

A DOG'S LIFE

By Dr. Jim Butterworth

Mike Bligh, of whom you have heard before, wrote a letter to me the other day, though there wasn't much letter to it, it was mostly a poem. You remember, Mike, along with Pat, Mike's twin brother, is an Irish Setter, and, as Irish Setters are won't to do—and you can bear me out by asking Betty Robinson—Mike fell sick a long time ago, as did his brother Pat, and both of the boys were staying at my house for a long time—in fact it was such a long time that Pat's and Mike's mother and dad had just about decided that raising twin Setters is practically comparable to doing the same thing to a set of quintuplets, only worse. Anyway, when Mike wrote me this letter I thought it was pretty swell of him to think of me, because Irish Setters have lots of things to do, usually, and haven't much time to think of the family doctor, much less than to write letters and even sign them with a paw-print, so therefore I am passing his poem on to you, in the hope that you will enjoy it half as much as I have. I might also add that the whole cause of the poem is the fact that both Pat and Mike were sort of orphaned when they were very tiny, a fact I might have mentioned before. Anyway, here it is:

We're in a sad dilemma,
 Brother Pat and Mike—that's me
 For lately we've discovered
 That we have no pedigree.
 Our mistress, when she bought us,
 Thought our points were superlative,
 And champions she'd make us
 For our antecedent line.
 But news is spreading quickly
 (Reputations thus decamp)
 That Mother was no lady,
 Though our father was a "Champ."
 Our Irish Setter daddy
 Was an ardent pleasure scout,
 And blarney tinged his wooing
 On the night that he stepped out.
 He dazzled a fair lady
 With his great majestic mane—
 Her ancestry had swayed
 From its line of doubtful strain.
 But, lineage quite unheeded,
 Yielded to the lover's plea,
 And from that summer evening
 Came my brother Pat and me.
 We can't blame dad and mother
 For this biologic plight;
 For who can stay the doings
 Of a bawdy summer night?
 We asked our mistress sadly:
 "Would she turn us from the place—
 And pack our little collars—
 Ostracized for this disgrace?"
 She said for fifty million
 And some fifty million more
 She'd not give up her puppies
 For blue ribbons by the score.
 We wagged our tails in rapture,
 And we barked in doggie glee;
 Now we're loved—because we're loved—
 And not for pedigree.
 (Signed) MIKE BLIGH.

Sheridan Rifle Club Fires Return Match With Winnetka Club

On Wednesday evening, March 16, the Sheridan Rifle club of Highland Park fired a return match with the Winnetka Rifle and Pistol club in the New Trier High School Field House. The Sheridan marksmen defeated the Winnetka club in a recent closely contested match on their own indoor range in Deerfield. The match was featured by fine shooting on the part of two women team members representing Winnetka. In another recent shoulder to shoulder match, on their home range, the Sheridan club also defeated the Waukegan Rifle club in a match so closely shot that the outcome hinged on the final shot. The local club has to its credit also, a fine victory over the strong Sylvan Rod and Gun Club of Chicago. Sheridan has been defeated this season only by the crack Lake View

Club of Chicago, probably the strongest club in the Chicago area. The defeat was by a slender margin. Under the stimulus of serious club and inter-club competition, the improvement in the scoring has been so phenomenally rapid and marked, that the Sheridan Rifle club would appear to be well on its way to a competitive eminence in the Chicago area.

Dance Successful; H. P. Baseball Team Assured Season

More than 200 persons Tuesday night attended the game night party of the Highland Park baseball team held in the Masonic temple.

Thanks to the generosity of the Highland Park and Ravinia merchants and citizens, the executive committee composed of Ray Chambers, Frank Farraro and John Austin announced today that the team will be able financially to compete for the second year in the Illinois State Amateur Baseball league.

Left without the support of the American Legion, the squad found itself "on its own" this year. The kind and generous support of such Legionnaires as Art Swanson and Ray Chambers has helped immeasurably toward making the athletic club solvent.

Local Residents Become Citizens

Forty-two men and women were admitted to full citizenship Thursday by Judge Ralph J. Dady at the March naturalization hearing in Waukegan.

The new citizens and their families were guests of honor at an Americanization program held at 8 p.m., Tuesday, March 15, at the Legion Home by patriotic organizations of the county. At that time they received their certificates of citizenship from Circuit Clerk L. J. Wilmont.

Those admitted to citizenship from Highland and Highland Park were: Highwood—Salvatore Principali, Antoni Pallas, Vito Fiore, Nicola Cantagello, Raymond Grotti, Omero Antonetti, Angelo Ugolini, Secondo Mancini, Angelo Alberto Bonetti, Elsa Palmieri. Highland Park—Judith Bacik, Duilio Nichele and Antonio Pezzini.

Funeral Today For Mrs. Joseph Froelich

Mrs. Rena Billstrin Froelich, aged 77, of 347 Central ave., passed away Monday at the Highland Park hospital following a brief illness. Funeral service will be held this afternoon (Thursday) at 2 o'clock at the Kelley chapel, with burial private.

Mrs. Froelich, wife of the late Joseph Froelich, was born in Plymouth, Ohio, June 16, 1861. She has been a resident of Highland Park for the past 15 years.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Belma Ruwitch, a son, Lester B. Froelich, and a sister, Mrs. Jennie Stransky.

Deerfield Child Is Buried Wednesday

Charles Frederick Fuller, eight year old son of Mrs. Freidel Fuller of Deerfield and Mr. Paul Fuller of Chicago, passed away Tuesday at the Highland Park hospital following a brief illness.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Kelley chapel, with burial in Graceland cemetery. Besides his parents a brother Paul Norman survives.

Car Careens On Skokie Highway; One Slightly Hurt

A car driven by Joseph Galst, 601 Jackson street, Greenbay, Wis., careened while being driven south on Skokie highway near Oakley road last Thursday afternoon. Sarah Galst, who was riding with her father, was slightly injured. Galst said that the accident probably occurred following the blow out of a tire. The car was badly damaged.

Marinelli And Plant Score High For Inman and Inman

Last Wednesday Paul's Barber Shop won two from Hansen's Tavern in the business men's bowling tournament at Majestic alleys. Inman and Inman won two from Studebaker the same evening. F. Marinelli and Plant of the Inman team were high with 564 and 557.

Lou Hoppe of Coleman's team thinks that for the good of bowling and the Central Tire Bowling team, Mrs. Art Krohn should keep her husband at home and send her son to take his place. Next week's schedules: Tuesday—Paul's Barber Shop vs. Coleman's; Sky Harbor vs. Farm-er's Beverage. Wednesday—Central Tire Co. vs. Inman and Inman; Hansen's Tavern vs. Studebaker.

Stukey Smith Post of the American Legion of Highwood are planning an outdoor carnival to be held the week of June 13 to 15. It will be held on the property adjacent to the North Shore line tracks on Waukegan road south of Highwood avenue.
