Woman Killed As She Dashes Into Path Of N. S. Train

Mistaking a speeding North Shore line express train for the local which she was to take to Chicago, Miss Mary Callahan, 68, was instantly killed when she was struck and hurled fifty feet by the southbound train at Beech street, Saturday afternoon.

At an inquest into the death of Miss Callahan Monday afternoon, a verdict of accidental death was returned by the coroner's jury.

Miss Callahan, who was the sister of Mrs. Thos. McNichols, 137 S. Green Bay road, had been employed as housekeeper for the Charles J. Blocks, 1030 S. Linden avenue.

According to witnesses of the accident, she had been waiting on the northbound platform of the North Shore station until she spied what she believed to be her train approaching from the north.

Paying no attention to the advice of another waiter that it was not her train, she ran across the tracks into the path of the Chicago bound train.

Thomas M. Gilkinson, of Highwood, the motorman, told a similar story at the inquest. The accident occurred at 3:25, and she was unidentified until evening.

The deceased was born in County Mayo, Ireland, and had been a resident of Highland Park for ten years.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception church with burial in St. Mary's cemetery.

Music Critics Laud Duo-Pianists; First N. S. Concert April 29

Recent music critics of Anne Marie Wirz and Roger Balke, duo pianists playing their first North Shore concert, April 29 at 8:30 p.m. Elm-Place auditorium have made the following comments on these well known Highland Park musicians:

"From beginning to end independent, vivid and musical playing" from Basel National Zeitung.

"In the soloists Anne Marie Wirz and Roger Balke, we come to know two pianists, carefully teamed together—extraordinarily plastic, and with great pianistic ability," from Langenthal Tagblatt.

"Their playing is delectably smooth and effortless—a remarkable impression of unity"—Edward Barry in the Chicago Tribune.

"A truly magnificent performance. The nobility of style, the breadth and sweep of lofty phrases, all were treated with infinite regard by these two pianists, who have arrived at a point where further appearances are awaited with keen interest."—Milton Edwards, critic for Music News.

Reserve your tickets for this concert today by calling H.P. 1044.

Funds raised by this card party will enable these scouts to continue their activity and aid them in equipping their patrols for future contests. Refreshments will be served. Tickets may be secured at Ermine Cleaners or from members of the troop.

High Wind Tuesday Fells Flag Pole

A high wind Tuesday afternoon caused a 30-foot metal flag pole on the property of the Immaculate Conception church at the corner of Green Bay road and Deerfield avenue, to topple and come to rest against a power line carrying 2300 volts of electricity.

Public Service Co. employees brought down the pole and removed the impending threat of injury or death to pedestrians. Rust caused the pole to fall.

Richard L. Sandwick To Be Heard Today At Lions Club Meet

Mr. Richard L. Sandwick, Supt. of Highland Park and Lake Forest High schools, will address the Highland Park Lions club at its regular Thursday luncheon, April 21st, at the Green Tea Pot.

His subject will be "Educational Systems in France and Germany as Compared to Those in the United States." Mr. Sandwick spent a great deal of time in France and Germany and his talk should be enlightening.

Mr. Sandwick is a prominent resident of Highland Park and one of the noted educators of the country. As an authority on educational matters, there is no one more qualified to speak on this subject than he. He is an author as well as an educator, having written several books on "How to Study" which are being used in thousands of schools throughout the country.

For thirty-two years he served as principal of the Deerfield Shields high school, previous to the erection of the Lake Forest high school. Since that time he has held the position of Superintendent of the Highland Park and Lake Forest schools.

Born in Tompkins county in New York, which is situated near Ithaca, he received his early education in the public schools there. Upon graduation from high school, he became principal of the village school, being only 18 years old.

He was among the first four hundred students enrolled at Stanford University, in which number were listed such names as ex-President Hoover, Jackson Reynolds, New York banker, and other equally famous men. At the completion of one year of graduate study at the University of Chicago, he came to Deerfield Shields high school where he has since been associated.

Removal of Horse Block Ends "Horse and Buggy Days" Here

"Horse and buggy" days are to end forever in Highland Park.

Do you remember "way back when" you uster hitch up Old Dobbin' and take your best girl for a ride? You'd drive up in front of the post, go to the house and get your girl and together you'd walk back to the horse block, help your girl into the buggy, untie the reins and away you'd go.

Since horse blocks are becoming a menace to automobile driving, the City Council at a recent meeting, adopted a resolution, requiring the owners of property having horse blocks, stone blocks or other obstructions in the parkways to remove same, leaving the streets free from dangerous obstructions. Notice of removal of these obstructions is to be sent to property owners, who must have them removed within 15 days or the city will take the matter into their own hands, and said property owner will have to foot the bill.

