

LOCALS

MILDRED FARMER WEDS GEORGE RALPH

The marriage of Miss Mildred Frances Farmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Farmer, and George Ralph, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ralph, Jr., was solemnized at 10 o'clock at St. James church, Highwood. Mass was read by the groom's brother, Father Victor Ralph, recently ordained to the priesthood, who came here from Corpus Christi, Texas. The bride was attended by Miss Stella Jocus of Waukegan as maid of honor and Richard O'Brien served the groom as best man. Because of the death of the groom's uncle, the wedding was a very quiet affair, and no reception followed the ceremony. The young couple are to make their home at 308 Oakwood avenue.

ANTINK-UCHER WEDDING

Miss Jeanette Antink is to become the bride of Mr. Alvin Ucher of Wheeling on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The ceremony will take place at the Bethany Evangelical church on the corner of Laurel and McGovern. Rev. H. F. Siemsen, the pastor, will read the ritual.

MARION STIVERS WEDS JAMES THOMAS

A pretty church wedding took place at the Bethany Evangelical church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at which time Miss Marion Stivers and Mr. James Thomas, both of this city, took the nuptial vows in the presence of their many friends and relatives. Rev. H. F. Siemsen, pastor of the church, read the ceremony, while Mrs. Laing, a friend of the bride, played soft music on the organ. The church was beautifully decorated with vines and flowers. The bride had Mrs. D. Dante as her matron of honor. Miss Helen Laing and Miss Harriet Stivers, a sister of the bride, served as bridesmaids. The bride's dress was made of lace and net over white satin with a train, and she wore a tulle veil to match, and carried a bridal bouquet of chrysanthemum buttons and roses. The maid of honor wore a dress of baby blue silk and carried a mixed bouquet a dress of peach taffeta, while Miss Stivers, the other bridesmaid, wore a dress of pink satin. They both carried old fashioned bouquets. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Francis Krueger. The single ring ceremony was used. The groom was attended by Mr. D. Dante as best man. Willis Burges and Harold Connelly acted as ushers. The bride and groom will make their home in Highland Park and will reside on North Sheridan road.

BENSINGER-WEISLOW MARRIAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Bensinger of Chicago announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Pauline Janice, to Saul Charles Weislow, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Weislow of Dale avenue. The wedding will take place Thursday, October 6, in the study of Dr. Beinstock of Temple Shalom in Chicago at 11 o'clock with breakfast at 12 o'clock at the Edgewater Beach hotel. The newlyweds will honeymoon at Turkey Run, Indiana, for two weeks after which they will live at 780 Sheridan road, Glen-wood, the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Weislow who will move into the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Weislow entertained at a lovely dinner party Saturday evening at the Sherry hotel, Chicago, for the young couple. Saul Weislow was former football captain at the University of Chicago in 1929.

WENDELL-MORAN NUPTIALS

Miss Alice Geraldine Wendell, daughter of Mrs. Alice Wendell, became the bride of Jack Moran, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moran, at a beautiful church ceremony at the Bethany Evangelical church, Saturday at 7 p.m. Rev. H. F. Siemsen, the pastor read the single ring ceremony. The bride's dress was made of egg shell satin, trimmed with buttons. The dress also had a long train. The bride wore a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of small chrysanthemum buttons mixed with daisies to match her dress. She was attended by Mrs. Carl Wendell of Battle Creek, Mich., as matron of honor. Mrs. Wendell wore a dress of Moray plum with veil, shoes and headdress to match. She carried a bouquet of small chrysanthemum buttons and roses.

Helen Coudoux of River Forest and Marion Peters of Highland Park acted as bridesmaids and were attired in dresses of dusty rose slipper satin, with veils, shoes and bouquets to match their dresses. The bride's mother wore a dress of wine shade velvet. The groom was attended by his brother, Frank Moran, as best man, while John Austin, Grant Benson and Ned Cartright all of Highland Park, served as ushers. Mrs. Hatland of Chicago, a cousin of the bride, sang two solos during the ceremony and Mrs. L. R. Hawley played soft music while the ritual was being read before the altar, which was beautifully decorated with greenery. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Lieut. Carl Wendell, of Battle Creek, Mich.

