

DEERFIELD LOCALS

15 CANDIDATES FILE FOR DEERFIELD BOARD

At the Deerfield Grammar school election for seven members, for a board of education, to be held on Saturday, April 9 from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. in the grade school, fifteen candidates have filed for the seven places. Two full tickets are in the field and one independent candidate. Last week's Press contained an article on the first ticket filed which included the following names: For president, Burton B. McRoy; for members, Robert F. Grohe, Raymond Meyer, H. C. Hawes, George Harder, Agnes Tennermann and Myrtle Weiss. Elsewhere in this issue of the Press is an account of the second ticket which has the following personnel: for president, E. B. Jordan; for members, Glenn Briscoe, E. G. Jacobson, Homer Casel, T. G. Johnson, Milton O. Olson and Miriam Stryker Easton.

The independent candidate is James Grant Russell, Boy Scout leader.

DEERFIELD ROTARIANS

Deerfield Rotarians have had 100 per cent attendance at the past seven weekly luncheons. Dr. Walter Metcalf, who has been in Florida the past month, has made up his meetings in the south, his most recent make-up card coming from St. Petersburg, Fla. Visiting Rotarians at the last two week's luncheons at the Phil Johnson Restaurant were Harry Kelley, Nafe Larson Dan Carrough, Raymond Plinn and Oscar Lundgren, Dorsey Husenetter, Joseph Garnett, Carl Brown, and Edward Knox all of Highland Park. Edward Carter had as his guests Henry Bucher and George Lutz, both of Northbrook. Henry Bucher is now a member of the club. Rev. F. G. Piepenbrock, president, was in charge of the business meeting. This week's program will be under the direction of Marshall Pottenger.

STAGERS ELECT

On Tuesday evening at the annual dinner and business meeting of the "Stagers," dramatic club of the Deerfield Presbyterian church, James G. Russell was elected president for the coming year. Donald Clark is vice president, Edith Sherman, secretary; Robert Jordan, business manager; Milton Merner, property manager; and Kenneth Hunter, production manager. The first rehearsal for the next play, "Men Must Fight" got under way on Tuesday evening and the cast will be announced at a later date. This is the third play and will conclude this season's series.

OPERETTA

Upper classmen in the Deerfield Grammar school will present an operetta, "The Band Wagon" on Friday evening April 1, in the school gymnasium, under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Engels Hardacre. A matinee performance for the school children will be given at 3 o'clock on Thursday and a very small admission charge will be made. The cast will be announced next week.

CATHOLIC RECTORY

Work on the new rectory for the Holy Cross Catholic church will be started this week. Last year the parish erected a three-room parochial school and before the close of another year it is expected that the new home for the priest will be completed. These projects are being made possible under the capable guidance of the pastor, Reverend James V. Murphy.

HOME MAKERS PARTY

"Behind the Scenes in Radio" is to be the topic of two very clever and capable radio entertainers on Friday March 25 (tomorrow) at 1:30 p.m. in the Deerfield Masonic temple. Martha Crane and Helen Joyce, who are heard every morning at 9 o'clock over WGN will tell their audience of their work and will give away packages of the products which they advertise over the air. There will be many door prizes and refreshments will be served. The community is invited. The entertainment is being sponsored by the Deerfield Camp of Royal Neighbors and Mrs. William Johnston is in charge of arrangements.

BAPTISMS

The three children of Mr. and Mrs. William Paul Cazel were baptized at St. Paul's Evangelical church, Sunday afternoon, Rev. F. G. Piepenbrock officiating.

Elizabeth Louise, born January 16, 1934. Sponsors: Mrs. Josephine Cazel and Mr. Austin Cazel.

TOWNSHIP MEETINGS

Two meetings of the officials of West Deerfield Township are scheduled for the near future. On Tuesday April 5, at 2 p.m., the annual Town meeting will be held in the Town hall. Tax levies will be approved at this meeting. The annual audit of the township from March 1, 1937 to March 1, 1938 has been completed by Ralph S. Jacobs, C.P.A., and is published elsewhere in the Press.

HIGH SCHOOL ELECTION

An election will be held in the Deerfield Town Hall on Saturday, April 9, from 12 noon until 7 p.m. for the purpose of electing a member of the Highland Park High School Board of Education. Polling places for this election will be at Highland Park, Highwood, Lake Forest and Deerfield. Mr. George T. Rogers of Lake Forest, who is the only member whose term expires, is a candidate for reelection. Deerfield residents should not confuse this with the local grade school election which will be in progress the same day in the grammar school.
