

Dr. Lois Greene Is Opening Office Here

Dr. Lois D. Greene announces the opening of an office for the practice of Otolaryngology in the North Shore Trust building at 2 N. Sheridan road.

Dr. Greene needs no introduction to Highland Park as she is a product of the town, having lived here the greater part of her life. She returned a few months ago from China.

A. E. Wolters, Dean Of Boys, To Speak At Lions Meeting

Arthur E. Wolters, dean of boys at the Highland Park High school, has been secured as speaker today (Thursday) at the regular meeting of the Lion's Club, which is being held at noon at the Twig'n Thistle.

Mr. Wolters, who has taught at the local high school for the past twelve years, received his degree in Mechanical Engineering at Iowa State university and his masters degree at Northwestern U. During his senior year at Iowa State he served as captain of the Varsity football team on which he played for three years.

He holds an enviable record in athletics, holding the Missouri Valley record for indoor quarter mile relays for sixteen consecutive years.

In one of the Big Ten meets he won the quarter and half mile on the same day, with the exceptional time of :48 for the quarter and 1:55 for the half. He was a member of the relay team which won the Worlds record. Mr. Wolters is being sponsored by Lion Seguin, who promises a most interesting talk by one of the most popular members of the high school faculty on "Highland Park High School, Then and Now."

Oak Terrace P.-T.A. Holds Initial Meet

The first meeting of the Oak Terrace Parent-Teacher association will be held Tuesday evening, Oct. 4, at 8 p.m. in the Oak Terrace school, Highwood.

The program will consist of talks by Dr. A. J. Risjord and Mr. Wayne Thomas, superintendent of schools. New teachers will be introduced during the course of the evening.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting with the eighth grade mothers as hostesses.

Announce Winners Of Football Contest

The opening football contest conducted yearly by the HIGHLAND PARK PRESS attracted unusual attention last week as countless answers poured into the office in anticipation of tickets to the Northwestern-Kansas game this coming Saturday.

The total score of the games recorded was 171, Brown vs. Connecticut being called off because of rain. The winner of the first prize was Francis Murphy, 11 N. St. Johns avenue, with a score of 173. S. P. Johnston, 505 Waverly road, was second with 169. Each of the above will receive tickets to Saturday's game. Emil Wiberg, 517 Central avenue, with 168, will receive a portrait by Hecketsweiler, and Charles Glass, 328 Waukegan avenue, with 177, and Walter Brunet, 507 10th street, North Chicago, with 164 will receive tickets to the Alcyon theatre.

Another contest is to be held this week, rules for which appear in the page advertisement. Tickets will be given for next Saturday's game, Oct. 8, Northwestern vs. Drake.

Large Attendance Is Expected At First Meeting of P.T.A.

A large attendance is expected at the opening meeting of the Highland Park High school P. T. A. Thursday, Oct. 6, at 3 o'clock, in the English clubroom.

Following is the program: Welcome—Miss Minnie Buzard. Business meeting—Mrs. Henry Clifford Hawes, president. Music—High School Quintet. Conference with teachers and tea from 3:30 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Mary Olendorf (Deerfield 185), Mrs. L. R. Haas, West Ridge district (Highland Park 4169), and Mrs. H. S. Bingham for Wheeling, Prairie View and Northbrook will arrange transportation for anyone in her district wishing it.

Collectors Study Group New Feature At Woman's Club

In response to a widespread interest in the community in such interesting subjects as old glass, old silver, historical Staffordshire and old prints, the fine arts department of the Highland Park Woman's club, of which Mrs. John Oliver is chairman, is sponsoring a Collectors' Study Group. Experts in the above and allied subjects will give informal morning talks and show and explain collections throughout the winter to any interested member of the club gratis, and to non-members on the payment of a small fee. The first of these talks will take place on the morning of November 1. The committee responsible for this entertaining and valuable presentation consists of Mrs. Wilfred C. Shipnes, chairman; Mrs. Kent W. Wonnell, vice-chairman, and Mesdames Theodore Osborn, Everett Easton and John R. Todd.

The board of managers for the year 1938-39 is as follows: President, Mrs. Herbert R. Smith; first vice-president, Mrs. Harry Pertz, in charge of revisions; second vice-president and membership chairman, Mrs. C. Eugene Pfister; Mrs. Tom Leeming, recording secretary; Mrs. Lyle Maley, financial secretary, and Mrs. Charles G. Mason, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Karl Wagner is treasurer; Mrs. John R. Oliver, chairman of the fine arts department; Mrs. Leonard Keaster, chairman of the home and education department; Mrs. Marvin Wallach of the social service department; Mrs. Armand McPhee, chairman of the hospitality committee; Mrs. Frank M. Sturtevant, chairman of the social committee; Mrs. Poyntz M. Murray, chairman of the program committee; Mrs. Edwin T. R. Murrey, chairman of the budget committee; Mrs. Frank Blake, chairman of the finance committee; Mrs. George O. Strecker, chairman of the house and grounds committee; Mrs. Jay S. Glidden, chairman of the furnishings committee; Mrs. Todd, director-at-large, and Mrs. Arthur Raff, chairman of publicity.

The attractive club house is being rented for dancing classes, evening lectures, afternoon teas and many other social and community activities where a big hall or a charming reception room may be needed. The rental is comparatively low, and Mrs. George O. Strecker, H. P. 790 is glad to give further information concerning rentals.
