COLLEGIATE NEWS

Alan Bede, Dick Higgins and Eric Haessler, who were popular members of last years graduating class, will spend this year at Dartmouth together. They plan to study a liberal arts course for three years and then transfer to business administration as a windup.

Newman Fell returns to Grinnell college, Grinnell, Iowa, on September 19. It seems that "Red" feels it necessary to study business administration and is now in his second year of study on that subject. "Red," to refresh your memory, was the outstanding redhead of the graduating class of 1936.

Amory Moore will transfer to the University of Illinois this year to resume a general business course. Bud, who is a sophomore, will leave on the 12th and his well-known twin sisters plan to take the train to Madison, Wis., three days later. The girls, Alma and Cecelia Moore, are juniors in the liberal science school at the University of Wisconsin.

Gordon Frisbee of '37 and Elizabeth Clarke of '38 will commence their college careers at Carleton college, Northfield, Minn. Elizabeth's sister, Margaret, will begin her third year of study at the Art Institute this September.

Tom Uhlman and a former Highland Park, Milton Tillman, attend the University of Washington, Seattle, Wash. Tom will leave town around the seventh in order to get back to school in time for the football practice.

Miss Elise Fleager, valedictorian of the graduating class of 1936, has studied for the past two years at De Pauw university, Greencastle, Ind. This year Elise is over in Paris. She left New York in August in order to attend the Sorbonne.

Mr. Keith Cary will go as far west as Iowa City late this month for his second year's work at Iowa State university. Keith, if you remember, was an earnest young man of whom we'll probably hear more of later.

Jim Sanford, our local drummer boy who has received much recognition of his ability to wield a pair of sticks, will commute to Northwestern again this year. Jim won first place in the national band contest a couple of years ago and was in the all-college band which played at Soldiers Field for the All Star game last week.

Next week Frances Venning, Elizabeth Clark, Juel Stryker, Nancy VanBergen, Hugh Suttle and Jim Black will all wend their way to Carleton college.

Joan Pier, Bill Larson, Bob Black, Franklin Fritsch, George Lanzl, Elroy Langill and Robert Lundin are the Highland Parkers who will be listed on the rolls of DePauw university, Greencastle, Ind.

The University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis., will be the destination later this month of two more home towners: Dick Knobloch and Mary Lu Sanborn.

Alan Mann leaves the 20th for Kenyon college in Gambier, Ohio, where he plans to take a pre-law course.

Art Hoffman will be heading for Duke college pretty soon.

Hazel Weaver is another of our local girls who will attend Franklin college, Franklin, Ind.

Fifteen Highland Park students are planning to be among the approximate 400 who will register at Lake Forest college on September 20 and 21. Upperclassmen who expect to return are Misses Erita Relio, Irene Price, Vivian Alexa and Messrs. John Brigham, Thomas Hawkins, Alvin Knaak, Ted Loeb, and Everett Price. Those who plan to register for the first time include Miss Dorothy Burnham, and Messrs. George Lyman, William Boehm, Wilbur Hinn, Percy Prior, Barton Sackett and Dulcie Lightner.

It seems that Adolph Norvik has his next four years all planned. He is going to attend Carroll college, Waukesha, Wis., for that length of time and hopes that his extra-curricular activities will not interfere with his school work to the extent that it will be necessary for him to spend more years working for his sheepskin.

Jane Griffith and Marjory McDonald will attend Mills college in Oakland, Calif., along with several other girls who were mentioned in last week's column.

Kenneth Ives will leave about the 24th for Cornell university where he will be a freshman in the liberal arts school.

Citizenship Classes To Be Concluded

Free classes in Citizenship and English under Federal supervision have been opened for a fall and winter term in Highland Park and Highwood. The classes will be held Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the Highland Park Public library and on every school night at St. James school in Highwood.

Classes begin at 6:30 o'clock. A special afternoon class for those who cannot come at night will be held every Wednesday afternoon from 1:30 to 3 o'clock at the Highland Park Public library.

There are many men and women living in Highland Park and Highwood who have come from foreign countries. A great many of these cannot speak English well and have not taken steps to become citizens of the United States. By attending these classes they will receive helpful instruction.

Florence Chase TEACHER OF PIANO for BEGINNERS AND ADVANCED PUPILS. Special attention given to principles of relaxation and weight touch. Memory training, musical appreciation and the rudiments of harmony form part of each lesson. Studio 102 N. Sheridan Road Telephone 149

Residents of Highland Park who are employing aliens in their homes or shops will render these people a great service by calling their attention to these classes.