The bride and groom left for a trip to Kansas City, Kans., where they will spend ten days after which they will be at home in the Roger Williams apartments in Ravinia.

YOUNG MARRIED COUPLES MEET

All young married couples of the parish of the Bethany Evangelical church are invited to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sleeman, 596 Chicago avenue, on Tuesday evening. Part of the evening will be spent in the formulation of plans for the new organization that is being formed. This will be followed by a social hour.

BLISS-KITTELMAN NUPTIALS

Before an altar banked with greens and white chrysanthemums, Madeline Bliss and James M. Kittleman II exchanged their wedding vows at a ceremony in the Highland Park Presbyterian church Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Bliss is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Edison Bliss and Mr. Kittleman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle B. Kittleman of Evanston. The service was read by Rev. Louis W. Sherwin, assisted by Dr. Ernest Fremont Tittle, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Evanston.

Miss Bliss was the first bride to wear that gown that has been a family heirloom for more than half a century. Of palest green, just a shade deeper than ivory, it is made in the fashion of the '80's with a billowing taffeta skirt, a fitted bodice and a bustle. Her veil, a long one, was tinted the same shade as the dress. The bride carried an old fashioned bouquet of white roses and white button chrysanthemums.

In the wedding party were Katherine Kittleman, the bridegroom's sister; Elizabeth Bliss, Emily Carothers, Jane Littell and Doris Lane. All were attired in green, the bridesmaids in willow green taffeta and Mae Bliss, her sister's maid of honor, in emerald velvet. Their gowns were adaptations of the bride's made with tiny bustles, and the attendants all wore rust plumes in their hair. Their bouquets were of rust and gold chrysanthemums.

Robert Tyler of New York was best man, and the ushers were James Munro, Henry Rich, Alan Barrows, David Badger, Herbert Philbrick, Donald Wood and George Osborn Bliss.

On their return from a honeymoon in northern Michigan the couple will live in Evanston.

NEWLYWEDS TO MAKE HOME IN HIGHLAND PARK

Instead of traditional white, pale rose moire was chosen by Miss Katherine Dillon for her wedding gown which she wore to become the bride of Benjamin Greene Pierson of Evanston, Saturday afternoon in her parents' Winnetka home.

The bridal gown was an old fashioned model with hoop skirt, puffed sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her bouquet was Johanna Hill roses.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Dillon had her little niece, Nancy Ruth Smith, daughter of the Byron Smiths of Highland Park, as her only attendant, in the role of flower girl. Nancy wore a pale blue mousseline de soie gown, old fashioned, too, with rows of ruffles.

Philip Tobin of Evanston served Mr. Pierson as best man. The service was read by the Rev. F. J. Harth.

Miss Dillon is a graduate of Roycemore school and Northwestern university where she was a member of Alpha Phi. Mr. Pierson attended Lehigh university and was graduated from Beloit college, Beloit, Wis. He is affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity.

The couple will make their home in Highland Park.

Lt. and Mrs. James McGown (Jane Warren) are visiting Mrs. McGown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Warren, a few weeks while Lt. McGown is stationed at Fort Sheridan.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitt Schultz have taken a pleasure trip to New York City for two weeks. While away their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts of Chicago, are staying at their home on Ridgewood place.

Mrs. William J. Nelson entertained her bridge club at luncheon Wednesday at her home on Broadway avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Brooks of Glencoe avenue are entertaining at a buffet supper Sunday evening.

Mrs. Arthur Swanson and Mrs. A. L. Berg are entertaining at luncheon and bridge Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Nelson will motor to Eagle River, Wis., this week end to close up their summer cottage for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Meyer of S. Greenway road are spending this week at Hot Springs, Va. Mrs. Charles C. Hatcher, Jr. and son, Chandler, are spending ten days with Mrs. Hatcher's parents at Frankfort, Ky.

Mrs. J. B. Garnett accompanied her daughter, Jane, to Ann Arbor, Mich., last week where Jane entered her senior year at the University of Michigan. Mrs. Garnett returned the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Snite returned Monday from an eleven day tour through Ohio, West Virginia and Hot Springs, Va.

