PASSION WEEK SERVICES

DR. HENRY OSTROM

Dr. Henry Ostrom of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, will speak at the Passion Week Services to be held in the First United Evangelical church Tuesday, April 12 through Friday, April 15 at 7:45 p.m., also Good Friday afternoon 2:30.

Dr. Ostrom is a speaker of rare ability, a successful Evangelist and an author of many books.

He has preached in Wall Street from an automobile, in University chapels, theaters and in special tabernacles seating thousands, built for his work. Reverend Ostrom is a Bible teacher, a deep spiritual preacher and we feel Highland Park is greatly favored in having this speaker in town for services during Holy Week.

A Few Tickets Are Still Available To Recital Series

Although the response to the sale of subscription tickets to the Winnetka Music Club Artists Recital series, held at the New Trier Auditorium, has been satisfactory, there are still a few seats in the reserved section and some unreserved seats to be had for the coming season—1938-9.

The committee in charge, under the able guidance of Mrs. Roland Whitman, has already engaged the following master musicians, any one of whom it is a privilege to hear; the superb violinist, Nathan Milstein, that mistress of the piano Myra Hess, and the gifted pair of Metropolitan singers, Marjorie Lawrence and Ezio Pinza. The comparatively small charge made for this course of four concerts and the nearness to home makes this an opportunity that should not be missed by local music lovers.

Mrs. Jasper King of Winnetka is in charge of subscription reservations, and Mrs. Arthur Raff of Highland Park is the local member of the Committee to whom reservations may be made.

included in the list of prizes to be awarded during the evening.

Reservations may be made with the following members of the committee in charge of the affair: Howard Sheahan, Thomas Kelly, Louis McOmber, James Bernardi, Burton Berube, Ed Brown, Philip Muzik, Charles Sheahan, Jr., Sam Bernardi, Ray Sheahan, Dick O'Brien, George Ralph, Ed Steffen, Jim Carlson, E. V. Mocogni, Fred Ehrens, Bob Denzel, Charles Redman, Bill Dorck, D. Paneralli, Marshall Williams, M. Nolan, John McCaffrey, Pete Lencioni and Ray Umbenbaum.

Broadway Success To Be Topic Of Mrs. Faxon's Review

Mrs. Lloyd Faxon of Winnetka will complete her series of book reviews next Monday, April 11, at 2 p.m. in the Parish House of the Highland Park Presbyterian church. Meeting popular demand, she will review a play now running on Broadway. The title has not been revealed, so to appease your curiosity, attendance will be necessary. This series has been open to the public at a nominal fee. Mrs. Faxon is always so gracious and gives such delightful, humorous, and intelligent reviews, that it is with regret that another season comes to a close.

"Styles and Stooges" Promise Brilliant Performance Friday

Through the combined efforts of members of the cast and other interested Highland Park citizens, over 500 tickets have been sold to "Styles and Stooges" which will be given tomorrow evening (Friday) at the Elm Place school. Proceeds of the entertainment will be used to purchase furnishings for Highland Park's proposed community house. A final rehearsal for the production will be held tonight (Thursday).

With a big array of amateur and professional talent, Mr. Jack Sturtevant, who is directing the production, believes that it will be a tremendous success.

The sponsors of the show are the Knit Shop, Neild's Sports Shop, Alden Studio, Mrs. Uhlman, Borchardt's Beauty Salon, Miss Ernst, Lucille Hilborn, Rasmussen's, Art Olson's, and Bahr's.

The members of the cast are Dot Lytle, Sally Murfey, Jane Griffith, Marge Kurtzon, Dulcie Lightner, Muriel Hilborn, Pat Reading, Ruth Chalmers, Frank Moran, Bud and Shirley Pfister, and many others.

Men's Fellowship Club To Hear Talk On Aviation Friday

On Friday evening, April 8, the Men's Fellowship Club of the Presbyterian church will play host to two well known speakers and executives whose subject will be as interesting as it is informative.

W. A. Patterson, president of the United Air Lines, and Major R. W. Schroeder, vice president in charge of operations, will speak on commercial aviation, its past, present and future. Both of these men have a background of experience, coupled with little-known inside facts, that makes them authorities on their subject.

Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock and it is hoped that every member will be present to hear this most interesting and educational program.

Holy Name Society Plans Party Apr. 8

St. James Holy Name society will hold a dinner followed by a card party and entertainment Thursday evening, April 28, in Elks hall on Laurel avenue. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock. Reservations must be made not later than April 19. A very lovely electric lamp is

GOOD THOUGHTS
Be noble! and the nobleness that lives
In other men, sleeping, but never dead,
Will rise in majesty to meet thine own.
