

DEERFIELD LOCALS

ORSBORN HONORED

Charles Orsborn, a member of Bradley Tech's "Sensational Five," together with the other members of the basketball team, left Saturday morning for New York City where they will play in the National Intercollegiate Invitational Tournament. The other three teams invited to participate are Temple of Philadelphia, New York university, and Long Island City university. The tournament will be played in Madison Square Gardens. This is an honor which comes to but few teams and is a recognition of the outstanding ability of those invited to participate.

Charles is the son of Mrs. Edna Stanger Orsborn of Forest avenue.

HOME MAKERS PARTY

The Deerfield Camp of the Royal Neighbors will sponsor a Home Makers party on Friday afternoon at 1:30 at the Deerfield Masonic temple. Martha Crane and Helen Joyce of radio fame will present an interesting program. Their broadcast is heard daily at 9 a.m. over WGN.

Their talk will be "Behind the Scenes in Radio" and they will demonstrate the products which they advertise over the radio. Refreshments will be served and there will be numerous door prizes.

Mrs. William Johnston is chairman and would like to have as many reservations as possible in advance.

DRAINAGE ELECTION

Harold Ott Plagge was unanimously elected a commissioner of Union Drainage District One on Saturday afternoon for a 3 year term, at the annual election at the Wilmet school. Twenty-five votes were cast for Mr. Plagge, who succeeds Cassius Easton, who was not a candidate for reelection. Other commissioners are Roy Clavay and Milton Frantz. Fred Selig is treasurer.

P.-T.A. OPEN HOUSE

The Deerfield Grammar school open house program sponsored by the faculty for the P.-T.A. was an exceptionally fine exhibit of class room work accomplished during the past year. Over 100 parents visited the various class rooms, met the teachers and viewed the exhibits. At the conclusion of the visiting period, all assembled in the gymnasium where Dr. E. F. Munro gave an instructive talk on the accomplishments of the local dental clinic and showed pictures of teeth to illustrate his lecture. Kindergarten mothers served as hostesses at the social hour with Mrs. M. L. Casad and Mrs. Frederick Ritter pouring.

SURPLUS FOODS

Through the Federal government, the following surplus foods were distributed by Supervisor James O'Connor on Saturday to those receiving direct relief and old age assistance: butter, dried peaches, dried apples, fresh apples, rice and red potatoes. West Deerfield Township will receive another surplus load of oranges, potatoes and celery at the end of this week. Those receiving these commodities are asked to bring their own bags and baskets.

David Stryker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Stryker, 710 Orchard, Deerfield, is one of the campus leaders at Lake Forest college who was a guest at the annual Midwinter dinner of the college held at the Edgewater Beach hotel in Chicago, March 9.

Each year, students, faculty members, alumni, and friends of Lake Forest college meet at the Midwinter dinner. On these occasions, students who have distinguished themselves by high scholarship or leadership in student activities receive the honor of being guests of the college.

Stryker is a senior at Lake Forest, and is editor of Tusitala, campus literary magazine. He was listed on the upper honor roll of the college for scholarship, for the first semester of the current school year.

Mrs. W. K. Hout was hostess to members of her sewing club yesterday afternoon at her home on Warrington road.

Miss Jane Todd entertained her pot-luck dinner club at her home on Friday evening.

Roy Thompson, who was injured in an automobile accident last September, is now able to be about on crutches after a long period of confinement.

Miss Jane Todd will be hostess to members of the Presbyterian Young People's group tomorrow evening at the home of her parents, the Woodman Todds. Ralph and John Willen were to have been hosts, but their youngest brother, Paul, came down with the measles on Friday.

Members of the Bird club went to McHenry on Monday.

Miss Jane Warner, who is completing her course at the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. A. R. Warner.

"Every Member Sunday" will be observed at the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. Members will publicly make their annual pledges for service activities, each one checking on a card; also the pledges for current and benevolent budgets will be received. A special meeting of the session was held Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. W. F. Weir.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Johnston Davis drove up to Neenah, Wis., on Saturday to visit Dr. Davis' father.

Mr. and Mrs. Burr Hindahl of Woodland drive had as their Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Gibbons and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kriegsman of Chicago.

Mrs. Burr Hindahl spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. Robert Stoebig, in Kenosha. On Saturday, the Hindahls were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Conard in Chicago.

Mrs. Irving Brand is spending the day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. English in Eyanston. Today is her mother's birthday anniversary.

Miss Olive Frantz, who attends North Central college, spent Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Frantz.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wortham of the Seneca hotel, Chicago, have leased the Leslie Brand house and will move back to Deerfield on May 1. The Brands will take an apartment in the Brand building in Highland Park until the close of school when they will go to their summer home at White Lake in Michigan.

The Deerfield Dramatic club met Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian church for a dinner meeting, and annual election of officers. Mrs. Mrs. Jirah Cole Jr. and Mrs. C. W. Boyle were in charge of the dinner. "Men Must Fight" is the name of the next play which the Stagers will present. It is a war play, from the diplomatic angle, set in the home of the Secretary of State.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frantz, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stanger and son, Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. George Stanger, Mrs. Edna Stanger Orsborn, all of Deerfield, and Miss Bonita Stanger of Highland Park, attended the Mid-West Intercollegiate track field meet at North Central college at Merner Gym in Naperville on Saturday. North Central college stood third in the entire group. George, a son of the Floyd Stangers, was a member of the winning relay team of North Central college. Colleges of twelve mid-west states participated in the meet.

Miss June Nelson, who attends the Northern Illinois State Normal college at DeKalb came home Thursday to spend the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nelson of Sunset court.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meyer of New Florence, Mo., have named their third little son, Phillip Richard. He arrived on February 25, just one day late for his father's birthday anniversary present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Korenin have purchased the R. R. Knaak bungalow on North Chestnut street and will move from the George Harder apartment to their new home about the first of May. The Robert Pattons moved from the Knaak house to Highland Park on Tuesday.

