MILLER-HAWTHORNE WEDDING

Miss Louise Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of 623 Homewood avenue, will become the bride of Mr. Clarence Hawthorne of Waukegan, on Saturday at 8 p.m. A beautiful ceremony has been planned and will take place at the Bethany Evangelical church. Any interested friends are invited to the ceremony. The Reverend H. F. Siemsen, the pastor, will read the single ring ceremony. The bride will be given in marriage by her father, Mr. Miller.

The bride has chosen Miss Ethel Mobs to be her maid of honor. Miss Janet Greul, Miss Verna Mae White and Miss Mildred Wendt will serve as bridesmaids.

A brother of the bride, Mr. Merle Miller will attend Mr. Hawthorne as best man. Mr. Wallace Mann, Mr. Douglas Frank and Mr. Robert White will act as ushers.

A reception will take place in the social rooms of the church following the ceremony.

MARY WOOD'S WEDDING IS LOVELY AFFAIR

Hundreds of Easter lilies flanked the altar and naive of Trinity church, to form a most beautiful setting for the marriage of Miss Mary Stoval Wood, youngest daughter of Gen. and Mrs. Robert E. Wood, and William Stamps Farish, Jr., which took place Saturday afternoon at five o'clock. She was escorted to the altar by her father.

Like her three sisters who stood before the same altar to repeat their wedding vows, Miss Wood is a traditional blonde. She wore a white satin gown with sleeves puffed at the shoulder. Its square neck was edged with a vine of seed pearls and the tiara from which her tulle veil billowed was embroidered with pearls in the same design. She carried lilies of the valley.

Her attendants with the exception of the two flower girls were dressed alike in white chiffon and they carried sheaths of lilies. They wore large hats of thin white straw. Mrs. James R. Addington (Sarah Wood) was matron of honor and the bridegroom's sister Miss Martha Farish was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were, Mrs. Edwin E. Tullis and Mrs. Calvin Pentress, Jr., the bride's other two sisters and Mrs. Robert Whitney Wood II, her sister-in-law.

The brides six year old nieces who were flower girls, Mary Elston Tullis and Audrey Pentress, wore Kate Greenway dresses of white organza, and tiny white poke bonnets. Both carried old fashioned bouquets.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip, Mr. Farish and his bride will make their home in Houston, Texas.

BOYNTON-McCLURE WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Margaret C. Boynton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Boynton, and Donald W. McClure, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClure took place Saturday evening at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Boynton at Baileys Harbor, Wis. The services were performed by the Rev. Harold Gruhn and only the immediate relatives were present.

JOHNSON-HAMMOND NUPTIALS, JUNE 30

Several parties are being planned for Miss Katherine Johnson and Mr. Richard Hammond who are being married on June 30. Katherine's aunt and cousin Mrs. Edwin W. Chandler and her daughter Jane of Chicago entertained at a kitchen shower Tuesday evening. Mrs. Phelps Hill and her brother Robert will entertain at a pantry shower-buffet supper Saturday evening. On Sunday evening Miss Johnson's brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Jared Johnson, Jr. will be hosts at a buffet supper at their home in Evanston. Miss Eleanor Austin of DeTamble avenue is entertaining at a personal shower this evening (Thursday). The bridal dinner will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chandler, uncle and aunt of the bride-to-be at their home in Evanston on Wednesday, June 29.

FRANCES ODELL'S WEDDING FRIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Odell of Maple avenue, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter Francis to Brantley Page Chapel, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chappell of Winona, Minn., will take place Friday evening (tomorrow) at the Exmoor Country club. Dr. Herbert McComb Moore, president of Lake Forest college will read the service.

Miss Patricia Odell will serve her sister as maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Anne McCarthy of Minnesota, Margery Adams of Yankton, S. D., and Mary Jane Brotherton of New York and Detroit.

Dwight Chappell of Winona, Minn., will serve the groom as best man and the ushers will be Sidney Larson of St. Louis; William Leonard of Winona, Minn., George Walker of Winona and Richard Samuels of Evanston.

