Harry W. Hart, director of Camp Mishi Mokwa, has innovated the Western Ranch idea in his camp this year and to give the campers a better idea of what the West really is, he has imported a professional Rodeo company, the "T Diamond T" outfit to present their two hour show of broncho riding, wild steer bareback riding, plain and fancy roping, rope spinning, and many other events typical of the West at Roundup time. The Mishi Mokwa campers will augment the exhibition on Saturday afternoon only. They will "go on" between the performances of the adult, professional.

NOTICE

You men have to be more particular about your appearance.

JUST A QUESTION FOR YOU

Are you satisfied how your suit is pressed? Of course not, if it is not the correct way. *

We, as cloth stylists, naturally know the fine points of a garment. We know the foundation, correct lines, and individuality of a garment; therefore, we are the ones that know how to press a suit the correct way. Our experience in tailoring naturally is something that we are proud of and make all efforts to give the garment the individual touch when pressed by us. For our service you pay less than any place else for inferior work.
