Highwood Recreation Send Barn Dance Group To Maywood

Considered one of the best square dancing groups in the district. A group of Oak Terrace school children will leave for Maywood Saturday, June 25, to represent Lake county at a district wide exhibit given there as part of the dedication exercises to a half a million dollar field house.

This group, which is being sent to Maywood by the Recreation project, first learned square dancing last fall in the Recreation project square dance classes under the direction of Guy Colby of WLS. The class consisted of 100 boys and girls and met weekly.

The following boys and girls make up the group: Doris Lyle, caller; Francis Tondi, banjo player; Edward Bellei, harmonica player; Elmer Bertucci, Ruth and June McCabe, Adolph Rosaline, Benny Mordini, Helen Cheradini, Louis Crovetto and Elsie Nanni are the dancers.

Highwood Boosters Blank Half Day 7-0

The powerful Highwood Boosters, leaders in the Illinois State Amateur league, kept right on going last Sunday by scoring their seventh straight victory of the season while blanking the Vernon A. C. of Half Day by a score of 7-0 at the Boosters field before a crowd of several hundred.

This was Harry Skidmore's second consecutive victory and shutout of the season as a Boosters mound man. Allowing 3 scattered hits while striking out 13 he also shared the hitting attack with Pasquesi and Lenzini by getting two safeties out of four trips to the plate.

Next Sunday, June 26, the Highwood club is expected to meet plenty of trouble when they face the strong Y.M.C. aggregation from Libertyville at the Highwood field. Time 2:30 p.m.

The Boosters will also engage themselves next Wednesday in a night game starting at 6:15 p.m. against the colorful Artistic Cleaners of Waukegan, who have scored victories over such clubs as the Stanzak Bros., Grayslake, Zion A.C., North Chicago and many others.
