PATRICIA KELLY HAS MILITARY WEDDING

Miss Patricia Ann Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Kelly of Chicago, was married August 10 to Lieut. O. B. Steely, 61st Coast Artillery, at the Post Chapel at Fort Sheridan.

The ceremony was performed by Capt. Stanley J. Reilly, post chaplain. Attending the bride were Miss Charlotte Zimmer of Chicago as maid of honor, and Miss Elizabeth Thummel, daughter of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Claude B. Thummel of Highland Park, as bridesmaid. Attending the bridegroom as best man was Col. Hobart H. Steely Sr. of Milwaukee.

The ushers were Lieuts. James Churchill, Jr., Charles C. Cloud, Jr., Perry H. Eubank, and Merten K. Heimstead, all of Fort Sheridan.

The bride was attired in white starched chiffon. From a "Juliet" cap of lace trailed a veil of white net 12 feet in length. Her bouquet was a spray of white gladioli.

The maid of honor wore a gown of peach lace and a jacket. The bridesmaid wore the same except in blue. Each wore face veils and carried a cluster of peach colored gladioli.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. A. M. Kelly of Bosworth avenue, Rogers Park (Chicago).

Immediately after the ceremony in the sanctuary of the chapel, the ushers marched to the foot of the stairs leading into the main aisle, drew their sabers, and formed an arch under which the bride and bridegroom walked to the far end of the chapel, there being joined by the birthday party for the reception held afterwards at the Officers Club.

At the reception was a huge wedding cake, all in white. The first slice, as is traditional, was cut by the bride with the bridegroom's saber.

Following the reception, Lieut. Steely and his bride drove to New York for their honeymoon. On September 1st they will sail aboard the Army Transport Republic for Hawaii, where Lieut. Steely will be stationed with the Coast Artillery.

"Rage of Paris" At Deerpath Theatre

"The Rage of Paris," "Three Comrades," and "Chime School" being presented at the Deerpath Theatre next week.

Acclaimed by critics on both sides of the Atlantic for her superb artistry in both dramatic and comedy roles, Danielle Darrieux, radiant idol of the European screen, makes her American debut in "The Rage of Paris," a comedy romance which will play Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week at the Deerpath. The story presents Miss Darrieux as the heroine of a whirlwind romance which involves both a handsome advertising man and a rich playboy. Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., whose recent performances have added new brilliance to a famous theatrical name, is co-starred with Miss Darrieux. The top flight supporting cast is headed by two comedy favorites, Mischa Auer and Helen Broderick, and features Louis Hayward.

"Three Comrades" will be shown at the Deerpath Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday. From the pen of the author of "All Quiet on the Western Front," comes another gripping screen story, this time a narrative in which a nation's woes after the World War are overshadowed by one of the most human love stories to reach the screen. In the picture, Robert Taylor and Margaret Sullivan provide a poignant romance, with Franchot Tone and Robert Young also in stellar roles, adding performances which will remain long in the memory of the moviegoer.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week brings to the screen of the Deerpath "Crime School." Sometimes a amusing, sometimes tragic, always exciting, this Warner Brothers picture featuring the "Dead End" boys contains a powerful indictment of unthinking, brutal, out-moded methods of dealing with juvenile crime, effectively utilizing the talents of the six boys, as well as such adult players as Humphrey Bogart and Gale Page, beautiful newcomer to the screen from radio. The picture makes a strong case for its basic theme—that the old type of boys' reformatory is in fact a "Crime School." The newer methods of dealing with juvenile offenders designed to prevent their developing into adult criminals—are effectively contrasted with the old by basing the story on the determined fight made by an idealistic young official to introduce his ideas into a reformatory of the old type.

Mrs. L. Seligman, 26, 550 Arlington avenue, Chicago, driver of the car which struck Chiovari's car, applied her brakes to avoid the accident, lost control of the car and ran into a ditch. According to the local police, Chiovari decided to make the turn, just north of the crossing at Prairie avenue.

TUBERCULOSIS
Medical Science has made This Dread Disease Preventable and CURABLE

Such a short time ago Tuberculosis was one of the most dreaded of diseases. Of course, it is yet a serious thing to allow one's self to become run down and infected with the "T. B." bug. But thanks to scientific and medical research, Tuberculosis is now CURABLE. True enough, patience and full co-operation with Physician's orders is necessary, but what a blessed knowledge that another scourge of mankind is being conquered.

Tuberculosis is not stamped out by a very great deal, and it may take another century, but Medical Science is bringing that day nearer all the time. One of the very best possible ways you can help is to keep up your vitality—have a yearly examination, and insist on the same thing for every member of your family. The early stage of any chronic, acute or wasting disease is easier to cope with, and most especially is this true of Tuberculosis.
