

GIRL SCOUTS

Her many friends in the Highland Park Girl Scout Council, Leaders' association, and Girl Scout troops deeply regret the passing of Mrs. Frank G. Shelton, who was a leader of one of the Lincoln school Girl Scout troops in 1936. Mrs. Shelton suffered much and knew that her illness was fatal, yet only last fall she joined the leaders in their tramping and trailing course. All will remember the beauty and fun and joy of the companionship in the interest we shared in Girl Scouts. Mrs. Shelton's enthusiasm and her courage remain as an inspiration to those who knew her.

Mrs. Julius Laegeler, training and personnel chairman has turned in a splendid report which again demonstrates her efficiency and effort and the sincerity of those working and desiring to work in Girl Scout Leadership.

Courses just completed:
Advanced training course — Mrs. Edward A. Harrington, Braeside troop; Mrs. Arthur Mason, Ravinia troop; Mrs. John E. Long, Ravinia troop; Mrs. H. E. Holt, Ravinia troop.

Completed course started in fall—Mrs. Harlan C. Betts, Braeside troop; Mrs. Willard B. Dunham, Ridge troop; Mrs. John Davenport, Elm Place troop; Mrs. G. H. Cumming, Lincoln troop; Mrs. A. L. Griffith, Ridge troop.

New to Scouting—Mrs. Raymond E. Lee, Mrs. Walter H. Steele, Mrs. Sherman D. Clough.

Troop committee member of Ridge troop—Mrs. Geo. Krumbach.

"International Month for February" has again provided the opportunity for a window display, this time pertaining to the countries in which Girl Scout organization is operative and from which various interesting objects have been brought by people who have visited these countries. Mrs. Curtis McWhinney, a member of Publicity committee on the Girl Scout council, and her daughter Miss Jane, have again received cooperation from Mr. William Pearl, who has permitted the council to use the vacant store in the Alcyon theater building. Mr. Prior of the Iredale Furniture Co. loaned the screens used as "background," and members of the council, friends, and members of some of the troops, loaned the articles displayed. The display will be there for another week. The window is lighted at night. Do not fail to see it.

Carrying out suggestions given in the new older girl program, Mrs. George Cumming, leader, and Troop 10 of Lincoln school, invited some of the boys to be their guests at a Valentine party on Saturday, February 12. Supplementing the training given in homes and schools in regard to proper conduct, planning parties and games, duties and host and hostess; are part of the new program, and with the cooperation of home and schools it will be possible to give to boys and girls an outlet for their natural desire for group activity and amusement.

The boys and girls showed splendid response in carrying out and observing "rules." A buffet supper of sandwiches, cake and hot chocolate was served. Mrs. Hull, Mrs. Heed, and Mrs. Spangler assisted as hostesses, and Mr. Hull and Mr. Cumming as hosts. The tables and auditorium were decorated by the girls.

Mr. Sidney Morris announces a beginners Archery Class Registration on Friday, Feb. 18, at 7 p.m. at the Elm Place school.

Mr. Morris is making a real contribution to the Girl Scout Activities and Program by teaching Archery and giving of his time and knowledge and making and donating some of the equipment. One of the interesting things about this sport is that people who excel in other types of athletics often do not become proficient in Archery. "In fact," said Mr. Morris, "I often find that girls who come into the class very sure that they will succeed, drop out because they get discouraged or cannot learn fast enough to satisfy them, but that girls who come into the class timid and skeptical of their ability stay and accomplish splendid results."

Parents of Girl Scouts will receive a post card reminding them of the Birthday Banquet on March 4. They are requested to give this card consideration and respond to the information contained in the message.

Braeside Troop No. 3 sent Valentines to children in the Martha Washington Home for Dependent Crippled Children.

Deerfield Auxiliary Wins Attendance Award in Waukegan

One hundred and forty six persons were present at the Tenth district meeting held at the Waukegan Legion home on February 9. The Deerfield unit won the attendance prize. Mrs. Wm. G. Suthers of Chicago past state department president of the American Legion Auxiliary spoke on, "the important legislation the Legion is sponsoring." Mrs. George A. Bowen, 10th district director, presented Mrs. Suthers with a hand painted picture, which was the work of a disabled Veteran. The painting was secured through the recently opened Veterans' Craft shop of Chicago. Quarterly reports giving a summary of the various units' activities for the three months' period were given. Mrs. Stanley F. Kiddle of Lake Forest reported on the "Area D" rehabilitation meeting which was held in Chicago.

The North Chicago unit presented Mrs. Joseph F. Mieczynski for second vice president of the state department and the Tenth district endorsed her candidacy. Mrs. Mieczynski is state department chaplain at this time. The Baxter Evans Auxiliary were co-hostesses with the Waukegan unit.

The regular monthly meeting of the Deerfield American Legion Auxiliary will be held at the home of Miss Louise Huhn, 1111 Deerfield road, on Monday evening February 21.

Garbo in "Conquest" at Deerpath Theatre

"Conquest," starring Greta Garbo and Charles Boyer, will be at the Deerpath theatre this coming Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday. Unquestionably one of the finest movies ever made, "Conquest" has received superlative ratings from the critics, and the unreserved plaudits of those who appreciate good acting and fine production technique. A supporting cast of 3000 is headed by Reginald Owen, Alan Marshall, Lief Ericson, Henry Stephenson, Dame May Whitty, and C. Henry Gordon.

Tomorrow and Saturday, Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland will be featured in "Thoroughbreds Don't Cry," a story of a young jockey's most trying experience. The seasoned acting of the three youngsters, Mickey, Judy, and Ronald Sinclair, is well supported by C. Aubrey Smith, Sophie Tucker, and Forrester Harvey.

"Navy Blue and Gold" has not only the unqualified approval of critics but the approbation of the Navy itself, for it has been called by Naval officers the best Navy picture ever made. The powerful and thrilling story is acted by Robert Young, James Stewart, and Lionel Barrymore with an unusually fine array of supporting stars, including Florence Rice, Billie Burke, Tom Brown, Paul Kelly and Barnett Parker. It will be at the Deerpath Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of next week.

"Wells Fargo" will start at the Deerpath the following Saturday.

"AWFUL WEEK-ENDS" by the Brilliant Satirist Fish. Another of a series of amusing pages in full color appearing in THE AMERICAN WEEKLY, the magazine distributed with NEXT SUNDAY'S CHICAGO HERALD AND EXAMINER.

Father-Son Night At Lincoln School

Lincoln school will hold a Father and Son Night February 24. The program will consist of boxing and wrestling drills by the sixth and seventh grade pupils. The finals of the boxing and wrestling tournaments will be held after the drills.

The fathers who have sons in the finals of either event will occupy reserved ringside seats. Fathers of fourth grade boys through to eighth inclusive will be invited.