Several pre-nuptial parties have been and are being given for the bride to be. Last Sunday, Miss June Stockwell entertained at a picnic for Miss Odel. Tuesday Mrs. J. L. Tennant and her daughter Isabell, gave a luncheon bridge at their home; Yesterday (Wednesday) Mrs. Francis Norwood Bard and her daughter Marion gave a bathroom shower. Tonight (Thursday) Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Odell are giving the bridal dinner at Exmoor club.

DORIS MASON TO BE MARRIED HERE

The marriage of Miss Doris Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Mason, who moved from Highland Park to Detroit a few months ago, and Dr. William James Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Ball of Charleston, S. C., will take place Saturday, July 9th, at 4 o'clock in Trinity Episcopal church. A reception will follow at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Peter in Lake Forest.

Miss Mason who just completed a four year course at the University of Chicago will have as her only attendant Miss Mary Wilder of Davenport, Iowa. Dr. J. Mace Markey of Chicago will be best man. Osborne Mason, brother of Miss Mason and Philip Danley will be the ushers. Dr. Ball and his bride will make their home in Charleston.

SEVERAL PARTIES FOR MISS McWHINNEY

Miss Helen Francis Daniels entertained at a kitchen shower Wednesday evening, June 15th for Miss Jane McWhinney, whose marriage to Mr. David Henry Davis of Chicago will take place Saturday evening, at Trinity Episcopal church. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Zachary Taylor Davis, the groom's parents entertained at a buffet supper for their son and his bride to be. The bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Andrew McWhinney will give the bridal dinner, Friday evening at their home on Prospect avenue.

LOVELY WEDDING SATURDAY

Bethany Evangelical church was the scene of a wedding Saturday, when Miss Mary Beverly Turriff, daughter of Mrs. Alice Warner Turriff and Mr. Stanley Dubonn were united in marriage. The church was decorated in palms and ferns, with baskets of white flowers and candelabras. The service was read by the Rev. Harvey F. Siemsen, pastor of the church, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Gladys Hawley, organist of Bethany church.

The bride was lovely in a gown of Alencon lace over white slipper satin, with a long train made Redingote style. A finger veil of tulle fell from a wreath of lilies of the valley. Her bouquet was of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Miss Dorothy Funke of Evanston, the bride's maid of honor wore a frock of lily yellow mousseline de soie and matching accessories and carried a bouquet of blue delphinium. The two bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Funke also of Evanston and Miss Madelein McHugh of Oak Park were attired in corn flower blue mousseline de soie with matching accessories and carried bouquets of yellow daisies.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother M. Warner Turriff. Mr. Robert Olson served the groom as best man and the ushers were Messrs. Leighton Phillips of Lake Forest, Paul Huber of Evanston and Curtis Scheunemann and William Holmes, both of Highland Park. A reception followed the service at the home of the brides aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bartel of 100 Clifton ave.

Mrs. A. Higgins and son Ralph of 1048 N. Greenbay road, Highland Park, left Monday for a visit with Mrs. Higgins parents in Bernie, Mo.

Eugene and Alfred Ballard of Ames, Iowa are visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Ballard of 12 Burtis avenue, Highland Park. They plan to stay several weeks.

Mr. A. F. Schlieder and his mother Mrs. A. Schlieder of Buffalo, New York visited Harry Eaton of 1060 N. Greenbay road last weekend. Schlieder was a former roommate of Eaton while at school.

Mrs. Hornsberger, mother of Mrs. P. Miller of Elm street, Highland Park, Tuesday, crushed her finger in a washing machine. She was rushed to the hospital where five stitches were taken.

Miss Jane Kornblith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Kornblith of 628 Woodpath road, received her diploma and degree of Bachelor of Arts on June 20 from Wellesley college in an impressive ceremony at Alumnae hall. Miss Mildred McAfee, president of the college, made the awards at the sixtieth annual commencement exercises. Miss Kornblith has been an active member of her class, taking part in the recent Tree Day activities. She received her degree in the field of psychology. Miss Kornblith prepared for Wellesley at the Deerfield Shields Township High school.
