Mrs. Johnston is to be complimented for the splendid way in which she carried out the duties of President during the past year.

New Boy Scout Troop Organized

Under the direct sponsorship of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, a new Boy Scout Troop is being formed. Mr. Robert Anspach, as chairman of the Troop Committee, has announced that this new Scout Troop, which will be known as Troop 31, will hold its first meeting next Thursday night, October 20, at 7:30 p.m., at the Elks lodge on the corner of McGovern and Laurel streets. All boys who are interested are urged to attend.

Dr. James Butterworth, local veterinarian, has agreed to assume the duties of Scoutmaster. Dr. Butterworth has many qualifications which should appeal to the boys. He is a great outdoors man. From 1928-1932 he held the National Junior Rifle Championship; from 1932-1937 the National Intercollegiate Rifle Championship; from 1929-1931 the Illinois State Rifle Championship; from 1932-1934 the Iowa State Championship; from 1934-1935 the Indiana State Championship; 1931-1932 the Ohio State Championship; 1932-1934 the Missouri State Championship. Dr. Butterworth is also the instructor at the Highland Park High school for the girls' rifle group.

A strong Troop Committee made up of a group of Highland Park citizens who are members of the Order of the Elk, will assist Dr. Butterworth and Mr. Robert Anspach in putting this troop across. They include the following men: Mr. Lloyd Sheahan, Dr. Bruno Christensen, Mr. Howard Siljestrom, Dr. S. R. Banfield.

All the other troops in Highland Park are wishing this new unit every success.
