BOLT-PALM WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Ruth Louise Bolt and John Eric Palm was solemnized on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Deerfield Presbyterian church, with Rev. William Agnew of the Dorcas Home officiating, assisted by Dr. W. F. Weir. The bride was lovely in a white gown with a short train, and a fingertip veil, and carrying a shower bouquet. Miss Netta Steinhaus of Lake Forest, was the bridesmaid and wore a frock of blue, with matching accessories, and carried pink roses. Stephen Gray served the groom as best man. The bride, who was reared at the Dorcas Home, was graduated from Lake Forest college and is now an assistant instructor in that college. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Palm of Mundelein and is also an alumnus of Lake Forest.

A reception was held at the Dorcas home, following the ceremony, with Miss Jane Agnew and Miss Violet Palm presiding. The couple left for a short trip, and will live in Lake Forest, where Mrs. Palm will continue her teaching until June.

Among the pre-nuptial showers given for Miss Ruth Bolt, was one given by Mrs. Walter E. Steinhaus and her daughter, Miss Netta Steinhaus at their home on Melody Farms Estate, last Sunday afternoon. Guests included Misses Anna Barnstable of Waukegan; Jean Bonner of Lake Villa; Helen Decker and Mae Studor of Libertyville; Violet Palm of Mundelein; Sara Rachel Lineburg, Jennie and Sarah George of Lake Forest, and Jane Agnew of Deerfield.
