

H. P. High Eleven Defeats Woodstock 32-0; Waukegan Next

Running 50 yards in the first quarter to score Highland Park's first touchdown and opening the second half by taking the kick-off 90 yards and across the goal line, Johnnie Heath led the locals in a 32-0 victory over Woodstock last Saturday. Three other touchdowns were scored by Dave Floyd's varsity outfit on passes Heath to Nelson and Lorimer to Boone in the second period, and Frost to Boone in the third. Ray Nelson made good on two attempts for the extra points.

Coach Chuck Lauer started his second string line-up, but was forced to send in his regulars after Woodstock's peppy outfit scored two touchdowns in the first half while holding the locals scoreless. Menduno, Zook, Picchietti, and Vole scored two extra points in the last half to make the final score 26-12 for Highland Park.

The Highland Park teams play at Waukegan Saturday and return to Highland Park for the Homecoming games with New Trier the following week-end.

In the varsity game Boone, Wygal, Dean, Hoie, Peters, Jones, the two Lorimers, Heath, Nelson, and Frost started for Highland Park. Maechtle, Baraconi, Boves, Bangs, Rossi, Chambers, Bichler, Barnhardt, Vole, Dettmer, and Pantle started in the Fresh-soph game.

Students Rehearse for Annual Fall Play at High School

An all-school cast of thirty-two students and a production crew of nearly as many are hard at work at the high school preparing the annual fall play for its presentation on November 18.

This year's play will be "First Lady," a play based on the feminine side of official Washington society. "First Lady" was written by Katherine Dayton and George S. Kaufman and was such an eminent Broadway success that Walter Winchell called it "Public Entertainment Number One!"

Bette Hobbs, Patsy Haynes, Bobbe Bosworth, Elwin Kruse, and Carroll Binder have leading parts in "First Lady" while Rosemary Russo will play the title role. Miss Elyse Rinkenberger will be assisted in directing the play by Burt Beers, Jean Wendlandt, and Lila Buckmaster.

Football Fan Suffers $5.50 Penalty on Fun

Although the average football fan, taking the girl friend to Saturday's game, may consider himself lucky to get through the day on a $15 budget, his luck is more imaginary than real, according to the National Consumers' Tax Commission.

From the time he climbs into his warm $40 coat at noon, to the hour when he grinds out his last heavily taxed cigarette on the girl friend's front step, he can figure that in taxes alone he has contributed approximately $5.50 to the running of his federal, state and local governments, the commission frowns. Adding to the weight of the coat that keeps him warm are direct and hidden taxes of $4.02. Three gallons of gas and two packages of cigarettes nip him for another 25c. The woolen blanket over his girl's thin clad knees has an impost of 40c—while food and "liquid refreshment" for them both raise another 50c in concealed revenue. Two

$2.20 tickets mean a tax burden of 40c in the amusement tax alone—all of which may be cancelled to dull the day's hilarity for our enthusiastic fan.

The steam roller of hidden taxes, according to the commission's warning whistle, runs over and through every item of consumer purchase. These hidden levies result in an increase of commodity prices to the point where, through the necessity of having to tackle too many of them, the standard of living of the American family is threatened.

The commission, with headquarters in Chicago, is calling the consumers and taxpayers of the country into a huddle to stop the attack.

"Hands Across The Sea" To Be Given By Temple Players

The Temple Players, a group of North Shore players, will present a rollicking one-act comedy, "Hands Across the Sea," by Noel Coward, at 8:30 p.m. October 25 in the auditorium of the North Shore Congregation Israel, at Lincoln and Vernon avenues, Glencoe, under the direction of Miss Edith Ostermann, a Wellesley graduate who has studied play production at Northwestern University's School of Speech. Miss Ostermann also has studied theater and direction in England, France and at the University of Munich.

A chalk talk demonstrating how professionals use make-up will also be presented by Howard Graham, fellowship instructor in dramatic interpretation at Northwestern university. Mr. Graham acted at the Coach House theatre, Oconomowoc, Wis., last summer under Thoda Co-craft, managing director of the American Theatre society.

The public is cordially invited to be the guests of the Temple Players at this first programme of their winter series.

Driverless Car Hits Telephone Pole As It Rolls Down Hill

A driverless car, owned by Robert Gronau, 632 Laurel avenue, rolled down the hill on Laurel avenue last Wednesday evening, and crashed into a telephone pole, damaging the pole and badly wrecking the car.

Mr. Gronau had left his car parked in front of his home. In some manner it is believed the emergency brake became dislodged and the car rolled down the hill. As the hill is quite steep, the car gained considerable momentum and crashed with great force into the pole.

Outstanding Films Coming Next Week to the Deerpath

Romance and sure-fire comedy are combined with uproarious results in Rich Man, Poor Girl, featuring Robert Young, Lew Ayres and Ruth Hussey at the Deerpath Friday and Saturday. Others in the cast include Lana Turner, Guy

tle, Kibbee, Rita Johnson and Don Cas-

The Crowd Roars, Robert Taylor's latest stellar triumph, screening at the Deerpath theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday; and it is a triumph for Taylor for he provides the surprise of the year in his first prizefight role, giving more verisimilitude to the character of Tommy "Killer" McCoy than probably any other film player who ever essayed a fight part. Teamed with the star again is Maureen O'Sullivan. Other important roles are filled by Edward Arnold, Frank Morgan, William Gargan, Lionel Stander and Nat Pendleton.

What might aptly be termed a mighty drama of the humble home is Mother Carey's Chickens, RKO Radio's screen version of the noted modern classic by Kate Douglas Wiggin, which features Anne Shirley, Ruby Keeler and James Ellison. Playing Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Deerpath.
