

JOAN WALKER WEDS SATURDAY

The marriage of Miss Joan Hubbard Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Finley Walker and Jackson Anthony Wilcox, son of Mr. Mrs. George W. Wilcox of Benton Harbor will take place Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock at Exmoor Country Club. The service will be read by the Rev. Louis W. Sherwin of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church and the Rev. John Hues of St. Mathews Church, Evanston. A reception will follow the ceremony. Miss Marion Bard entertained at a luncheon Friday for the bride and Sunday a supper and treasure hunt was given by Mr. and Mrs. Berford Beck who will be an usher and bridesmaid. Tuesday evening, the ushers gave a dinner dance at the Drake Hotel and last evening Miss Carola Kellner, who is the maid of honor, gave the spinster dinner in her home. Mr. Wilcox gave his bachelor dinner last evening also, at the Chicago Athletic Club. Tonight (Thursday) Miss Isabelle Tennant is giving a cocktail party at her home followed by a picnic supper to be given by Miss Frances Kelly. The bridal dinner is to be given Friday evening by the bride's parents.

CHILDHOOD FRIENDS ARE ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Crafts Watson have announced the engagement of their daughter, Margi Ann, to James Marvin Ewell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cady Ewell of Ravinia. The betrothal was made known at a lovely garden tea held last Saturday at the home of the Watsons.

The parents of the young people have been close friends for many years, while Margi and her fiancée have known each other ever since they attended the Ravinia school together.

One hundred and fifty guests were served a buffet supper, the table attractively set with a lace covering and lovely yellow and white flowers forming a center piece.

Miss Watson and Mr. Ewell plan to be married in September. Miss Watson will be graduated in June from the Art Institute of which her father is the membership lecturer. Mr. Ewell was graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology last June.

BRINKMAN-BUTTERWORTH NUPTIALS

The Collegiate Presbyterian church at Ames was the scene Saturday evening, April 30, for the beautiful wedding ceremony which united in marriage Miss Stella Mae Brinkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Brinkman of Rolfe, Ia., to Dr. J. A. Butterworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Butterworth of this city. Nuptial vows were taken before an altar banked with a profusion of white snapdragons and Easter lilies in baskets, palms, and ferns. Tall ivory tapers in wrought iron candleholders and one brass one on the altar furnished light for the reading of the double ring service by the Rev. Walter Barlow, pastor of the church. More than 800 relatives, sorority and fraternity members and friends were present.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father was charming in a gown of white lace and net over taffeta. The gown was fashioned with a fitted basque bodice of lace with low waistline and full net skirt. She wore white lace gloves and her long tulle veil was fastened at the head with gardenias and lilies of the valley. She carried a modernistic bride's bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias.

Miss Mary Beth Brinkman, youngest sister of the bride was maid of honor. There were six bridesmaids.

Charles Foreman of Florida served the groom as best man.

A reception was held at Gamma Phi Beta sorority house after the ceremony. In the receiving line with the bride party were Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Brinkman and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Butterworth.

Among the relatives from a distance attending the wedding was the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Nellie Reeve of Lancaster, England.

From England comes the news that Mr. and Mrs. Allan Crawford-Price (Helen Jeffries) who were married here last winter, have leased one of England's historic literary houses, Kingsley house at Harrow, the birthplace of Charles Kingsley. Mrs. Price's sister, Miss Virginia the poet.

Jeffries, and their father, Robert M. Jeffries, are now traveling in the southwest. They will return in time for Miss Jeffries to be a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Jane Hart to John H. Harmon, Jr., on May 21.

Miss Mae Siljstrom who underwent a major operation at the Highland Park hospital, more than ten days ago, is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Ross of Wildwood lane and son Bob will spend the summer in Europe. Bob will not be able to visit Ravinia this summer as he sails just as soon as he finishes his freshman year at Princeton, and will return just in time to resume his studies in the fall.

