

Girl Scout News

The Highland Park Girl Scout Council held its meeting on February 2 in order to discuss plans for the banquet and details of policy concerning the program for the balance of the year before Miss Mary Longley's departure for Dallas, Texas, where she is to have a permanent position as director of the girl scouts.

The leaders and council members presented Miss Longley with a farewell gift of "Orchids on Your Budget" and money to spend as she desired. Miss Longley, in the Bulletin to leaders and council members wrote this foot-note: "May I express to all of you my great pleasure in having worked with you and the very deep appreciation I have of your generosity to me in giving me that lovely gift. It came to me to spend as I would, most of it, though part of it was 'Orchids on Your Budget,' which is my great ambition! Also, it's grand reading. I do thank you all."

Highland Park Girl Scout Council is very grateful to Mr. Marvin Wallach for the donation of his legal services necessary for obtaining corporation papers, and to Mrs. ...

Star Archer, Mrs. Barton Pope, hit the bull's eye in the target five times last Friday night at "Parents' Night" at the Archery Class in Elm Place school. Mr. Sidney Morris, instructor, says the class will be limited to only twenty-four members so girl scouts wishing to join the beginning class are urged to register on Friday night, Feb. 18, at 7:30.

Mrs. Raymond E. Lee is assisting Mrs. John K. Davenport with the Elm Place Troop No. 10.

ATTENTION: GIRL SCOUTS!
Be sure to see the display in celebration of "International Month" of February, in the window of the Alcyon Theater building.

Girl Scout banquet will be on March 4, at 8:30 o'clock in Ravinia school. Cost 65c per person.

Feb. 14 and 28 are rehearsal days at Ravinia school for all troops to practice banquet songs.

Primary Candidates Arrive Early to File Petitions

Keeping an all-night vigil in front of the south entrance of the county building and trying to seek shelter in the narrow doorway from the rain, seven Republican candidates for the county primary election on April 12 filed their petitions at 8 a.m. Saturday for preferred places on the ballot.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Thomas E. Kennedy headed the line of the seven men waiting in front of the county clerk's office when the business day was started. From early Friday afternoon friends of Kennedy had kept the first position. During the night one was relieved by another so that at 7 a.m. when the sheriff opened the south entrance door Kennedy was the first in line.

Up to noon Kennedy was the only candidate to file his nominating petition for sheriff.

Others filing, in the order they presented their petitions to Deputy County Clerks Herman L. Christensen and Gregory Sheahan, were Allen J. Nelson for probate clerk, Jay B. Morse for county clerk, William J. Stratton for county clerk, Judge Perry L. Persons for re-election, Garfield Leaf for county treasurer, and W. C. Petty for re-election as superintendent of county schools. At 11 a.m. Probate Judge Martin C. Decker also filed his nominating petition for re-election.

The party struggle over the county leadership and the uncertainty of support by one faction or the other has kept aspiring Democratic county candidates from circulating their petitions.

Afraid to incite the ire of one faction or the other, the aspiring Democrats have permitted their nominating petitions to lie idle. While a number are known to have obtained petitions for signatures, only a few have braved the intra-party fight to obtain signers.

State highway employes and other state payrollers in the county have circulated nominating petitions for state offices approved by the Horner administration, but local petitioners have been scarce.

The showdown in the party is expected when precinct committeemen candidates file. Democrats fighting the party leadership of Dr. R. R. Bosworth, George Mayer and Joseph Mull plan to entrench themselves with precinct candidates to oppose the "regulars." Other former Democratic party workers are leaving the party ranks. Justice of the Peace Harry Christensen of Ingleside, one of the most able of the party workers in Grant township left the party this morning when he filed Republican petitions for Stratton for county clerk.

While the rift in the Democratic ranks was growing more pronounced, Thomas Killoran denied that he had left the regular organization to take up the leadership of Nash-Kelly group in Lake county.

Robber Caught in Winnetka Identifies Homes Entered Here

Charles Kraushaar, 62, a former carpenter in Hillsboro, Ill., was in the custody of Winnetka police early this week, where he was seized when found looting a home there. Upon questioning the robber confessed to robbing four homes in Highland Park and two in Lake Bluff recently. Thirty-five homes along the North Shore were entered by him since June 1, and the value of his loot amounting to about $15,000 was principally gold and silver.

The prisoner was seized by the Winnetka police as he appeared to leave the home of Milton M. Mayer, 721 Lincoln avenue, Winnetka. Knowing that the family was out of town, the police had been watching the house. Seeing a light inside the house, they waited for the intruder to come out and then arrested him.

Kraushaar was brought to Highland Park, Monday, where he identified the following homes that he had burglarized:

Paul H. Rice, 971 Lincoln place, Clinton S. Beach, 1736 Rice street.

Charles E. Kauffman, 2243 S. Sheridan road.

The two homes in Lake Bluff which were robbed were Orrie J. McComb, 530 Prospect avenue, and E. T. Harlan, 32 Center avenue.

Kraushaar, who resided in Chicago, admitted that he had served a term in the Joliet penitentiary from 1933 to 1936 for burglary.

His method of burglary was the use of a large stone diamond ring to cut a circle of glass from doors and admit himself by turning the lock of dwellings whose occupants were not at home. He said he would watch the newspapers to learn when families were out of town.

Inside he would gather up gold and silver, avoiding precious stones that might serve to identify him. Each week end he would send his loot to a smelting company and the following week would receive a postal money order in payment.

Wm. A. Churchill Leaves $200,000 Estate

William A. Churchill, who died in Chicago on Jan. 2, left an estate estimated at $200,000 personal property to a daughter, grandchildren and brothers, according to the will admitted to probate Monday by Judge Martin C. Decker. Letters testamentary were issued to the daughter, Mrs. Alice Churchill Gutmann and bond was fixed at $400,000.

Other estates and proceedings recorded by Probate Clerk John R. Bullock were as follows: Sara Neumann Levinson, Highland Park—Inventory and appraisal bill approved. Partial distribution authorized.

Gustav Zehntmeyer—Inventory and waiver of widow's award approved.

Robert Grant Murrie, Russell—Will admitted to probate. Estate of $500 personal and $2000 real property given to wife. Letters testamentary issued to Nellie S. Murrie. Bond of $1000. Heirship proved.

Margaret Ellen Mitchell—Inventory approved.