Word has been received from Mesdames Jared Johnson, E. R. Phelps, J. C. Morrison and Miss Mae Chandler, who are touring through the east, that they had passed through the hurricane section and are safe and are having a wonderful time. Mrs. Johnson will stop off in Quantico, Va., and visit her son, Lt. Chandler Johnson and family for several weeks.

Mrs. Florence Saach and Mrs. H. Nelson entertained at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Nancy Chalmers Wednesday evening and Miss Doris Simpson of River Forest will give a linen shower for Nancy on Sunday. Miss Chalmers and Robert Clarkson will be married October 15.

Miss Alice Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Holmes, left Tuesday evening for Santa Monica, Calif. where she will study music under Guy Maier this coming winter.

Mr. William Norvik of Highland Park has been elected president of the Freshman class at Carroll College.

Frank Moran, 719 South St. Johns avenue, is among the new students enrolled for the fall term at the American Academy of Art, Chicago. Mr. Moran is studying art fundamentals and life drawing, the regular first year subjects, according to Frank H. Young, academy director, he is making satisfactory progress.

Miss Nancy Stern of 615 Crescent court, Highland Park, served as chairman of the properties committee for the minstrel show which was presented Saturday evening (Sept. 24) at Rockford college. "Above Sing de Bombs," a satirical takeoff on college life, produced by the Women's Athletic Association, was written by Marguerite Myers of Oak Park.

Another Highland Park girl who is taking part in the show is Miss Jean McGowan of 2344 Pierce road.

The Trial Board of the Highland Park Music club will meet at the home of Mrs. Cloud Wampler, 343 Lake avenue, on Monday afternoon, October 17, at 4 o'clock for an audition of the candidates whose names have been proposed for membership. There will not be another audition until February.

Miss Carolou Coale recently returned from the East, where after acting as counsellor in a children's camp in Maine she visited in Washington, D. C., and toured the New England states. She is now teaching first grade in Flossmoor.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of Chicago are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son born Sunday, October 25, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Parkin, formerly of 234 Laurel avenue, are now occupying the Edwin Johnson home at 168 Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Melville have as their house guests Mrs. Edward Melville and son, Louis, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Christy of San Diego, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Cameron of N. Second street are announcing the birth of a daughter born land Park hospital.

Miss Lillian Glass of Highwood was heard over the WGN "Man on the Street" program Wednesday noon. When asked what subject she liked in high school she responded "Journalism."

Mrs. Joseph Snyder has just returned from Pittsburg, Pa., where she visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Snyder.

Mrs. A. M. Cline and her daughter, Mrs. Morris, of 589 Homewood avenue, had as their dinner guests Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Davis of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Morris's son, Mr. Dexheimer and his son.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter Bartlett of Highwood are the happy parents of a daughter born Friday, October 23, at the Highland Park hospital.

Edward Smith, local game manufacturer, has just returned from a business trip in the New England states, where he witnessed the recent tornado and conditions resulting. He states that it is almost impossible to believe that the wind could gain the momentum that it did. Enormous trees were uprooted and entire towns almost wiped out.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sorensen and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Nelson and daughter Nancy Ellen, of Elmwood Park, visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Scheer Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Roberts of Highwood are the proud parents of a daughter born Thursday, Oct. 22, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. David Applegren and daughters Jean Lois and Marilyn, and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Applegren and daughter Arlene were Sunday guests at the Carl Scheer home.

ECONOMICAL

Ham today is the best meat buy on the market. Tender Made ham is a better buy than ordinary ham because it is ready to eat when you buy it or served hot with 1/5 to 1/4 the usual cooking shrinkage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Scheer and daughters, Rose Ann and Lorraine, of Summit, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Scheer.

Announcement

Due to the death of Dr. Graham Taylor the membership tea for the Chicago Commons group has been temporarily postponed.

Elm Place P.T.A. Plans Attractive Program For Year

Elm Place P.T.A. opened the year's activities last Wednesday afternoon with a splendid attendance and the members are anticipating an interesting year ahead. The opening meeting was in the form of a reception. A 1938-1939 program was outlined which received favorable comment. Mrs. Schaaf, president of the group, and Mrs. Schur delightfully entertained with a group of duo piano arrangements. Tea was served.

On October 19, Beatrice Van der Vries, representative of the 7th Congressional District of Illinois, will speak on the future of Illinois Schools. Music has been arranged and tea will be served. Mark your calendars and do not miss this outstanding speaker.

Mrs. Martin Beckman Is Buried Wednesday

Funeral service for Mrs. Julia C. Beckman, 44, of 1850 Deerfield road, who died Sunday at the Highland Park hospital following a major operation, were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Kelley mortuary on N. Sheridan road. Rev. H. Hedlund, pastor of the Swedish church in Highwood, officiated.

Besides her husband, Martin L. Beckman, she is survived by two children, a boy and a girl.

SPECIAL VALUES!

at SINGER STORE

FLOOR SAMPLE SEWING MACHINES

Singer's floor samples and demonstrators, in excellent condition. Also other makes taken in trade, thoroughly reconditioned. A rare opportunity to get a good machine at little cost. Easy terms.

1. A lifetime service of advice and help in your sewing problems—and a Book of Certificates entitling you to all services listed here:
2. Seven Sewing Lessons.
3. Two Inspections and Adjustment Calls.
4. One Singercraft Book.
5. One Singercraft Lesson.
6. One Fashion Aids Book.
7. Two Fashion Aids Lessons—Spring and Fall.
8. Two Singer Style Digets—Spring and Fall.
9. One Sewing Book (your choice).
10. Two Style Consultations—Spring and Fall.
11. Two Home Furnishings Consultations.
12. One Measurement Chart—(made to your figure).

Authorized Singer Sewing Machine Agency.
39 South St. Johns Ave. Highland Park, Illinois
Tel. H. P. 995

Annemarie Wirz — Roger Balke

Instructors in

Piano and Music Theory

FALL TERM STARTING NOW

800 Ridgewood Drive
Phone 4571

40 Deere Park Dr. S.
Phone 1044

Indiana's Most Scenic Resort

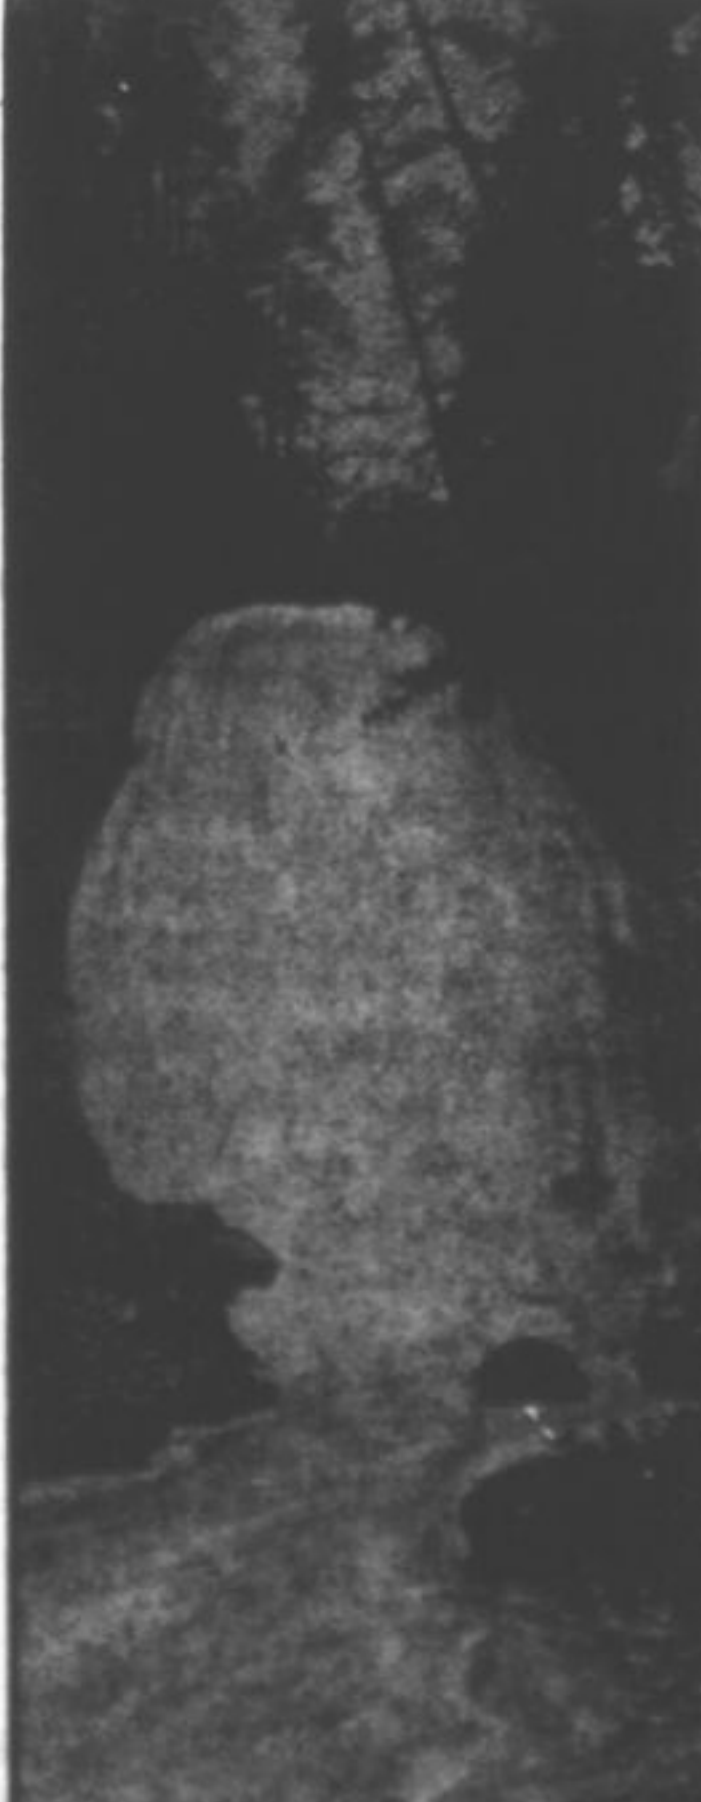

Modern Hotel
Selected Clientele
Moderate Rates

160 miles from Chicago via 41, Indiana 234, and "The Shades" signs.

Write for special summer rates. Rooms with private bath—all with running water.

Telephone Waveland 22 for reservations.

Shades Hotel
Waveland - Indiana

Tel H. P. 2400 - Highland Park, Ill. - Admission 30c - 10c

ALCYON

Doors Open 6:30 p.m. - First Performance, 7 p.m. - Second, 9 p.m.
Saturday, Sunday and Holidays, 2:30 continuous

Thursday Sept. 29
Double Feature
BARBARA STANWYCK
HERBERT MARSHALL
in
"ALWAYS GOOD-BYE"
Drama fired with inspired performances!
— And —
KAY FRANCIS
Anita Louise - John Litel
in
"MY BILL"

Fri.-Sat. Sept. 30, Oct. 1
RICHARD DIX
CHESTER MORRIS
JOAN FONTAINE
in
"SKY GIANT"
A power-packed story of modern aviation's most fascinating and perilous problem.
Added:
CARTOON IN COLOR
OUR GANG COMEDY

Sunday - Monday - Tuesday
Oct. 2-3-4
WARNER BAXTER
MARJORIE WEAVER
in
"I'LL GIVE A MILLION"
The gayest romantic adventure you'll see all year!
Added:
MARCH OF TIME
CARTOON IN COLOR

Wed.-Thurs.-Fri. Oct. 5-6-7
Double Feature
EDW. G. ROBINSON
CLAIRE TREVOR
in
"The Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse"
Don't miss this astounding story! It's prescribed for excitement!
— and —
STUART ERWIN
in
"PASSPORT HUSBAND"
Just plenty of good fun!

COMING
JOE BROWN in "THE GLADIATOR"
"LOVE FINDS ANDY HARDY" - "THE CROWD ROARS"
"LITTLE MISS BROADWAY"