

Kennedy, Morse, Leaf, Nelson Win Republican Ticket

Roman; precinct 6, William Witten; precinct 7, Lyle Gourley; precinct 8, C. W. Balke; precinct 9, E. W. Carlson; precinct 10, J. O'Connell; precinct 11, F. Tucker; precinct 12, W. Heinrichs.

County Results

A reinvigorated Republican party in the county nominated Thomas E. Kennedy for sheriff, Jay B. Morse for county clerk, Allen J. Nelson for probate clerk and Garfield R. Leaf for county treasurer.

Surprising even the candidate himself, the Republican voters of the county gave Kennedy a majority of 3,413 over his two opponents combined in the unofficial returns in 70 of the 78 precincts in the county. In these districts Kennedy received 12,379, John E. Froelich 5,336 and Harold E. Pillifant 3,621.

The county clerk's race was the closest of the four nomination contests on the Republican ballot, with Morse having a plurality of 886 over William J. Stratton in the 70 precincts.

Morse polled 7,320, Stratton 6,434, Lew Hendee 4,906 and J. Russell Miller 1,612. Returns from the eight missing precincts are expected to cut Morse's plurality somewhat, but are not expected to endanger his lead.

For probate clerk Nelson polled 9,831 votes to 4,258 for Leonard D. Hook, 3,878 for Ray J. Reardon, and 1,864 for George W. Strang.

Leaf won the treasurer's nomination by a two to one vote over Robert J. Greenslade, receiving 12,608 to 6,364 for Greenslade.

The candidates unopposed for Republican county offices were Perry L. Persons for county judge, 17,211; Martin C. Decker for probate judge, 16,406, and W. C. Petty for superintendent of schools, 17,025.

In the Democratic primary, four of the five county candidates sponsored by the Civic Democratic league, organized by Jack Bairstow, were assured of nominations in unofficial returns from 65 of the 78 precincts.

They are Bart Tyrrell for sheriff, T. Arthur Simpson for superintendent of schools, Philip W. Yager for probate judge and Charles F. Heblor for probate clerk. The only civic leaguer to meet defeat was Mrs. Esther C. Singer for county judge, who apparently will not be able to overcome the lead piled up by Robert P. Sullivan of Prairie View, who had the backing of the central committee.

Unofficial returns in 65 of the 78 precincts give Tyrrell 6,481 and Charles A. Stanton 2,266; Simpson 4,409 and Charles Noll 3,054; Yager 5,026 and Emanuel R. Parnass 2,259; Heblor 3,270, Jack B. Ewing 2,770 and Kenneth R. Klopff 1,316, and Mrs. Singer 3,077 and Sullivan 4,348.

Russ Alford unopposed for county clerk received 7,555 and James McMillen unopposed for treasurer polled 6,780.

Cong. Ralph E. Church of Evanston, who has served two terms, was nominated by the Republican party for re-election from the Tenth district, while the Democratic nominee was still uncertain.

Church piled up a heavy lead in Lake county in 68 precincts, receiving 13,701 votes to 4,833 for John Fay Harris of Lake Forest and 653 for Robert E. Schaefer of Chicago.

In Evanston and Chicago sections of the district, Church led the other two candidates by nearly ten to one. Joseph F. Elward had a plurality of 298 votes over William Mason in the unofficial Lake county vote for the Democratic congressional nomination, with C. Hilding Anderson in third place. The remainder of the Tenth district in Cook county was still in the dark between Elward and Anderson.

Dick Lyons Wins

Lake county voters made sweeping demands on poll officials for Republican ballots in order to voice an insistent plea for the nomination of Richard J. Lyons for U. S. senator and a change in the administration at Washington.

While the state was according Lyons a wide victory over his nearest opponent, Lake county voters in 70 precincts out of 78 poured out a total of 16,101 ballots for the Libertyville lawmaker as against 491 for William J. Baker and 415 for Clarence P. Parker.

And despite the confusion experienced by many voters in keeping track of the "Lyons candidates," men running with Lyons on the slate endorsed by the county chairmen's organization, the Lake county voters gave good leads to all of the candidates on the Lyons slate, and helped to pile up the total vote that gave them all a good chance at victories in incomplete returns.

In Lake county's incomplete returns William R. McCauley led Warren Wright for state treasurer 8,560 to 5,962. George E. Lambur Jr., for clerk of the supreme court, had 6,328 against 4,562 for Charles W. Vail, 1,765 for Shelton L. Smith and 1,330 for Sanford Giles.

Simon E. Lantz was given 7,268 and Frederick A. Virkus 6,285 for congressman-at-large against 4,907 for Stephen A. Day, 4,381 for Harley D. Jones and 1,248 for C. M. Donigan.

Justus L. Johnson for clerk of the appellate court in the second district got 13,308 votes in Lake county.