Mrs. H. F. McCusker and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Anderson of Hazel avenue spent the week-end at the Joseph Mele home in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Scott are entertaining the Bethlehem Fireside club tonight at their home on Todd court. A Mexican travel talk will be given by Mr. Carl Jenderson of Chicago.

Glenn Kapschull, who attends Onarga Military academy at Onarga, Ill., spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kapschull.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carman of Rosemary terrace are vacationing in Florida.

Mrs. David Derby is entertaining her club tomorrow afternoon at her home on Journal place.

The Sewing society of St. Paul's church will meet on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Labahn.

Circle Two of St. Paul's church met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Jacobs.

The Misses Luella and Juliana Willman visited Miss Jean Scully in Chicago on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Philip Scully Sr. and her daughter, Miss Jean, were the victims of a speeding motorist, while they were crossing a street on foot in Excelsior Springs, Mo., two weeks ago. Mrs. Scully was badly bruised and Miss Jean received a cracked pelvis bone and was returned home in a cast.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mann entertained on Saturday evening at their home on Central avenue in honor of their eleventh wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Johanna Grenning, the Misses Julia and Patricia Grenning, of Glenview are guests today at the C. M. Willman home on Greenwood avenue, in celebration of Mrs. Willman's birthday anniversary.

Mrs. A. R. Hedges will entertain the Tuesday Evening Bridge club next week at her home in Chicago. Sunday dinner guests at the Ralph Dunham home were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Larson Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Larson Jr. of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunham attended the funeral of a nephew, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson in Racine on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Siljestrom will be hostess to member sif her bridge club on Wednesday at her home in Highland Park.

Mrs. Eugene Zahnle will entertain her 500 luncheon club on Wednesday, April 6 at her home on Ridge road. Mrs. Edward Trier of Chicago entertained the March meeting of the club at the home of Mrs. Earl Frost.

Mrs. Walter Hoffman was hostess to her Friday Bridge club last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Steiner will entertain the group next Friday afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. Nolan of Lake Forest spent Sunday at the Earl Frost home.

The Independent Social club will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Julius Johnson on Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully were hosts at cards on Saturday evening at their home on Osterman avenue.

About twelve members of the Deerfield Chapter, O.E.S., attended the Lake Forest Eastern Star meeting on Monday evening at an official visit of the Worthy Grand Matron.

Mrs. Otto Gieske of Elm street entertained at a card party on Tuesday for the ways and means committee of the Deerfield Camp of Royal Neighbors.

Mrs. Dora Hesse of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marshall, Mr.

and Mrs. Elmer Hesse and two children of Chicago were Sunday visitors at the Conrad Uchtman home.

The Neighborhood club met Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Reeb of Springfield avenue.

The Deerfield Tigers basketball team defeated the Irving Park team last Tuesday evening by a score of 62 to 41. On Thursday they lost to the Evanston Orioles in Evanston by one point. The local boys have a game each Tuesday evening in the Deerfield Grade school.

"Greenslade Day" was observed at the Holy Cross parish party on Sunday evening. Robert Greenslade of Highland Park, who is a Republican candidate for County Treasurer, sponsored the party.

Conrad Uchtman, Chief of the Deerfield Volunteer Fire Department, stated recently that the department had been called out only 25 times during the past year and classified the calls as follows: 15 grass fires; 3 automobile fires; 4 residence fires; 1 store building; and 2 false alarms. The total loss by fire was $950. Last week the department made 2 calls, one was a chicken house on the Richard Antes property and the other was a grass fire at James O'Connor's.

Phone Highland Park 2166

B. E. Christensen, O.D.

OPTOMETRIST

391 Central Avenue

Highland Park, Ill.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE READING ROOM

43 NORTH SHERIDAN ROAD
Open: WEEK DAYS 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.
SATURDAYS 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.
SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS, 2:30 p. m. to 5:30 p. m.
You are cordially invited to visit the Reading Room, where the Bible and authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.
Maintained by

First Church of Christ, Scientist
Highland Park

Have you realized the change? Your boy has become a young man. Look at his last photograph—then urge him to have a new one made NOW.

Hecketsweiler Studio

Photographers

7 S. St. Johns Avenue

Phone Highland Park 435

Spend Your Winter Vacation

at the

Valpariso Inn

VALPARISO, FLORIDA

A Beautiful Country Club Hotel

- American and European Plan
- Modern Fireproof Building
- Sixty-five Outside Bedrooms
- Excellent Meals

RATES:
Single — $25 to $35
per week

HOUSES and LOTS at BARGAIN PRICES

This is the season of the year when the buying and building of homes is the subject of great public interest. People, tired of paying rent, are looking for permanent homes.

Prospective buyers will be interested in two choice residences in the beautiful Krenn and Dato Subdivision which we own and offer at real bargain prices.

They should be interested also in several residence lots on the East side, which can be bought at very low figures.

Let us show them to you.

Quality Cleaners

Phone H. P. 178

RELIABLE LAUNDRY

AND

DRY CLEANING CO.

Anti-Back Ache

SELF SKIRT MARKER

Makes an accurate Hem in 30 seconds. No more sprawling on the floor. No more runs in silk stockings. No more tired customers waiting while you pin the hem. You need not depend on friends or relatives, you can now mark your own hem. Order today, subject to approval when delivered.

Orders also taken for Finking Shears, Spool holders, Gauges and other sewing necessities.

TELEPHONE HIGHLAND PARK 405

for further information.

The First National Bank of Highland Park

Member of

THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION