

GIRL SCOUTS

Carrying out the ideal plan for "long-term planning" is the aim of the Highland Park Girl Scout Council and Leaders' Association and toward that goal all efforts are being directed. At the home of Mrs. Arthur Mason on Wednesday, April 6, at 1 o'clock, the troop leaders will meet with the commissioner and some of the council members to discuss program plans for next fall and winter. Also, the council is urged to attend the Field Institute which will be held at the Westmoreland Country club on April 8. Discussion subjects will pertain to "Local Councils at Work." The morning sessions begin at 10 o'clock and will be led by Mrs. J. H. Pratt of Oak Park who will talk on "Why Are There Local Councils?" Mrs. Katie Lee Johnson, Director of Region 7, will take the subject "Trend in Organization and Program Discussion."

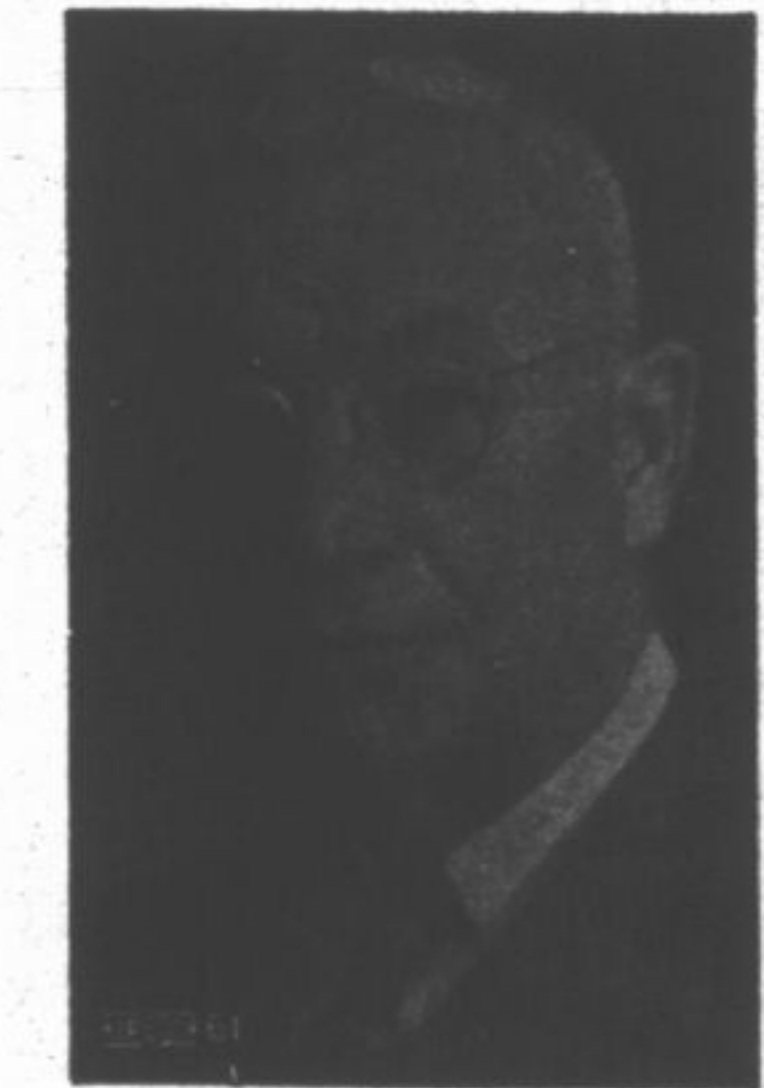

Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock and during luncheon Mrs. Arthur W. Wakely, Regional Skipper, will discuss the Mariner Program. The afternoon session which begins at 1:30 will be devoted to Round Table Discussions of the various departments of council activity and a talk on "The Brownie Program Today" by Miss Barbara Embury, District Director of Chicago.

On March 28 at the Ridge school Troop 6 held an investiture ceremony and Mothers' Tea. Mary Louise Butterfield, Grace Brown, Joan Wallach and Nancy Miller had passed the tenderfoot tests and in an impressive and quite formal ceremony were invested as Tenderfoot Scouts by Mrs. Roy O. Nerheim, commissioner.

