Anticipate Large Crowd at February Woman's Club Party

The February buffet luncheon and bridge party, held in the delightful lounge of the Highland Park Woman's club, will take place at one o'clock, Tuesday the eighth, and the biggest crowd of the year is expected, as these attractive affairs grow more and more popular as the season advances. Mrs. George O. Strecker to whom reservations are to be made, begs the membership to accord her the courtesy of making reservations for the luncheon before Saturday night, February 5, so that she can make adequate preparations for those who will attend.

The traveling prize adds zest, because, going as it does, from table to table, it is not secure until the end of the day. There is always a "door prize," and one out of every four players wins an individual table prize. This is such a delightful way for club members to entertain friends in an informal friendly atmosphere, with little personal effort.

Bert Leech To Speak At Lions' Club Today

The regular meeting of the Lions club will be held today (Thursday) at the Green Tea Pot at 12:15 o'clock. Mr. G. J. Dinkeloo, who is sponsoring the program, has procured Mr. Bert Leech, instructor of science at the Elm Place school, to talk. His subject will be "Birds."

'Ebb Tide' and 'Secret Agent' at Deerpath

The sea in technicolor! A typhoon viewed from its beginning to the blinding, crashing fury of its terrific climax! Frances Farmer, Ray Milland and Oscar Homolka on a lonely island with a madman, Lloyd Nolan! Amazing action, the beauty of the sea at its terrible worst and its sublime best—all in technicolor! That is "Ebb Tide." One of the outstanding pictures of the new season, "Ebb Tide" is at the Deerpath now through Friday.

"Secret Agent," starring Madeline Carroll, Robert Young, and Peter Lorre, will be at the Deerpath on Saturday, February 5. Miss Carroll attained great popularity through her roles in "Lloyds of London," "Prisoner of Zenda," and "The 39 Steps." Robert Young is excellent as a villain.

Peter Lorre's portrayal of the Hairless Mexican is without peer among "heavies."

Fred Astaire's flashing feet achieve new success, George Burns and Gracie Allen achieve new laurels in comedy, Joan Fontaine achieves stardom, and Ray Noble displays his prowess as an actor as well as a musician in "A Damsel in Distress." P. G. Wodehouse's dilly drama of English life will be played at the Deerpath three days beginning Sunday, February 6.

"Hold 'em Navy" will come to the Deerpath on Wednesday and Thursday of next week bringing Lew Ayres, Mary Carlisle, and John Howard in one of the finest navy pictures ever to be produced.

Benny Baker and Elizabeth Patterson are prominently cast in this story of middies, their lives and loves.

'Inside Nazi Germany' at Deerpath Theatre

Claimed to be the first film ever taken out of Nazi Germany without the personal censorship of Minister of Propaganda Goebbels, the latest March of Time, "Inside Nazi Germany," will be shown at the Deerpath theatre in Lake Forest next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, February 6, 7 and 8.

"Inside Nazi Germany" gives, in vivid detail, the actual conditions of Nazi life under the rule of Adolph Hitler. It has created sensations in New York, Chicago and other large cities where it has been shown and has received praise from its educational news value.

"Life," the weekly pictorial magazine, reviewed it last Friday as its "Movie of the Week."

Students Tryout For 'Stunts' Program

Tryouts for the 1938 edition of Highland Park high school's "Student Stunts" are under way at the high school auditorium. Miss Elyse Rinkenberger announced yesterday that all types of entertainment are desired and a student may try out in several different capacities.

After choosing the students who will participate, over a month will be spent in rounding out and polishing the Stunts for an evening of top-notch entertainment.

To guarantee that the large number of students who will take part will not neglect their regular classes during Stunts rehearsals, only those having a "C" average and no failures for the last grading period will be permitted to try for a place in the production.

Deerfield Stagers Rehearse 'Crabapples'

"From now on I can get my own way as much as I want to, because if I don't, I won't keep quiet. And I have to be kept quiet on account of my high blood pressure" . . . "I'll be disagreeable if I like. There! See what you made me do—you made me sneeze!" . . . "I've sent you to college for three years, and by jingoes I'll see that you get your education!" . . . "We're not going to have a radio—I don't want to hear it mentioned again. If one of those things gets into this house, I'll smash it into smithereens. Now remember that" . . . "It's a good thing to learn to get along with disagreeable people. Young lady, you've got a lot to learn. How far do you think I would have gotten in business if I hadn't learned to get along with disagreeable people? By gum, what you need is discipline; and by gum, you're going to get it."

Now do you wonder they called him "crab-apple?" Yes, that is a sketch of Mr. Hunter, beloved husband and fond father; but he tried to rule his family with an iron rod. Do they conquer him or does he conquer them? Just be on hand Friday night, Feb. 25, at 8:15 at the Deerfield grammar school and hear Jirah Cole in the role of the tyrannical Mr. Hunter trying to handle his family.

Despite the sympathy for the family this comedy arouses in you, you'll find yourself laughing throughout at its ridiculous capers.

Oak Park Will Seek Revenge Here Tomorrow Night

Oak Park, scrappy underdogs of the Suburban league, will come to Highland Park tomorrow night (Friday) to mix with Chuck Lauer's cagers in a desperate struggle for revenge. The local varsity trounced Oak Park in their initial league encounter some 30-27—the first Little Giant victory at Oak Park since 1916.

As Oak Park seeks to demonstrate that the locals' victory at their hard-court was a distinct fluke, Highland Park's cagers will be out for a second triumph to prove that their first win was well-deserved. Whatever the outcome, Friday's game will be one of the high lights of the basketball season.

The Fresh-Soph team lost at Oak Park 19-24 so that their game, also, will be a grudge affair that should keep the fans on edge.

In games this past week the varsity dropped two close affairs. Lindblom, leaders in the central section of the City league, downed the locals 30-27. Outstanding was the work of slender Dick Spangler, Lauer's substitute center, who scored with finesse and took the ball off the back-board with regularity. Bobbie Turelli also played fine ball. Tom Summers lead the Fresh-Soph to a slow 20-18 victory over the Lindblom yearlings.

Morton, sole conquerors of Evanston's great team, avenged Highland Park's earlier win at Cicero Tuesday in a fast 34-28 encounter. Almon Frost, last year's Fresh-Soph star, appeared in the Highland Park line-up for the first time this year to lead his team with eight points. Nizzi, Digani, and Anderson played excellent floor games and contributed to the scoring.

If Frost, who has been out this season because of injuries, can keep the pace set by Highland Park's speedy 1938 outfit, his scoring punch should help put the locals in the win column. He will probably play for the home folks in Friday's game with Oak Park.

Mothers Club Plans Dance for Feb. 12
