REPORTING ACCIDENTS

If you have been involved in an accident, no matter how slight or how innocent on your part, report it to your insurance company! Give full details as to time of day, weather condi- ing in a defict of $6,800. If the Lynne Carver, Reginald Owen, Regitions, road conditions, warning signs, speeds, etc. Get the entire 1937 tax levy and the distri- nald Gardiner and nine songs that license numbers of all cars involved, names and addresses of butive fund and tuition fund are will thrill you. witnesses. If you can, measure distances, call the attention of witnesses to any particulars you notice, and don't be afraid to draw maps and diagrams that will make it clearer.

Notify your insurance company by wire or telephone if the accident is serious, or if anyone is injured, and follow its instructions. Your insurance company has checked thousands of accidents and knows what you should do. And be sure you take care of any injured people and help the other fellow if he needs it! The Independent Merchants are striving to make the month the Deerfield School district, and are starred in "I Met My Love of May, free of accidents. Will you do your part?
