

Home Show Opens in Chicago Saturday

Featuring models of homes to fit the pocketbooks of families in the lower as well as the higher income brackets, the annual National Home and Garden Exposition will open Saturday (May 14) for a nine day session at the Coliseum. Manager John A. Servas announces that it will be "Chicago's most beautiful home show."

More than 300 workmen are busy night and day putting the finishing touches on the exhibits which will feature new ideas in residential construction, building materials and home equipment. More than 12,000 square feet of the available space in the huge exposition building will be devoted to landscaping and gardening as essential to home beautification.

Two model residences designed for the "average family pocket-book" are being erected near the center of the main exhibition hall. One, of brick construction with four rooms, is designed to meet all requirements of the Chicago building ordinances and costs $3,500 exclusive of the lot. The other is a Cape Cod Cottage built of lumber which may be purchased for less but the builder will not rival the cost until the opening day of the show. It also has four rooms and is designed to occupy space of 28 by 24 feet. The brick house is 26 feet square.

Facades of homes will include one of brick and wood construction that costs between $5,000 and $6,000 exclusive of the lot. Another will feature face brick and still another will show a new material, in-stone.

Exhibitors' booths will give a glimpse of the latest developments in building equipment, furnishings and decorative ideas for the home owner as well as the prospective home builder.

Educational exhibits will be maintained by the Federal Housing Administration, the Metropolitan Housing Council of Chicago, the Chicago Junior Association of Commerce and Mayor Kelly's Keep Chicago Safe Committee.

The safety body is conducting a contest among high school pupils in which they will submit drawings and plans of houses emphasizing some safety feature for the home. The work of the students will be shown at the exhibit of the Keep Chicago Safe Committee which has the cooperation of the Chicago Board of Education and the Chicago Park District.

The Chicago Rapid Transit Company has been assigned space for sample "home gardens" in the contest which the "L" is conducting again this year to encourage "back yard" and "back porch" beautification.

Mr. Servas, the manager, has staged three home shows at the Coliseum. He is a veteran exposition builder. He promoted, produced and managed the Horticultural Exhibition at A Century of Progress in 1933 and 1934 and will design the horticultural display for the World's Fair in New York next year. He also originated and produced the first floor shows held at the Navy Pier, the Chicago Stadium and the Merchandise Mart.

The show will open at 10 a.m. Saturday (May 14) with a formal dedicatory program at 2 p.m. in which representatives of the city, state and F.H.A. will participate. The doors will be open daily including Sundays from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m., through May 22nd.

Tom R. Wyles New Chief Civilian Aide to Secretary of War

Tom R. Wyles, president of the Military Training Camps Association, has been designated Chief Civilian Aide to the Secretary of War, with commission effective as of April 28, 1938, it was announced today at the national headquarters of the association, 6 North Michigan avenue, Chicago.

Mr. Wyles was elected president of the association at a meeting of the executive committee held in the Chicago club on April 8, but pending formal action in Washington, no announcement was made at the time. The new president and Chief Civilian Aide succeeds Charles B. Pike, who becomes Honorary President. Wyles had been national secretary.

The Military Training Camps Association is the civilian agency cooperating with the War Department in fostering the voluntary training of civilians. Since 1921 more than 500,000 American boys and young men have experienced training at Citizens Military Training Camps during the summer.

This year the camps open July 7 and continue until August 5. Illinois' quota is 2,205 and Cook county's 693. A campaign to enroll the county's quota has been in progress for the past three weeks, and already the required number has been booked, according to Jevne Haugan, chairman of the Cook County Committee.

Alumnae Entertain Theta Seniors at Party Wednesday

Following a tradition of many years' standing, Evanston and North Shore Alumnae of Kappa Alpha Theta will entertain the Theta seniors who will be graduated in June from Northwestern university. The party will be a luncheon on Wednesday, May 18, at 1 o'clock, at the home of Miss Helen Sargent, 1711 Hinman avenue, Evanston.

At 12 o'clock, preceding the luncheon, the annual business meeting of Tau Association of Kappa Alpha Theta will be held at Miss Sargent's home. Mrs. Donald E. Nichols of Highland Park, president of the association, whose officers from the Theta house board will preside and call for reports by Mrs. Roland C. Rehm and Mrs. R. C. Harren, treasurer, and by the chairman of the house committee, Mrs. Irvin Fairchild.

Walther League Rally Here Sunday

For more than a decade the Walther League, a Lutheran young people's organization, has been working under the direct recognition and endorsement of the Missouri Synod. This international organization is divided into districts, zones and local societies.

Highland Park leaguers, who compose one of the ten local societies of the North Shore zone, will act as hosts for the spring rally to be held on Sunday, May 18. The business session will be held at the Lincoln school at 3:30 p.m. New officers will be elected for the coming term at this rally. After the supper, a special program has been planned for the evening by the Highland Park leaguers of the Redeemer Lutheran church.

The emblem of the Walther League is a ten pointed star. The ten points signify the ten objects of the Walther League, which are (4) loyalty to church, (2) Bible study, (3) Christian Service, (4) travelers' welfare, (5) mission study, (6) fellowship, (7) charity, (8) loyalty to home, (9) leadership training, (10) organized unity.

Kitchen Shower for Deerfield Church

The Woman's Association of the Deerfield Presbyterian church will hold a kitchen shower for the church on Thursday, May 19, at 2 p.m. Mrs. Wendall Goodpasture, who is in charge of the shower, has suggested that gifts of hand towels, dish towels, kettles and cutlery be predominately green and ivory. Mrs. William Wing is chairman of the kitchen improvement committee and a fund has been started for the modernization of the kitchen equipment and rearrangement of the room to facilitate the serving and preparing of dinners and lunches.

A musical program is to be presented by Miss Frances Biederstadt and tea will be served. This is the last meeting until fall. Mrs. Milton O. Olson is president of the Association.
