

Edward Zimmer, Old H. P. Resident Dies; Funeral Held Tuesday

Edward Zimmer, 70, well known jobbing contractor in Highland Park for many years, passed away Saturday, Feb. 19, at the Highland Park hospital where he had undergone an operation two weeks ago, and was apparently on the road to recovery. Complications developed Wednesday, which resulted in his death the following Saturday.

He was born in Wheeling, Dec. 14, 1867, the son of Conrad and Magdalene Zimmer. His early boyhood was spent in his parental home in Wheeling where he also received his early education. At the age of 14 he came to Highland Park and made his home with his sister Miss Mary Zimmer. Soon after coming to Highland Park he sought employment and worked in various places. At the age of 17 he associated himself with his brother Julius (now deceased) and his nephew, Edward Huber, and learned the building trade.

Mr. Zimmer was known in the community as an excellent workman. Many people employed him because they knew that their work would be well done. He was a very energetic man, and seldom took time for leisure or recreation. He was always anxious to complete the task that engaged him so that he might pass on to the next job that was waiting for him. Mr. Zimmer was very unpretentious, quiet and unassuming and spent much of his time about his home.

On Nov. 10, 1891, Mr. Zimmer united in marriage with Miss Edith Cole of this city. There were three children born to them, all of whom are living. They are Winfield B. and Harvey Cole Zimmer and Mrs. Elmer R. Evans, all residents of this city. Mrs. Zimmer preceded her husband in death on Aug. 12, 1908.

During the past ten years Mr. Zimmer's health was impaired seriously a number of times, but in each instance through sheer will power and persistence he heroically fought his way back, and again resumed his work.

The deceased is survived by three grandchildren besides his two sons and daughter, and other relatives in many friends.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Kelly chapel, with Rev. H. F. Siemsen of Bethany church officiating. Interment took place at Park Ridge cemetery.

Infant Welfare to Meet Monday, Feb. 28

The regular monthly sewing meeting of the Highland Park-Ravinia Center of Infant Welfare association will be held next Monday, Feb. 28, at the home of Mrs. Richard A. Keaton at 432 N. Linden avenue.

Assisting Mrs. Keaton as hostesses will be Mrs. Cloud Wampler, Mrs. Mason Armstrong, and Mrs. Richard S. Carr.

Serving on the luncheon committee for this meeting are Mrs. W. W. Miller, Mrs. Haskel Rhet, Mrs. C. W. Schaaf, Mrs. Paul Phelps, and Mrs. Hugh H. Wilson.

Jewish Women's Groups Meet Feb. 28

The Conference of Jewish Women's Organizations will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday, Feb. 28, at 1 p.m. at 185 N. Wabash, 22nd floor, Mrs. Harry L. Canmann, president, presiding. The program will be presented by the social relations committee, Mrs. Max Engerman, chairman. The subject for discussion is "Methods With Which Private Agencies Handle Problems of Child Care in Our Community." The thorough, scientific and sympathetic manner with which children in institutions are handled, will be discussed by the speakers on this program.

1. The Jewish Children's Welfare Bureau—Mr. Jacob Kepacs, ex-director.
2. The Protestant and Catholic Agencies—Miss Ethel Verry, ex-secretary, Chicago Orphans home.

Vesper Service at Bethany, Sunday

The choir of the Bethany Evangelical church will present one of its fine Vesper services next Sunday at 4:30 p.m. A number of solos and duets and a short message by Rev. H. F. Siemsen, the pastor, will be added to the program. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Bethany Young People to Hold Banquet March 3

Thursday evening, March 3, will be a festive event in the calendar of the young people of the Bethany Evangelical church. At that time the losers in the recent contest will treat the winners to special dessert at the banquet which will take place at 8:30 that evening. Rev. M. L. Hachlen has a large number of college students in his audiences at Naperville and is well qualified to speak to young people. Many other interesting features will be carried out in the program of the evening which makes it very worthwhile and interesting to all present.

Steve Kostial Dies at H. P. Hospital

Steve Kostial, who conducted a garage and blacksmith in West Lake Forest for the past eighteen years, passed away Saturday evening at 12:30 o'clock at the Highland Park hospital where he had been a patient for the past three weeks. For the past year and a half he had been ill with heart trouble.

Funeral services were held yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock from the H. F. Kelley funeral home. Interment was in Montrose cemetery.

The deceased is survived by his wife Margaret and three children, Elizabeth, Bessie and Steve.

Plan Old Fashioned Get Together Friday at Bethany Church

An old fashioned get-together is being planned for Friday evening at the Bethany church, corner of Laurel and McGovern streets.

It will be an evening of fellowship and fun for all members and friends, young and old, of the church.

Stunts, music, drama, pictures and refreshments will make up the program to begin at 8 o'clock.
