POPPY DAY, MAY TWENTY-THIRD

Next Monday, May 23rd, has been designated "Poppy Day" in Highland Park, Highwood and Deerfield. On that day the citizens of these communities are urged to honor the war dead by wearing the Memorial Poppy.

THE NEED FOR UNITY

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN National Chairman Sentinels of the Republic

In America we observe many anniversaries, commemorating important dates in our history. Many others we forget. Among the latter is included May 14. Yet that day is well worth recalling. It was the date set early in the year 1787 for the opening of the Convention that wrote our Federal Constitution.

Holy Name Society Plans Dance May 27 In W. Lake Forest

The Holy Name society of St. Patrick's church, Everett, will sponsor a dance, Friday evening, May 27, at St. Patrick's hall, W. Lake Forest. This will be the first dance given by the newly organized group of men and every effort is being put forth to make it a success.

George Rich Joins Highwood Force

According to an announcement made early this week by Chief John De Smidt of the Highwood police force, George Rich, 39, former relief policeman, has been assigned to the motorcycle patrol on the day shift. The Highwood force now numbers six, consisting of a chief of police, city marshal and four patrolmen.

Fish Reported Stolen From Pool Merely In Hiding

Mrs. Albert Dughi, 343 Prairie avenue, became alarmed last week when 200 goldfish in her pool could not be found. Fearing they had been stolen, she notified the police. Apparently the cool weather had caused the fish to go to the bottom of the pool for warmth and were feeding on the spawn.

Highwood Men Hurt In Truck Crash

Two Highwood men were injured last Thursday afternoon when the garbage truck in which they were parked along Prairie avenue was struck in the rear by a Mutual Coal company truck driven east on Prairie avenue, by William Zahnle of East street. Ralph Baker, 27, of 283 Central avenue, suffered a concussion of his forehead and arm and leg bruises.

Ask State Action Against 2 Drivers

A coroner's jury has recommended that State's Attorney Charles E. Mason take appropriate action against two automobile drivers who were allegedly intoxicated when their cars collided near the Great Lakes naval training station on April 4, killing James B. Belmonti, 32, of Highwood. At the inquest into Belmonti's death Saturday, the jury suggested that the state's attorney investigate the charges against Leroy Hawkins, of Waukegan, and Peno Favelli, of Highwood, drivers of the two cars.
