr. Neff is in business.

LOCALS FRANK-WELLMAN WEDDING of Dr. and Mrs. Ira Frank of Chicago, former residents of this city and Lester R. Wellman, Jr., son of the Lester R. Wellmans, also of this city, were married Saturday evening at an impressive home ceremony.

The ceremony took place in the drawing room of the Frank's Drake Tower apartment before a small altar flanked by white rose trees. Only members of the two families were present. Dr. Louis Binstock officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a princess gown of rosalia crepe with a tulle veil fastened to a cap of rose point lace, which had adorned her mother's wedding gown. She carried white spray orchids and a small white Bible.

Mrs. Frank served her daughter as matron of honor. She wore a bois de rose crepe gown and her flowers were gardenias. Rosalind and Susan Fox, the bridegroom's little nieces, served as flower girls. They were attired in frocks of bluish pink taffeta fashioned Elizabethan style.

Mr. Wellman, Sr., was his son's best man. When the young couple return on Feb. 15 from a honeymoon in Miami Beach and Havana, they will reside at 800 Princeton avenue, in Sunset Terrace.

MARY JANE SCHULTZ ENGAGED

GRUBBS-SEYFARTH WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Mary Grubbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckley of Barrington, and Hugh M. Seyfarth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Seyfarth of this city, took place Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the drawing room of Brookmoor, the Buckley's home. The service was read by the Rev. Albert Taylor of the Episcopal church in Dundee at 4:30 in the afternoon.

Over her princess gown of white velvet, Miss Grubbs wore a veil of tulle falling from a tiny cap embroidered in seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of lillie of the valley. Mrs. Robert K. Fobes of St. Paul, her sister's only attendant, was gowned in apricot velvet, styled on princess lines. On her head she wore a velvet halo.

Robert Seyfarth served his brother as best man. Following the ceremony, the reception was held in the game room which had been decorated with spring flowers for the occasion.

Because the bride, who was hurt in an automobile accident last fall, has not completely recovered, the couple are postponing their honeymoon until March, when they will go to Florida. They are taking a short trip now and upon their return from the south will be at home in Highland Park.

OLD-FASHIONED

We not only admit it, we brag about it. We do still cling to old-fashioned ideas of service. We believe that a drug store—our kind of drug store—at least—should deal primarily in drugs. We believe our stocks should be complete, and of highest quality. That every drug used in compounding a prescription should be strictly fresh and of known potency. If you, too, believe in this policy, we invite your prescription business.
