BANNOCKBURN SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT JUNE 8

There will be three members of the 1938 class of the Bannockburn Grammar school to receive diplomas at their commencement exercises on Wednesday evening, June 8. They are Kay Seese, Gloria Greer, and Margot Wilde.

Friday, June 3, is the annual Field Day and the school picnic is scheduled for Thursday, June 9. Mrs. Theo Hamill is principal and Mrs. Mary E. McDevitt, the upper grade teacher. The spring cantata was held on May 20.

Mrs. L. T. Hayner and daughter, Susan, of Washington, D. C., arrived in Deerfield on Tuesday to spend the summer with Mrs. Hayner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fry of Westgate road.

Olive Frantz, Deerfield, will be among the 108 seniors at North Central college, here, who will receive degrees in the annual commencement exercises on June 6. She will receive her bachelor of arts degree from Dr. E. E. Rall, president of North Central. During her years at North Central she majored in commerce and social science.

She is a member of Pi Gamma Mu, national social science honorary society, and has received the much-coveted commerce club key for outstanding scholarship in that field. She is also a participant in women's athletics.

Miss Frantz has been appointed assistant registrar of North Central college where she will take up her work upon graduation. For the past two years she has been a student assistant in the registrar's office of the college.

Dr. Clarence Tucker Craig, professor of New Testament languages and literature at Oberlin college, Oberlin, O., will be the commencement speaker.

Vacation School at Bethany Open June 20

The Bethany Evangelical church will again maintain a Daily Vacation Bible school, which will open Monday, June 20, at 9:15 a.m. All children beginning with the age of 3, not enrolled elsewhere, are invited to attend. No enrollment fee will be charged, but free will offerings will be received to help defray the expenses.

3 Highland Parkers Among 47 Graduates at L. F. College

Three residents of Highland Park are among the 47 members of the graduating class of Lake Forest college to receive degrees at commencement exercises June 11. They are Catherine Craig, 608 Laurel avenue; Edward Dennett, 615 Homewood avenue; Robert Grant, 610 Forest avenue. David Stryker, 710 Orchard, Deerfield, is also among the graduates.

Dr. Preston Bradley, pastor of the People's church of Chicago, will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Bradley is well known to students of Lake Forest college through his talks in chapel and his Sunday morning radio broadcasts from the People's church.

In addition to his work as a minister, Dr. Bradley is a member of the board of directors of Chicago Public library and a life member of the Art Institute of Chicago. He has written several books and is editor of Liberal magazine.

Speaking at baccalaureate services of the college, June 5, will be Dr. R. Lincoln Long, an alumnus of Lake Forest college in the class of 1912, and for the last 25 years pastor of Collingwood avenue Presbyterian church in Toledo, O. Dr. Long was recently elected to membership on the board of trustees of Wooster college, Wooster, O., and in spite of an active participation in church and academic affairs, has found time to travel around the world.

Presbyterian Home Annual Reception to Be Held June 9

The Presbyterian Home, 3200 Grant street, Evanston, Ill., will hold its annual reception on Thursday, June 9, 1938, with "Tea" from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The usual sale of articles made by members of the home will be held at this time, and guests will be given an opportunity to visit residents and to inspect the building and grounds.

Arrangements for transportation may be made by calling Mrs. M. O. Olson, president, Presbyterian Women's association (phone Deerfield 49-R) or Mrs. W. A. Tennemann, the Presbyterian Home Auxiliary chairman, (phone Deerfield 446).

Summer Party at Woman's Club to Be Gala Affair

The membership of the Highland Park Woman's Club is responding enthusiastically to the invitations to its summer party in the attractive Club House Tuesday afternoon, June 7, at 1:30. The promise of a delicious dessert, an interesting game of bridge, a delightful time in the friendly atmosphere of the club, and the possibility of winning a charming table prize or even one of the two door prizes at an especially small cost, has appealed to the socially minded members of the club.

Under the able chairmanship of Mrs. Frank Sturtevant, and Mrs. Emory Curtis, chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of the Social Committee of the Club, the following women are actively engaged in making a success of this first venture of the 1938-39 club year. Working with Mrs. Lyle Maley, chairman of the Telephone committee, are Mesdames A. L. Berg, John Oliver, Peter Weber, Robert Timm, Wilford Shipnes, Harry Mills, Paul Udell, John Brigham, Frank Roman, Wells King, Frank Blake, Harry Earhart, A. M. Allison and Whit Schultz. In charge of Reservations are Mrs. Leonard Keaster, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Armand McPhee and Mrs. John O'Connell, in Highland Park, and Mrs. Sturtevant in Deerfield. Arranging the artistic tables are the chairman, Mrs. George Strecker, and Mrs. John Oliver, Mrs. John Brigham, Mrs. Poyntz Murray, Mrs. Emory Curtis and Mrs. Frank Blake.

In charge of donations is Mrs. John O'Connell, and the following board members and other friends are donating cakes and other items: Mesdames Shipnes, McPhee, Oliver, Keaster, Maley, Raff, O'Connell, Wecker Lundin, Curtis, Gooder, Strefker, Murray, Murfey, Jones, Wallach, Schultz, Tom Leaming, Berg, Moran, Wagner, Kaatz, Roman, Sanders, Pertz, Herbert Smith, Carl Anderson, Sturtevant and Charles Mason.

Taking care of the publicity are Mrs. Griffin Wells Baker and Mrs. Arthur Raff, while the cashiers are Mrs. Harry Pertz and Mrs. Chas. Mason. Mrs. Frank Paisley and Mrs. Leonard Keaster will take the tickets given out by the cashiers, leaving a stub with a number which may be one of the lucky ones to draw the door prizes. At the tea and coffee tables will be this year's president, Mrs. Herbert Smith, and her predecessor in office, Mrs. Edwin T. R. Murfey. In charge of the refreshments will be Mrs. Armand McPhee, and others who are helping to make this an outstanding social event are Mrs. Adolf Lundin, Mrs. C. E. Pfister, Mrs. Walter Wecker, Mrs. Seth Gooder, and Mrs. Arthur Kaatz.

No matter what the weather may be on June 7th, within the Club House warmth, sunshine and jollity will reign.

Deerfield C. of C. Views Travelogue

Earl Hurt of the Public Service Co. showed travel movies of California, the Grand Canyon, Yosemite Valley, and other western beauty spots at the regular monthly supper meeting of the Deerfield Chamber of Commerce last Thursday evening at Shugrue's restaurant.

At the business meeting there was a discussion of the Village Board's plans for Deerfield Days on July 22 and 23. The Chamber of Commerce will assist and all other organizations of the village will be asked to lend a hand. Announcement was made of the meeting on May 31 when the village trustees were meeting for furthering plans for the village benefit.

Nothing more has been done about the objections to parallel parking, although these men are still advocating the change.

Mothers Club Holds Annual Dinner June 14