Mrs. Catherine Andersen, widow of the late Nels P. Andersen of Evanston and mother of Mrs. Robert R. McArdle of this city, died last week Tuesday at St. Francis hospital.

Miss Joan Christ and Miss Prunner, graduates of the Highland Park High school are graduating from St. Francis hospital in Freeport, Ill., June 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Duffy of Windsor road are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter born Wednesday, May 11 at the Highland Park hospital.

See Big Building Project for Fort

Improvements at Fort Sheridan totalling $2,000,000 were recommended today by the war department to the federal emergency administrator of public works.

The proposed projects at the military reservation include the construction and repair of barracks, 16 sets of quarters for non-commissioned officers, a new hospital, and a school building for bakers and cooks.

According to First Lieut. J. M. Churchill Jr., publicity officer, no information has been received relative to when work on the Fort Sheridan improvements will commence.

The program has been designed by the war department to revamp its permanent structures and facilities, while at the same time to provide relief for unemployment, especially among the building trades.

Mrs. Emma's Pupils in Recital Friday

The pupils of Mrs. J. E. Emma's School of the Dance will present their eighth annual recital on Friday night, May 13. The increasing popularity of the school has been phenomenal and the recital is planned as the finest ever produced by Mrs. Emma.

Preceding and following the recital will be single showings of "Wide Open Faces" in which Joe E. Brown again struts his stuff as one of the screen's leading comedians.

"A Slight Case of Murder" is most notable for its featuring of Edward G. Robinson in a comedy role. A satire on modern society and the underworld, this picture carries a sly, and at times excruciating, humor. In featured roles are Jane Bryan, Allen Jenkins, Edward Brophy, Ruth Donnelly, Bobby Jordan, and John Litel. It will play at the Deerpath on Saturday, May 14.

Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, the Ritz Brothers, Adolphe Menjou, Andrea Leeds, Kenny Baker, and many others are featured in "The Goldwyn Follies," named recently by "Life" magazine as a "picture of the week." This extravaganza has everything that a really super-spectacle should have, including plenty of fast and delightful music and comedy by the leading artists in those fields. Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday.

"Tovarich," acclaimed as an outstanding stage production and equally great as a screen story, stars Charles Boyer and Claudette Colbert in the cinematic version. Basil Rathbone and Anita Louise are also featured in this story of peninsular Russians in control of 40 billions of francs in Paris. It is superbly presented and has enjoyed great popularity. "Tovarich" comes to Lake Forest on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Corno Game Friday

The Pythians Sisters of Highwood will hold a corno game, Friday evening, May 13th at 8:30 o'clock in the Highwood City hall. An invitation is extended the public to attend.

You'll Like Stuart's... Who Is The STUART LIQUOR COMPANY? In opening a new retail store enterprise in Lake Forest, we feel residents of the Highland Park area will want to know who we are. Our concern first opened its doors to retail business in a small store located on Howard street in Chicago in 1934. Believing that their customers deserved their money's worth, this concern sold quality goods at most moderate prices. They insisted that their customers be satisfied—or they gave their money back. Stuart's customers liked this policy. They liked the merchandise offered them. They not only bought from Stuart—they recommended our products and service to their friends. So confident were Stuart's customers of our ability to serve them—serve them well—that we opened a second store. That was in 1936. Increasing trade soon again made necessary a third store in 1937. In a wide area of Chicago's North Side thousands of customers came to look upon us as their unfailing source of supply for quality beverages. Now to serve Highland Park and the upper North Shore better the fourth Stuart Liquor Company Store will open soon at 281 Deerpath in Lake Forest. Through this store our patrons of Glencoe, Highland Park, Lake Forest and surrounding territory will be served. It will be just the kind of store that our customers would want it to be. It will be the largest store of its kind on the North Shore dealing exclusively in Spirits, Wines and Beers of impeccable quality. Quality merchandise selling at bottom prices! Your satisfaction guaranteed! Opening day at Stuart's in Lake Forest is near! You will find special opening day bargains! And you will find every day that "it's wise to buy liquors at Stuart's."
