Two new members will contribute to the program. Mrs. C. L. Felske, a talented pianist, will give two groups.

Mrs. Kenneth C. Berry, who was formerly on the faculty at Stansstead college at Quebec, will give the following:

"Aria from Don Carlo" Verdi
Miss Etiles Wilder will be at the piano.

The String Quintette from the Highland Park High school will play Two Gavottes by Bach. Incidentally these are the numbers they are playing at Elkhart, Ind., Thursday of this week.

The quintet is composed of Rosemary Holm, Peggy Bingham, Gale Bray, Carroll Binder and Andrew Jacobs.

"Hermit's House" to Be Given 2 Days At Redeemer Church

On Thursday and Friday evenings, May 19 and 20, at 8 p.m., the Waltham League of the Redeemer Lutheran church will present a mystery play in three acts at the assembly hall of the church.

A May day, a picnic, stolen lilies, a storm-refuge in a haunted house, of such things is a day made up for the four young people of our play. Once in the "Hermit's House" they decide to wait for the storm to abate and to have a snack of supper. Not for long though, are they unmolested. The place has for some time been the cache for the spoils of a pair of bandits. Incidentally, it is the secret house of a mysterious character as has ever been written into an amateur play. Things move fast, persons disappear and reappear, golden treasure is buffeted about like nobody's business and all the while an eerie, adventuresome spine-chilling story is unfolding to the ultimate delight of any type audience.

The cast:

Katherine Kirby, "Kits," a young girl... Loretta Brandt
Lynda Holmes, from "Louaville," Kits' friend... Gloria Cole

Thodore Kirby, president of the Armistion Security Bank, Kits' mother... Esther Lange
Theresa Kirby, a spinster, Kits' aunt... Carol Lawrents
The Hermit... Marion Lawrents
Bill Cawthorne, Gene Douglas-Falk...
Officer Terence Muldoon, of the Highway...
Police... Hugo Schneider
Marshal Creeman... Ray Reckenwald
Deputy... Robert Schneider
The Tall Bandit... Frank Lichtwail
Shorty... Ray Grossman
