DEERFIELD LOCAL Farmer-Loveton Wedding

The lovely garden on the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Farmer in Bannockburn will be the setting for the wedding of their daughter, Virginia, to Mr. John Woodrow Loveton of New York, on Monday afternoon, July 18, at four o'clock. The bride will wear white satin and chantilly lace. Her tulle veil will have orange blossoms in a halo effect. Miss Dicksey Farmer will be her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Jane and Miss Kathleen Calkins, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Calkins of Bannockburn. All three will wear white marquisette. Miss Dicksey will wear a yellow horse-hair hat and matching yellow shoes and will carry a garden bouquet of blue flowers. The Misses Calkins will have hats and shoes of blue and garden bouquets of yellow flowers. The groom, the son of Erwin A. Loveton of New York, will be served by Carl Frank of New York, as best man. The ushers are Kenneth Delmar of New York and Frederick Gottlieb of Wauwatosa, Wis.

Mitchell-Rogers Nuptials

The beautiful interior of St. Elizabeth's Church at Glencoe, decorated with garden flowers, made a lovely setting for the marriage service of Wharton Locke Rogers and Suzanne Mitchell at four o'clock on Saturday, July 9th. The entire bridal party was dressed in white; the bridesmaids carried bouquets of garden flowers and the ceremony was conducted by Rev. Richard C. Talbot, Jr.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rogers of Wilmette and the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rennie Mitchell, who now live in Highland Park, were residents of Glencoe for many years.

A large gathering of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony and the immediate families were entertained at a wedding supper at the Glencoe residence of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Matthews, which was loaned for the occasion.

The bride was attended by her sister, Margery, and the bridegroom's sister, Doris. Philip Rogers acted as his brother's best man and two other brothers, Robert and Russell, and the bride's brother, James, were the ushers.

Mr. James R. Preston of Glencoe, an old friend of the Mitchell family, presided at the new electric organ which has just been installed in the church and which was made use of at a service for the first time.

Moving pictures taken by Mr. Ralph A. Hofbauer, a cousin of the bride, will be an interesting souvenir of a pretty summer wedding.

The bride and groom will make their home in Evanston.

This Summer you can cook in COOL, CLEAN COMFORT

WITH A MODERN ELECTRIC RANGE

—and give your family the meals they enjoy most!

FREE WIRING* . . .

For a limited time only, when you purchase a modern Electric Range at a Public Service store or your neighborhood dealer. This offer also applies when you install a new Automatic Electric Water Heater.

*There are very few locations and types of installations where this free wiring cannot be offered. Ask at your Public Service store or nearest appliance dealer. The chances are, it is available to you.

Many other electric range and water heater dealers are making liberal offers, including free wiring.

What a difference a modern electric range makes in meal-getting on hot summer days. Because the oven is heavily insulated, oven heat is kept in the oven—out of the kitchen—your kitchen will be far more comfortable to work in. It's so easy to clean up afterwards, too, because the gleaming porcelain enamel surfaces sparkle again after just a "going over" with a damp cloth. But best of all, you can do speed cooking with low operating costs—and get perfect results that mean delicious meals for your family every day.

There are so many beautiful new 1938 electric ranges from which to choose! There are even a few new 1937 ranges we were fortunate enough to get from the manufacturers, so that we can sell them at big reductions over their original price.

Read the special FREE WIRING* offer, but remember, it is for a limited time only! . . . and the new 1937 models at special bargain prices are going fast. Hot days are just around the corner, too. So act at once! Come in today and choose the range that suits your budget—a modern electric range that promises you cooking with cool, clean comfort this summer.
