STRYKER-HASKINS WEDDING

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Isabel Haskins and Lewis Stryker, on Saturday evening, Sept. 10, at 8:30 o'clock in the Wilmette Methodist Episcopal church followed by a reception in the church lounge. Miss Haskins is the daughter of Mrs. Roy Haskins (Josephine Biederstadt) of Wilmette and Mr. Stryker is the younger son of the Edwin Strykers of Deerfield.

RAILROAD VETERANS

Two of Deerfield's most highly respected citizens are veteran railroad men. They are Burr H. Kress and William B. Carr. Mr. Kress has 54 years of service to his credit, starting at the age of 16 years with the Northern Pacific, then the Great Northern, and for the past 43 years, since 1894, with the Chicago, Milwaukee, and St. P. Mr. Carr has had 49 years of railroad service, beginning with the Canadian Pacific and then for the past 43 years, the same as his neighbor Mr. Kress, with the Milwaukee road. Incidentally they live across the street from each other on Hazel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kress and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Carr attended the C. M. & St. P. R. R. Veterans convention in Milwaukee last Wednesday and Thursday. The privilege of attending this convalesce means at least 25 years in the service and both Deerfield men have almost twice the required time. Both are conductors on the suburban line, James Carr Olendorf accompanied his grandparents to the convention.

THE BRICKYARD

The whistle of the brickyards has been silent for about ten years. Last week the whistle went into action as men prepared for the opening of the yards in September, and blew at noon and at the closing time, 4:30, throughout the week. F. J. LaBahn, superintendent of the plant, states that the yards will open the day after Labor Day and will continue to operate at least until December, as it takes that long to fill the sheds. When the brickyards are operating in full force, about 110 men will be employed.

THE STAGERS

"The Ninth Guest" will be the play presented by the Stagers on October 21. This is a stirring and thrilling mystery of which we will have more to say on a later date. It has been proposed by the finance committee that the prices for the coming season will be 40 cents per single ticket and one dollar for a season ticket that will admit one person to all three plays or three persons to any one play. A definite announcement of this arrangement will be made at a later date.

The new grand border was hung amidst much pomp and ceremony including two bands at the last meeting of the Stagers.

Mrs. Mary E. Devitt, upper grade teacher in the Bannockburn Grade school, has purchased a lot on Woodbine court in Woodland Park, which is just south of Bannockburn in the village of Deerfield, where a home will be built for her. Mrs. McDevitt and her two children and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Figer, are moving from 1267 Meadow Lane, in Woodland Park, and will live in the old Biederstadt home-stead at the corner of Waukegan road and Central avenue until the new home is completed. ## WHY WILSON'S Tender Made Ham IS SO POPULAR

- 1 Amazingly tender—you cut it with a fork.
- 2 An entirely new ham flavor—delicious.
- 3 Serve cold, just as you buy it.
- 4 Or heat in 1/5 to 1/4 the usual time.
- 5 Saves time, labor and fuel.
- 6 Practically no oven shrinkage.
- 7 Costs no more on your table.

"Like thousands of other smart women, I am serving Wilson's Tender Made Ham"

There's an idea, madam; a way to make Labor Day a holiday for you, too. And only Wilson's Tender Made Ham can do it.

Only Tender Made gives you the matchless tenderness and flavor produced by Wilson's "Secret Process."

Only Tender Made is "the ham you cut with a fork"—the most imitated ham in America.

And only Tender Made Ham combines these qualities with fast heating that cuts your kitchen time to less than half.

Serve Wilson's Tender Made Ham, either hot or cold, on Labor Day. But be sure it is the genuine. Don't be misled by clever imitations. Insist upon Wilson's Tender Made and see those exact words on the label or on the ham. Sold by dealers everywhere.
