

Army Man Faces Prison Term After Escape Friday

Nicholas Nedhoff, a 22-year-old private at Fort Sheridan, faces a long prison term after an abortive escape attempt. Nedhoff, under guard for desertion, was captured near Wheeling Friday afternoon a little more than two hours after he had grabbed a sentry's riot gun and fled the military reservation.

The sentry, James Le Neve, daringly attempted to stop the fugitive. Nedhoff, working on dump truck, leaped on his guard's back and attempted to wrest a riot gun from him.

The guard, who is five feet nine, and his prisoner six feet two, scuffled for a moment. The gun went off as Nedhoff succeeded in grabbing it. He then disappeared into a ravine and escaped from the reservation by crawling under a fence.

Two and a half hours later Police Chief John DeSmidt, Highwood and Capt. Temple G. Holland, provost marshal, came upon the fugitive attempting to thumb a ride along Milwaukee avenue north of Wheeling.

Nedhoff, who walked the entire distance of ten miles, was unarmed. The riot gun, later found abandoned at Fort Sheridan during the escape.

He has a police record. Charged with embezzlement in Indiana, Nedhoff jumped a $3,000 bond and enlisted in the army at a Missouri post, hoping to escape detection. He deserted and re-enlisted at Fort Sheridan. There he was arrested for desertion and put at hard labor.

Farmer-Lawyer Seeks Office of County Judge

On another page of this paper will be found the advertisement of one of the busiest campaigners in Lake county today—Robert P. Sullivan of Prairie View, Democratic candidate for county judge—While he is an accomplished attorney, Sullivan is likewise a pretty good farmer. . . . It is said of him that when he happens into farmyard at chore time while on a campaign tour he doesn't hesitate to take a hand in the work. . . . Farmers have been amazed by the ability of the dapper young man with a cuffed appearance as a milker. . . . As the milk flows into the pail as the result of his ministrations he finds a kindred soul milking in the next stall to listen to his political arguments. . . . Apparently Lake county is being treated to a new and effective form of political campaigning in the efforts of Sullivan. . . . Campaigners for both parties report that they have been finding it rather difficult to turn the thoughts of the public into political channels. . . . So much has happened in the world during the past month or so to divert their minds from such a prosaic thing as a fall election.
