BAILEY-SEAGO WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Phyllis Seago and Mr. Temple House Bailey of Altus, Okla., took place on September 2 at Hot Springs, Ark., in the Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seago came up from San Antonio, Texas, for their daughter's wedding, and Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Seago of Highland Park also attended the wedding. The bride, who studied dramatics at Millikin college and at the University of Oklahoma, directed Deerfield's Centennial pageant in 1935, and has been teaching in Altus, Okla. The groom is an attorney and a city judge at Altus, where they will make their home. The bride is a member of Pi Beta Phi and her groom is a Kappa Sigma. The Seago family formerly lived in Deerfield.

STRYKER-HASKINS NUPTIALS

White gladioli and white chrysanthemums decorated the altar of the Wilmette Methodist church on Saturday evening, September 10, when Miss Isabel Haskins, daughter of Mrs. R. I. Haskins of Wilmette, became the bride of Lewis Clark Stryker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stryker of Deerfield. Edgely Woodman Todd of Deerfield gave an organ recital preceding the wedding and promptly at 8:30 o'clock to the strains of Lehngren's the bride came down the white, ribbon stretched aisle and was given in marriage by Dr. D. W. Rapp, an intimate friend of the family. Her gown was of heavy white satin, made princess style, with long puff sleeves and a draped neckline. The tulle veil, belonging to her mother, was fastened to a Juliet cap of net and white satin braid. The bride wore a string of pearls, the gift of her bride-groom. For something borrowed she wore a diamond wrist watch belonging to Miss Janice Coppe of Evanston and Billings, Mont. Her bouquet was of white roses, sweet peas, and valley lilies.

Miss Frances Haskins, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore a blue satin gown and carried tearose chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids were Georgia Haskins, Frances Rapp and Jane Moore, who wore tearose satin and carried blue chrysanthemums. George Stryker of Norwood Park served his brother as best man. Ushers were Bruce Karnes of Winnetka, George Ashman of Deerfield, Fred Seyphers and Richard Ismond of Chicago.

The bride's mother wore a crushed rose lace gown with a corsage of roses and the groom's mother wore a white silk crepe and a corsage of white roses.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Horace G. Smith, president of Garrett Biblical institute. A reception followed in the church lounge with Mrs. George Stryker of Norwood Park and Mrs. Grace Northrup of Villa Park, pouring. After a several week's trip in the south the young couple will be at home in Deerfield.

CHRISTENSEN-STURM WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Sturm and Mr. Leslie Christensen was solemnized on Friday, September 9, in the Little Brown church in the Vale at Nashua, Iowa, with Rev. William Kent officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sturm of Prairie View and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carter M. Christensen of Deerfield. The young couple returned to Deerfield on Monday. While in Iowa they visited Mr. Christensen's uncle, Charles Erickson, at Elgin, Iowa, and came back through Wisconsin.
