Deerfield Legion Has Fine Carnival

Good weather and a genial crowd are two of the reasons why the Deerfield Legion Days carnival proved a success. The shetland ponies, the ferris wheel, tilt-a-whirl, merry-go-round, and all concessions drew large crowds. Music for the three nights of dancing was by Earl Fredricks orchestra from Arlington Heights.

The carnival opened on Friday evening with a children's parade, led by Ward Anderson and Bobby Pettis, the cowboy cousins, on their white pony, Jimmy. The parade started at the Post Office and the children marched down to the carnival grounds.

Prizes were awarded in Children's Parade to:

Cleverest impersonation — Boy, Tom Kerrhard; girl, Dorothy Jacobson, Dolores Strong.

Funniest dressed — Boy, Robert Olson; girl, Violet Pantle.

Decorated bike — Gladys Tanilian, Mary Kress.

Decorated dolls buggy — Laura Barbara Kapschull.

Decorated wagons — La Verne Goodman and Nancy Jacobs, LeRoy Gray and Caroline Gray.

Cleverest dressed groups — Huckelberry Finn, James Lee, Joseph Seyl, Ronald and Barbara Seyl.

Farm group — Charlotte and Carl Jacobson.

Cowboys — Ward Anderson and Robert Pettis, and their pony, Jimmy.

Original Dutch Girl — Mary Anne Hauser.

Old Fashioned Girl — Charlotte Hauser.

Miss Deerfield — Elsie Ann Pantle.

Police — Wallace Whitcomb.

Angels — Catherine and Margaret Marshall.

Red Riding Hood — Patsy Smith. Judges were Mrs. Walter B. Metcalf, Mrs. Carl Frick and Mrs. Chester Wolf.

Deerfield Board Passes Tax Levy

At the August meeting of the Deerfield Village Board last Tuesday evening, the annual tax levy ordinance was passed for $31,895 as follows:

For general corporate purposes	$11,200
For fire department fund	3,450
For streets and alleys fund	1,500
For playground and recreation fund	1,900
For police fund	2,825
Bonded indebtedness fund	6,550
Street lighting	4,540
Contingent fund	500
Total	$31,895

Bids were submitted for tarring the cracks in arterial streets. The lowest bidder was Anderson & Co. of Chicago.

Alfred Gastfield was appointed assistant fire chief to succeed Ralph Dunham, who resigned. Conrad Uctman is fire chief.

George Paige is having the village carnival fund audited and a complete report of the finances will be made later. Reports are that the village cleared over $2,000 at the benefit carnival in July.

Present at the meeting were Mayor C. M. Willman; Trustees M. A. Pottenger, Edwin M. Palmer, Ralph Peterson, Harry Stuppel and John D. Schneider; Village Clerk Chester Wessling and Corporation Counsel George McGaughey. Absent was Trustee William Hertel. The next regular meeting of the village board is the second Tuesday evening in September.

"WELL, HELEN, I'VE GOT A SURPRISE FOR YOU . . . AND IT'S VERY EXCLUSIVE"

Listen! We're going to have exclusive telephone service from now on. Charlie told me this morning that he tried to reach us four times last night . . . he wanted to take us to the theater . . . but the line was busy each time he called. "Why don't you change your telephone from a party line to an individual line?" he asked. "Costs too much," I said. "Not at all — it only costs a few cents more a day," he told me. Well, we're not going to miss any more good times because somebody else is using our telephone line.
