

Issue Proclamation For Highwood Days

Mayor Charles Portilla of Highwood has issued a proclamation officially declaring "Highwood Days" from Tuesday, August 2, through Saturday, August 6. A carnival is being staged by the Highwood Civic Improvement Association celebrating this event, and all Highwood merchants are displaying the American Flag this week in honor of the occasion.

Federal Recreation Sponsors Horseshoe Tourney Next Week

The clang of horseshoes will be heard more than ever before Wednesday through Friday of next week on the Oak Terrace grounds. The reason—one of the largest horseshoe tournaments ever to take place in Highwood. Planned and sponsored by the staff of the Federal Recreation project, the tournament is a double elimination with a boy's and a men's division. Judging by the great number of "close" contests throughout the spring and summer, this tournament promises to be one of many excitements for participants as well as spectators. Horseshoe is one of the most popular activities on the grounds with a large participation among men as well as boys.

The horseshoe courts are of the latest model and were carefully constructed by the boys on the grounds under the supervision of staff recreation leaders. Situated under the shade of a group of huge elm trees on the grounds, they provide an ideal battlefield for the shoe throwers.

Any man or boy desiring to participate in the tournament may enter their name with one of the recreation leaders on the Oak Terrace school grounds not later than Friday evening of this week.

N. Y. A. Funds 16% Higher For Next Year

State Director William J. Campbell of the National Youth Administration today announced receipt of an allocation from the President of student aid funds totaling $1,227,952 for the nine months of the 1938-39 academic year in Illinois, an increase of 16 per cent over that made available to the Illinois NYA for the last school year.

NYA aid for needy high school pupils in Illinois totals $556,085, or approximately $62,787 per month for nine months, Mr. Campbell said. College aid, including undergraduate and graduate students, amounts to $671,867 in all, or $74,651 per month.

"Student aid funds are paid to needy youths between the ages of 16 and 24 years, inclusive. For part-time work after class hours," Mr. Campbell explained. A maximum sum of $6 per month is paid to high school students, to be used for essentials such as books, carfare and lunches; undergraduate college students receive an average of $15 per month for part-time work, and graduate students get an average of $30 per month.

"High school pupils to receive the aid are selected by the principals of high schools and student aid work in colleges is obtained from college authorities. School heads designate the types of socially desirable work to be done. High school pupils may work a maximum of twenty hours a week and college students a maximum of thirty hours weekly. The hourly wage paid is based on the prevailing rate in the institution or locality."

In the 1937-38 school year, it was pointed out, 13,451 high school pupils per month and 5,699 undergraduate and graduate college students were aided by the National Youth Administration for Illinois. Approximately 16 per cent more students will be aided in the coming academic year as a result of the increase in funds.