Mrs. Dunham, leader of the troop, was very proud of her scouts for they are working on their Hostess Badge work and so took complete charge of all of the kitchen details of making sandwiches, cookies and

CHARLES H. FRANCIS

LAWYER, WOODSTOCK, ILL.
for State Representative

TO the VOTERS of the EIGHTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT:

Mr. Francis served the people of the district as a state representative for three terms, from 1920 to 1926, during which he made a very creditable record.

His candidacy, the respect in which he is held in the district, and his ability, have been summed up by the Harvard (Ill.) Herald which says:

"His record during three terms in the legislature was distinctly a credit to himself and his constituency. Reference to the session laws following the three terms in which he served disclose that his votes were recorded for measures for the public good and that he has had no occasion to defend them or to offer alibis for the way in which he voted on any controversial legislation.

In his campaign Mr. Francis is emphasizing that he is a lawyer and that, because of this, he is especially qualified to serve the district in a way that no other Republican candidate for the position can offer.

The most important committee of the house is the judiciary committee, which handles practically all important bills, except appropriations. This committee does about one-third of all the house committee work and is composed exclusively of lawyers. Any lawyer elected to the house automatically becomes a member.

This district has not been represented in this vital position during the past two years.

The primary election at which nominations are made will be held Tuesday, April 12, 1938. Voters are urged to participate in the primary and voice their choice for state representative. Two Republicans are to be nominated and two elected so that nomination is election.

tea and were ready to receive their mothers whom they introduced in a most adult and perfect manner. It was an altogether lovely afternoon.

The girls in troop 5 met with Mrs. Godfrey Eiler, examiner for Housekeeping Badge for Ravinia Troops to enjoy the dinner prepared for them by Mary Louise Dyer and Paula Raff to whom Mrs. John Brent, chairman of Badges and Awards, presented their Cooking Badge. The girls in the troops planned the menu and set the table.

Mrs. Jeis Ham, whose daughter Peggy is scribe and member of Elm Place Troop No. 7, has been giving a course in cooking to ten girls in the troop. They meet in Mrs. Ham's home and bring the ingredients for their meals, and in the beginning only simple menus were planned. This week, however, the girls really "stepped out" and the following menu was prepared: Cheese Souffle, pan-broiled lamb chops, green beans and banana salad.

ad. Mrs. Ham made delicious cream puffs for dessert.

Troop 10 sent coloring books, children's magazines, and two lovely scrap books which they had made, to a little six year old girl who has been confined to the Highland Park hospital for some time. Patsy Roach, troop scribe, reported that the troop voted for the troop crest and decided on one with stars, which means that they will work hard to be "star scouts."

N. S. Artists Works Displayed April 3 in Evanston Club

Approximately 1,000 persons are expected to view the paintings and sculpture displayed in the Seventeenth Annual Exhibition of the Works of North Shore Artists at the Woman's Club of Evanston on Sunday afternoon, April 3. An informal open house and tea will be

Mrs. William C. Gilbert, president of the club, and Mrs. Archibald A. McKinley, director of the exhibition, will be assisted by the members of the art committee and a large hostess committee in receiving guests.

Since the opening reception on Tuesday a constant stream of visitors has enjoyed the exhibit.

The works of Thomas E. Tallmadge, Rudolph Engler, Fredric Tellander, Frank C. Peyraud, Elizabeth Peyraud, Walt Otto and Ernest Klemperer are prominent among more than 200 exhibitors.

Discuss Preparation For High School At Ravinia P.T.A.

The Ravinia P.T.A. will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock in the Ravinia Village house.

The speakers for the afternoon will be Miss Minnie Buzard, principal of the Highland Park high school; Miss Emada Griswold, dean of Girls at the high school, and Mr. A. E. Wolters, dean of boys at the high school.

There will be an interesting panel discussion, the topic of which will be "What the High School Expects in the Preparatory Training of a Child, Both From the Parent and Throughout the Grade School." This is a very unusual and interesting treatment of a topic which should be of interest to all parents.
