Linden avenue, to Henry Haley Hixon, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haley Hixon, of Chicago, will take place Friday, June 17, at the Presbyterian church with Rev. Louis W. Sherwin reading the nuptials at 8:30 in the evening. The bride will be attired in a gown of white net with a short face veil trimmed with gardenias and lily of the valley of which her bouquet will also be made. The maid of honor, Miss Agnes Wright, will be dressed in a deep blue gown of net and will carry yellow garden flowers. The Misses Nan Kretschmer, Margaret Young, Hazel Hixon and Constance Ann Schuler, the bridesmaids, will wear blue net gowns and will carry pink garden flowers. The ushers will be Charles Yegge, John Sample, Louis Schultz, Jr., and Robert Cunningham. The groom will have as his attendant Harding Macdonia. After the wedding there will be a reception at Exmoor Country Club. The young couple will live in Evanston after a month's honeymoon in Canada and the West Coast.

Among the parties given for Miss Schultz was a tea given by Mrs. Robert Jeffries and daughter, Virginia, on Wednesday and a dinner dance given at the Drake hotel Wednesday evening by Miss Agnes Wright and Miss Hazel Hixon. Mr. and Mrs. Schultz will entertain the bridal party at dinner at Exmoor this evening (Thursday).

DELHAYE-KOEPKE WEDDING

At 8:00 o'clock Saturday evening, June 11, Miss Joy Delhaye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Delhaye, became the bride of Mr. Harold Koepke, son of Mrs. George Koepke of Whitewater, Wisconsin. The bride was attired in white organza over satin, with a short veil of tulle and carried a bouquet of orchids and roses. She was attended by Miss Phyllis Delhaye and Miss Lydia Koepke, bridesmaids, Mrs. Leslie Delhaye, matron of honor, and little Joan Delhaye as flower girl. They all wore organza in pastel shades, with hats made of flowers and carried beautiful bouquets. Mr. Koepke was attended by Mr. Roy Delhaye as best man. Two selections were very beautifully sung by Miss Mary Desmond and Mrs. Rink, Mr. Harry Eichler accompanying them. The wedding took place in the Redeemer Lutheran church, the Rev. Lehman of Libertyville officiating.

After a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Koepke left for a wedding trip in the East. They will reside at Normal, Illinois, after September 1st when Mr. Koepke will resume his duties as assistant professor at the Illinois State Normal University.

After a honeymoon abroad Mr. Parish and his bride will be at home in Houston about mid-August.

BEVERLY BEYERS WEDS JAMES MOONEY

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beyers announced the marriage of their daughter, Beverly to James Joseph Mooney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mooney, of Highland Park, at a reception Saturday evening, June 11, at the Sunset Valley Golf club, Highland Park.

Only the immediate families and a few friends witnessed the simple ceremony performed by Father Holly in his study where the bride was attended by her sister, Shirley, and a cousin, Mary Ellen O'Brien of Chicago, and the groom by Howard F. Copp of Highland Park and Monty Joyce of Wilmette. The bride wore white marquisette with a short veil, while her attendants were in pink and turquoise. All wore lace mitts and carried old-fashioned bouquets.

About 125 guests gathered later at the Sunset Valley Golf club which was originally the home of the groom's great-grandparents, Daniel Mooney and Mary McAdams who settled in Deerfield county in 1844.

Entertainment in the form of singing, tap-dancing and square dancing was provided by the guests themselves, while a four piece orchestra made up of the couple's young friends played for dancing.

The bride and groom are now on a motor trip through Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Canada after which they will reside on Ridge road, Highland Park.