Rummage Sale At Trinity Church

The annual spring rummage sale of Trinity church Service league will be held tomorrow (Friday) in the Parish house. Doors will be open at 8 a.m.

Articles for sale will be accepted at any time up to Thursday evening (tonight) and donations are urgently requested.

Annual H. S. Band and Orchestra Concert Friday Night, April 22

Story Printed About Udell Printing Co. Misleading

The following story appeared in the Waukegan News-Sun yesterday and is absolutely misleading: "The property of the Udell Printing Co. publishers of the Highland Park Press will be sold at public auction at the County Court House May 24."

The property in question is real estate owned by the Udell Printing Co. and has nothing whatsoever to do with the printing equipment of the company or the Highland Park Press. Our business will continue the same as usual at the "old stand."

Highwood Recreation Association Presents "Collegiana" May 5-7

Arrangements have been made by the Recreation Association to stage one of the John B. Rogers Producing Company's latest productions, "Collegiana" at the Oak Terrace school, May 5, 6, 7. This is a college play, the plot of which deals with a football hero and his troubles, the coach's lovely daughter, Mrs. Tiddles and her son Hector tied to her apron strings, comedy Freshman lad and lass, the college widow, the comic professors—all contribute to a rollicking fast moving musical farce comedy.

Tryouts will be Saturday, April 23, at the Highwood City Hall at 7 p.m. We need 16-24 peppy young men, about 50 chorus girls of various types, 5 female leading roles, and 12 male roles, including some singers among the groups. Anyone with talent are asked to attend this tryout rehearsal.

This performance has been arranged in order to secure sufficient funds to finance the organization's recreation projects and also afford the city an attractive and snappy bill of entertainment in Collegiana.

H. P. Baseball Team Initial Work-Out Monday, Sunset Park

The initial workout for the squad of the Highland Park baseball team will start at 6 p.m. Monday at Sunset park, Manager Ray Chambers nounced today.

Golf Clubs Prepare For Formal Openings

Golf Clubs in Highland Park are preparing for their formal openings which will take place the last of May. Altho the clubs are seeing considerable spring activity, they do not make their formal opening until summer is well on its way.

Last Tuesday evening two hundred members assembled at Sunset Valley Club to view the new Spaulding Golf picture, "Keystone to Golf." Sunset Valley is looking forward to one of the biggest seasons in its history, for 160 members have already joined, a greater number than ever registered this early in the season. Last Sunday a goodly crowd turned out to take advantage of the balmy spring weather and to familiarize themselves with the course.

High School Nine Defeats New Trier

Cosch Dick Hamill's Highland Park high school baseball team established itself as a possible contender for the 1938 Suburban League championship when it trounced New Trier here last Tuesday by a decisive 6-3 score. Both teams scored in the second inning when the score read 3-1 for the locals. Highland Park scored two more runs in the fourth and one in the sixth. New Trier rallied with two runs in the sixth.

Batteries for New Trier were Davis and Burchinal and for Highland Park, Amedei and Bernardi.

Playing under the auspices of the newly formed Highland Park Music Boosters association, the high school band under the baton of Harold Finch and the orchestra under the direction of Helen Mayer Mannings will present their eighth annual joint concert tomorrow (Friday) night, April 22, in the school auditorium.

The 78 piece orchestra, winners in the National Contest at Cleveland last spring, will open the program with Viotti's "Concerto for Violin" with Rose Mary Holm as soloist. They will also play Mozart's "Jupiter Symphony," Sereydy's "Chatterbox," and Weber's "Overture to Oberon."

The 90 piece band, victorious in the district contest last month, in Maywood and a contender for state honors at Urbana within two weeks, will open its half of the program with Olivadote's "National Victors March" and continue with the popular "Rhapsody in Rhumba" by Bennett. "Prince Igor Overture" by Borodine, the required number for Class A bands in the state contest this year, and "Wotan's Farewell" and "Magic Fire" music from Wagner's "Die Walkure" will complete the program.

Between the orchestra and band programs will be presented two unique features. Miss Gale Bray, who assists in providing the bass for the orchestra, will play Simandri's "Allegro Marcato" on her bass viol. Following Miss Bray's solo, the Music Boosters Committee will present to the audience Mr. C. M. Burgess, President of the Burgess-Norton Mfg. Co., of Geneva, Illinois, who was active in the formation of a similar association in his city.

Union Forces W.P.A.

W.P.A. employees were forced to leave the Highwood sewer project Tuesday when union labor leaders ordered them off the job. Other W.P.A. jobs throughout the county were also halted by the labor union.

Altho there has been no friction with the union, it is apparent that the union is seeking to remove non-union labor from the county jobs. No previous notice had been served on the W.P.A.
