MADELINE BLISS ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. George Edison Bliss of N. Linden avenue have issued invitations to the wedding of their daughter, Madeline, to Mr. James M. Kittleman II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle B. Kittleman of Evanston, on Saturday, Sept. 24, at half after eight in the evening at the Highland Park Presbyterian church, the pastor, Rev. Louis W. Sherwin officiating, assisted by Dr. Ernest Fremont Tittle, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Evanston. There will be a reception following the ceremony, in the parish house of the church.

Miss Mae Bliss will be her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids include Miss Katherine Kittleman of Evanston, sister of the groom, Miss Elizabeth Bliss of Flossmoor and Miss Emily Carothers of Pittsburgh, cousins of the bride, Miss Jane Littell of Kenilworth, and Miss Doris Lane of Evanston, Mr. Robert Tyles of New York, formerly of Evanston and a classmate of Mr. Kittleman at Cornell, will be best man. The ushers: Mr. James Munro of Highland Park and Mr. Henry Rich of Berwyn, cousins of the groom, Mr. Alan Barrows of Sheboygan, Wis., Mr. David Badger and Mr. Herbert Philbrich of Evanston, Mr. Donald Wood and Mr. George Osborn Bliss (brother of the bride), both of Chicago.

There have been two early parties, Miss Elizabeth Bliss entertaining at the dinner dance at Olympia Fields Country club August 27 and Mrs. Morton R. Mavor of Highland Park at Exmoor at the dinner dance on Sept. 3. Other affairs planned are dinner and dancing at Glenview Country club this Friday with Mr. Donald Wood host to the members of the wedding party, dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Osborn Bliss the following night. On Friday, Sept. 16, Mrs. James P. Fleming of Winnetka will give a tea and handkerchief shower, and that evening Miss Jane Littell will take the bridal party to the dinner dance at the Edgewater Beach hotel. The following evening Mr. and Mrs. David Badger, Miss Kittleman and Mr. Herbert Philbrich will entertain at the Badger home. Mrs. F. N. Bard of Highland Park will give a luncheon and provisions shower on Sept. 20. Miss Mae Bliss is having the spinster dinner Sept. 22 and her parents will entertain the bridal party the next evening, following the rehearsal. After a two weeks honeymoon the newlyweds will move into their apartment in Evanston.

GARLING-LANGE NUPTIALS

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Garling of N. St. Johns avenue announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Edna Dorothy, to Alan George Lange, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lange of Deerfield. The wedding will take place Saturday afternoon at 4:30 at the Redeemer Lutheran church with Rev. F. W. Suhr reading the nuptials. The bride will be gowned in a white net formal with a long veil held in place with orange blossoms. She will carry a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses. The bride's sister, Ruth, will be the bride's only attendant and will wear a gown of pale pink net, carrying a bouquet of lavender sweet peas and pink roses. The groom will have as his only attendant his brother, Walter. A reception will be held in the assembly hall of the Redeemer Lutheran church immediately following the ceremony. After a two weeks' honeymoon in the North Woods of Wisconsin the young couple will be at home at 307 North St. Johns avenue.

MARY JANE SCHULTZ BECOMES BRIDE

Miss Mary Jane Schultz of Ridgewood place became the bride of William Roberts, son of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Roberts of Chicago, last Saturday. The wedding took place at the Trinity Episcopal church at 8 o'clock in the evening with Rev. Christoph Keller reading the nuptials. The bride attired in a shell pink Winterhalter marquise gown, carried a bouquet of pink gladiolus. Her cousin, Miss Marion Schultz of Milwaukee, Wis. was maid of honor and was gowned in a deep rose chiffon dress with hoop skirts and poke bonnet and carried white astors. The bridesmaids, the Misses Gene-Ball, Jane Becker, Betty Schreyer, June Weber and Judith Schultz wore deep pink and rose chiffon 18th Century gowns, with poke bonnets and carried old fashioned bouquets.

Frederick Roberts, Jr., oldest brother of the groom, attended his brother as best man. The ushers were Whitt Schultz, Jr., brother of the bride, Tom Roberts, brother of the groom, Paul Schreyer, brother-in-law of the groom, Carl Johansson and Robert Byington.

A reception followed the nuptials at the Schultz' home, Crab Tree Point, Highland Park. The young couple will be at home at Maple and Dempster streets, Evanston, after a three week honeymoon in Quebec, Canada.
