

Community Service Ends Activities For Summer Season

As you know Community Service of Highland Park (Inc.) conducts community recreation and education during the fall, winter and spring of the year. Its board of directors, thirty in number, supervises the use of Community Service income. This income is spent for recreational purposes.

So that all may know the scope and type of activities that are conducted during the year the following report of activities is presented. To make these activities a success thanks are due to the Adult Education Council, the High school and Grade school boards for their fine cooperation in these community events.

Ravinia Village House Badminton—This is the oldest badminton class in the community. It conducts a yearly tournament, and sends players to championship tournaments. Men and women both play. Gene Kern is the class president and Howard Copp is the director. It met for 90 sessions with 2593 present.

Lincoln School Badminton—A very popular under the leadership of George Ekdahl. Both men and women play. It met for 30 sessions with 655 present.

Braeside School Badminton—Cooperating with the P.T.A. this class played badminton, ping-pong and shuffleboard on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Marion Whittaker was the leader. It met for 30 sessions with 397 present. Class was for men and women.

Night School Badminton—This was one of the newer activities at the High school's night program for adults. Interest in the activity became so great that two nights of play was allotted. Both men and women played. The instructor was George Scheuchenpflug. It met for 29 sessions with 478 present.

Y.W.C.A. Badminton—Thursday afternoon at the "Y" was girls badminton time. The instructor was George Scheuchenpflug. It met 12 times with 241 present.

First Aid Lessons and Talks—First Aid was taught to Boy Scout and Girl Scout classes. Talks were made to civic clubs. Help was given to First Aid Contest work. Forty-five sessions with 1986 present.

Older Boys Basketball—A very popular class for older boys and young men. Met on Monday evenings in the High school gym as a part of the Adult Education program. Ray Cox was the instructor. It met for 19 sessions with 693 present.

Mens Gym and Volleyball class—This class met as a part of the Adult Education program at night school. Conditioning exercises, badminton, basketball and volleyball made up their program. Ray Cox was the instructor. Class met for 18 sessions with 190 present.

Boy Scout Activities—Cooperating with the Boy Scout program in its many activities. Eighteen sessions with 1072 present.

Adult Education program for our community. Talks about its activities. There were 11 sessions with 374 present.

Conferences, Talks and Meetings Concerning Proposed Community House—Much of the directors time was spent towards the completion of the Community House for Highland Park idea. There were 180 sessions with 2385 present.

Song and Party Leadership—Giving help and suggestions for community parties as well as conducting singing. There were 40 sessions totalling 1,072 present.

Occasional events—Here is reported activities as: organizing grade school basketball and softball leagues; help at track meets; help and ribbons for ice carnivals; and many individual events. There were 106 sessions with 10,985 present.

Grand total—Summing up all the above events which were conducted from October 1, 1937, to June 1, 1938, we find that the grand total of sessions was 628 and the total number present was 24,863.

Highwood Square Dance Troupe Wins Praise In Maywood

Performing once in the afternoon and twice in the evening the Highwood Recreation's Square dance group won the hearts of all who attended the Recreation Exhibit at Maywood with their performance. The exhibit was held by the Recreation Projects of the Chicago area as part of the dedication exercises for the half million dollar field house.

This group represented Lake county at the exhibit and is considered by project leaders to be one of the best groups of its kind in the northern part of the state. The following grade school people constitute the group: Doris Lytle, caller; Frank Tonci, banjo player; Edward Bellei, harmonica player; Elmer Bertucci, June and Ruth MacCabe; Adolph Rosalije, Benny Mordini, Helen Cheradini, Louis Crovetti and Elsie Hanni are the dancers.

These people were accompanied to Maywood by Mrs. Raymond Suzzi, Mrs. Lyle and Mrs. MacCabe.

Lingering Illness Claims J. P. Hickey

John P. Hickey, aged 64, 326 N. St. Johns avenue, died Thursday at the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, following a lingering illness.

Mr. Hickey was born in Highland Park Feb. 1, 1874, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hickey, pioneer residents of this vicinity. His mother, who was Anne White, was the first teacher in these parts, teaching at the Port Clinton school in the north end of this city and the old log cabin school, which was located about on the present site of the Lincoln school. The old home-stand of the Hickey family was on Prairie avenue, their orchard being located where the Skokie Valley line of the North Shore road now stands. Here he received his early training and for many years after he grew to manhood, conducted a dairy farm.

For a number of years he served as bookkeeper for Santi Bros. Dairy and previous to his connection with the firm was employed by the Bowman Dairy company.

He was a charter member of the Catholic Foresters.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from the Immaculate Conception church. Father Musik of LaGrange, nephew of the deceased, said mass at the church, while Father James Garrity of Lost Nation, Ia., conducted the service at the grave. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery in Lake Forest.

Mr. Hickey is survived by his wife Anna and three children, John, Charlotte and Mary and one sister, Mrs. Vencil Muzik.

Highwood Boosters in Championship Game with St. Joe, July 3

The colorful, undefeated Highwood Boosters, leaders in the Illinois State Amateur league, next Sunday, July 3, will complete their first round when they meet the strong second place St. Joe's of North Chicago. A victory for the Boosters would leave them undefeated while a loss would tie them for second place honors. This game will be played at the Highwood field at 2:30 p.m.

One of the biggest crowds of the season is expected to witness this game. Bruno Somenzi, sensational young moundman for the Boosters, will do the pitching for Highwood, while "Whitey" Morrissey, brilliant southpaw chucker, will do the hurling for the North Chicago team.

On Monday, July 4th, the Highwood club will clash with one of the best colored professional baseball teams in the United States when they meet the Chicago Union Giants, powerhouse crack Negro nine at 2:30 p.m. at the Boosters field.

It will be the outstanding baseball performance that was ever staged in northern Illinois. This colored aggregation has been organized for the past 50 years and has turned to the baseball highlights such as baseball stars as "Satchel" Paige, Wells, "Mule" Suttles and many others.

Their past record shows they have defeated such clubs as the Chicago Mills, Kansas City Monarch, Chicago Spencer Coal, Collegians of Mississippi and many others.

The community is cordially invited to attend. Help this baseball show to be a success.

LAWRENCE TIBBETT GETS THE TUNE

This famous singer says:

"I read many magazines, but I cannot read them all. I know many melodies but cannot learn all the orchestrations. So to get the melody of what is going on in our remarkable country, I turn to The Reader's Digest. It gives me the tune. And that tune is as stirring as The Star Spangled Banner."

The Reader's Digest, that charming pocket-size periodical, quickly solves your reading problems. Each month it presents in 136 double column pages the most worthwhile reading available, condensed from more than 500 periodicals. You'll find that every one of the 35 interesting articles it presents, adds materially to your store of knowledge. If you do not already know The Reader's Digest, you may have a sample copy free, through a special arrangement made with this paper. Address your request to Dept. X,

The Reader's Digest, Pleasantville, N.Y.
